D NOT MARRY HER.

Robert Goelet Denies that He Took Eleanor Anderson, a Former Telegraph Operator to Wife, as Reported.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The report gained wide publicity today that Robert Goelet, son of Mrs. Ogden Goelet, was married by Father Lavelle of the cathedral to Miss Eleanor Anderson, daughter of a restaurant keeper on Sixth Avenue. Miss Anderson was until recently a telegraph operator in the Grand Hotel, but has not been there for the last week. Her father lent some color to the story by saying in a mysterious way that his wife was attending to the whole matter and that he would give out the whole story later in the evening. A reoprter talked to Robert Goelet tonight, who said:

"There is not one word of truth in the story of my marriage to Miss Anderson. I never heard of her; never saw her, and don't know who she is. I had only been back from abroad a short time, and have but just returned from Newport. This outrageous story coming at this time, when all of my family are busy with the details of my sister's coming marriage, is very distasteful to us all. You cannot make it too strong that there is not a scintilla of truth in the story, from beginning to end."

Father Lavelle of the cathedral also denied that he had married Goelet and Miss Anderson.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—Under the specific orders from Washington, it is stated, that the inspectors who have been here several days have begun a rigid examination into the affairs of the New York Postoffice.

The inspectors are said to have obtained copies of the pay rolls, and the names and addresses of every employé for the purpose of investigating each particular case and learning all the dates of first employment, and all details as to term of service and the merit system employed that resulted in promotion with increased pay.

Postoffice Inspector Frank E. Little is in charge of the corps of investigators and with him are Inspectors Holmes and Snow of Cincinnati, Farrell of Chicago, Pendleton of Boston and Thomas of San Francisco. The investigation will probably continue for several weeks.

TOVAR SETS SAIL FROM THE ISTHMUS.

Commander of Colombian Troops Gives Way to the Republic.

Great Rejoicing at Panama, and News from the Interior Declares People Participate Therein—Government Forces at Penonome Join the Revolutionists—Europe Tacitly Approves of United States Intervention.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

COLON, Nov. 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The revolutionists are in complete control of the isthmus, from the Atlantic to the Pacific tonight. The isthmus has been formally declared to be independent of Colombia.

All of the Colombian troops have embarked, and are now on their way to Cartagena. With them have gone their generals, who have surrendered to circumstances that made further efforts useless.

The revolution is an unqualified success. It was accomplished with the sacrifice of only two lives, those of the Chinese killed in the bombardment of Panama by the Colombian gunboat Bogota, Tuesday night.

That there will be no fighting is evident. The provinces adjacent to the isthmus have signified their intention of coming under the flag of the new republic. The body of Colombian government troops stationed at Penonome, sixty-five miles southwest of Panama, has joined the revolutionary movement. At every moment, dispatches are received from the most important men of the interior, announcing their adhesion to the new republic.

With the abandoning of the isthmus by the troops of the Colombian government, no other Colombian troops will be allowed to land on either side. That is the position taken by the United States naval officers here, acting under instructions from Washington.

PANAMA, Nov. 5, 7 p.m.—[By Central American Cable.] Gen. Tovar, commander of the Colombian troops on the isthmus, realizing that resistence to the new republic is hopeless, has accepted the terms offered by the junta, and has sailed with his staff and troops on the Royal Mail steamer Orinoco for Cartagena. The arrangement to this end was made through the efforts of Commander Hubbard of the United States gunboat Nashville, Superintendent Shaler and Assistant Superintendent Prescott of the Panama Railroad, who guarantee that both parties will fulfill the agreement.

There is great rejoicing all over the city, because the stability of the republic now seems assured. The fact that troops were already moving toward the line probably decided Gen. Tovar and his staff to accept the terms of the junta. The flag of the new republic flies at the railroad stations at Gataun and Bohio Solado, near Colon. Troops from Panama will doubtless take charge of the city tomorrow. The municipal Council of Colon has just notified the provisional government at Panama of its adherence to the new republic.

Telegraphic advices received from the interior provinces say there was great rejoicing there when the news of the declaration of the independence became known. The government troops stationed at Penonome, sixty-five miles southwest of Panama, have joined in the revolutionary movement, and almost every moment telegrams are received from the most important men in the interior announcing their adhesion to the new republic.

The revolution has been practically bloodless, as only two Chinamen were killed during the bombardment of the city by the government gunboat Bogota. The first report said only one. The fire of the warship unroofed one house, a shell hit the tower of the cathedral, and another fell on the house of Frederico Boyd, a member of the revolutionary junta.

The foreign consuls promptly sent an ultimatum to the commander of the Bogota, protesting against his action in opening fire on the city without giving proper notitfication of his intention to do so. The royal mail steamer Orinoco carried 28 officers, 435 men and 30 women. The United States auxiliary cruiser Dixie has just arrived.

CONGRATULATED FROM ABROAD.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

PANAMA, Nov. 5, 11 a.m.—The government of the new republic of Panama, is constantly receiving congratulations from Paris, London, the republics of Central America and from nearly all other parts of the world.

Up to the hour of filing this dispatch, nothing definite had been decided in regard to Colon, where the government troops brought to that port direct by the cruiser Cartagena from Savanilla are still encamped. The government of the republic of Panama is making all efforts to prevent bloodshed, but the correspondent of the Associated Press understands that an ultimatum was sent to Gen. Tovar, commander of the government forces at Colon, announcing it as the intention of the government of the republic of Panama, should he refuse to consider the generous proposals made to him, to permit the embarkation of his troops on board a steamer and their transportation back to Savanilla, to send an army to attack Colon.

The telegraph lines communicating with the interior of the isthmus are kept busy transmitting notices from the inhabitants of outlying places of their adhesion to the recently-declared republic of Panama.

JUNTA'S MANIFESTO.

The revolutionary junta last night issued a manifesto addressed to the citizens of the republic of Panama, saying that the inhabitants of the isthmus had done what was inevitable in view of a situation which was becoming graver daily. It was pointed out that notwithstanding the grievances inflicted on the ismians by their Colombian brothers, the former had suffered with resignation for the sake of harmony and the union. Under the late system of Colombian government, the inhabitants of the isthmus had been governed with the narrow-mindedness which in days gone by had been applied to American colonies by the powers of Europe.

The manifesto then refers to the fact that the Isthmus of Panama paid Colombia large sums in customs duties, adding that while the junta did not wish in this exposition of facts which would be handed down to posterity to be regarded as being moved by a mercenary spirit, nevertheless it was but just to point out that, in spite of the large sums of money collected from the isthmus for fiscal purposes, the latter had not received the benefit of even a bridge over any of its rivers; the construction of a single road between any of the towns of the isthmus; the erection of any public buildings; the establishment of a single college, nor of any other step tending to advance the industries or intellectual development of Panama, as not even the most infinitesimal part of the large sums collected had been applied toward benefiting Panama in any shape or form.

The failure of the Hay-Herran canal treaty to meet with approval of the Congress at Bogota is then touched upon. It is pointed out that only a few public men were opposed to the treaty, and that their opposition was due to the fact that it was alleged that Panama will be the only part of the country which would receive direct benefits from the building of an inter-oceanic canal. The manifesto then continued:

"The people of the isthmus, in view of this notorious situation, have decided to recover their sovereignty in order to work out their own destiny and to insure the future of Panama in a manner in keeping with the evident destiny of the country, its vast territory and immense riches. The initiators of the movement aspire to assist in this work and also to take part in the foundation of a republic where the laws shall be the unfailing guide of those governing and those who are governed; where effective peace will be established, and in which all shall join in the work of civilization and progress which must result in perpetual stability.

"At the beginning of the life of this independent nation, we fully appreciate the responsibilities which the present state of affairs means, but we have profound faith in the good sense and patriotism of the isthmians and we believe that they possess sufficient energy to open the way by their labor, to a future, happy, without worry or danger.

"The separation of the isthmus from Colombia was accomplished without any feeling of hatred, or any sentiment of joy. Just as a son withdraws from the paternal roof, the isthmian people, taking their chosen path, have separated themselves from Colombia. They did it with grief, but they complied with their supreme, inevitable duty—that of looking to their own future, of attending to their own preservation, and of working out their own welfare.

"We therefore now begin to form one of the free nations of the world. We consider Colombia as being a sister nation with which we shall be in sympathy whenever circumstances may require it, and for whose prosperity we have the most fervent and sincere hope.

CAME OFF MONKEY HILL.

THOUGHT IT UNHEALTHY.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

COLON, Nov. 5.—[By Central American Cable.] It was arranged yesterday that the government troops should withdraw to the outskirts of the town, and they did so during the night. This morning, however, Col. Torres marched the troops to the center of the town, which caused a landing of American bluejackets this morning.

The correspondent of the Associated Press here has just had an interview with Commander Hubbard of the Nashville, who said he had offered to reembark the American force if the government troops would return to their camp on Monkey Hill, where they passed the night. Col. Torres, however, refused to return to Monkey Hill, which is about a mile from Colon, saying the place was too unhealthy for the soldiers, and that it was necessary for them to come to town.

Commander Hubbard did not think the Colombian troops would venture to attack the bluejackets, who were barricaded behind bales of cotton in front of the bank and the railroad buildings. He distributed about fifty rifles to private citizens, who, with the bluejackets, are guarding the barricades. Torres says he is determined to give battle to any troops coming to Colon from Panama.

ANXIETY ALL DAY.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

COLON (Colombia) Nov. 5, 9:30 a.m.—Much anxiety prevails in all quarters here today. It is recognized that the crew of the Nashville would be quite inadequate to cope with the situation ashore, should serious disturbances occur, and the arrival of the Dixie is anxiously expected. It is hoped she will reach Colon soon, but there is no knowledge what may occur before that. The Nashville is preparing again to land a detachment of bluejackets. The commotion ashore is intense.

Gen. Guiterrez, one of Colombia's best generals, arrived here today from Cartagena on board the Austrian steamer Jenny. This has intensified the situation immensely. Although Colon was perfectly quiet last night, the foreign residents here continue to seek refuge on board the ships in the harbor, or in the buildings of the Panama Railroad, which, as an American concern, will be protected by the forces of the United States.

CONSUL-GENERAL GUDGER.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

ASHEVILLE (N. C.) Nov. 5.—Hon. H. A. Gudger, Consul-General to Panama, who has been spending the summer and fall months at his home in Asheville, left today for New York, where he will take a boat for Panama.

WEST POINTER COMMANDS.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

PANAMA, Nov. 5.—Gen. H. O. Jeffries, a graduate of West Point, has been appointed commander of the Pacific flotila by the provisional government. Carlos Constantino Arosmena has been made assistant secretary of foreign relations.

As soon as the Colombian troops leave Colon, the troops of the new republic will be sent there. The provisional government has already organized the military to be commanded by Gen. Domingo Diaz. All the soldiers forming the division fought with the government or Liberal army during the last revolution. They are therefore already trained and accustomed to military discipline.

"ANGLO-SAXON PERFIDY."

MEXICAN SHEET IS WROTH.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

CITY OF MEXICO, Nov. 5.—There is great public interest here in the Panama revolution, and the undercurrent of talk in Clerical party circles, where Colombia is regarded as in sympathy with the Clerical party programme, is that the American authorities are the secret promoters of this disturbance and are planning to seize the Panama region and annex it to the United States.

The Clerical organ, El Tempo, with a wide circulation here, is indignant over the news from Panama, and says the present trouble is but "the beginning of a farcical prelude to a terrible drama which is about to unfold itself upon the coveted isthmus, and which will end, perhaps, with the dismemberment of the unhappy Colombian nation and the augmentation of the prestige and power of the United States on the American continent."

The paper, in conclusion, charges that the revolution is probably directly the result of the resentment which the politicians of the United States expressed at the fiasco of the Hay-Herran treaty and as an exemplification of the perfidy of the Anglo-Saxon race.

FRANCE CONSIDERING.

WILL ACT WITH DISCRETION.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

PARIS, Nov. 5.—[By Atlantic Cable.] The French Consul at Panama has cabled a request for instructions in view of the revolution, and Foreign Minister Delcasse is considering the question. It is expected that instructions will be formulated and sent soon showing the attitude of the French government. There is a strong indication that its attitude will not be materially different from that of the United States, and will probably take the same general lines. The Consul says the revolutionists control the situation, and confirms the Associated Press report that the Colombian flag has been taken down and that the flag of the POPULAR SENATORS.

Agitation for Them Again Probable.

Election by Vote of the People Discussed by Prominent Members of Congress.

Issue Has Crossed Party Lines at Many Points and Old Democrats Oppose It.

Turner of Oregon Says Over Thirty Legislatures Were in Favor of It.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] There is a quiet movement on foot to agitate during the coming regular session of Congress the question of the election of Senators by the people. Senator Turner of Oregon is in favor of the scheme. He said today:

"This subject was canvassed thoroughly at the opening of the last Congress. It was found more than thirty Legislatures, or the necessary two-thirds which might call a constitutional convention, were they to act together, had formally declared in favor of the popular election of Senators. About that time an effort was quietly making to have a sufficient number of States petition Congress for a constitutional convention. Colorado, Montana, Oregon, Idaho and Nevada were among the first to petition, but the disclosure of the plan evidently prevented its making much further headway. Nearly all Northern Legislatures were in Republican hands, and this was fatal, since there has been a growing tendency of late years to make the popular election of Senators a purely Democratic issue."

Among Republicans who have made important speeches in favor of the change are David B. Henderson and W. P. Hepburn of Iowa, Judge Pope of Vermont, Senators Perkins of California, Burrows of Michigan, Mitchell of Oregon and Clapp of Minnesota.

Among Democrats who have spoken against it are George Gray of Delaware, Pettus and Morgan of Alabama and Vest of Missouri in the Senate, and Franklin Bartlett of New York and William Everett of Massachusetts in the House.

The issue has thus crossed party lines at many points. It seems likely that from this time forth it will be more closely allied to party policy. The Democratic opponents of the change are of the old-line class, who are no longer a controlling influence. It is by all odds one change in the Constitution of the United States which today has the strongest popular support.

COCKRAN FOR CONGRESS.

TO SUCCEED M'CLELLAN.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] W. Bourke Cockran was spoken of today as a probability for member of Congress from New York to succeed Col. George B. McClellan. Several prominent Tammany men said they believed Cockran would be willing to return to the House of Representatives, and said the nomination would be the strongest possible one that Tammany could make. Cockran was non-committal on the subject, but his friends said they thought his nomination and election highly probable.

M'CLELLAN FAVORS MILES.

FOR POLICE COMMISSIONER.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The Tribune says Col. McClellan is considering Gen. Nelson A. Miles as a possibility for Police Commissioner of New York City.

VICTIM OF OVERSTUDY.

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—Much excitement has ben caused among the residents of East Orange, N. J., by the mysterious disappearance of Miss Clara J. Coffin, daughter of a New York broker. The girl was a leader in the younger social set of the Oranges, and had been studying quite hard to keep up with her classes in high school, where she was to graduate this year. The school authorities believe her mind to have given away under the strain of overwork.

PRESIDENT HEARS ABOUT CALIFORNIA.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] When Representatives Daniels and Needham went up to the White House today to pay their respects to the President, they were able to and did tell him that California is stronger than ever for him. Afterwards, Representative Needham told the people who inquired if the reelection of Mayor Schmitz in San Francisco did not portend something in national politics, that the election was without even State significance. Mr. Needham said that he believed that in spite of Schmitz's election this year, the President will carry San Francisco by 12,000 votes next year over any Democrat who may be nominated.

Information leaked out from administration circles today that Senator Hanna may announce, when the Republican National Committee meets in Washington, December 9, that he will be a candidate for appointment as chairman of that committee for another term, and consequently a candidate for the place of manager of the Presidential campaign of Theodore Roosevelt. These reports of harmony between the President and Senator Hanna are so persistent and strong in Washington and come from such well-posted people that they compel belief.

WASHINGTON.

EVERYBODY GET A HOME.

Maxwell Booms the Policy of Western Irrigation.

Nobody Need be Out of Work in the Next Generation.

Congress and the Cuban Treaty. Gov. Dole's Report—Ocean Derelicts Numerous.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The President had a talk today with George P. Maxwell, chairman of the Executive Committee of the National Irrigation Association, about the land laws and irrigation. Maxwell would not tell the newspaper reporters what the President said to him, but when he was asked what effect the land frauds recently unearthed in the West would have upon the demand for the repeal of the Timber and Stone Act, the Desert Land Act and the commutation clause of the Homestead Act, he said that the exploitation of these frauds as something new was amusing from the standpoint of western men, and that it had been a notorious fact in the West for years that these frauds were being perpetrated.

"The fault," he said, "is not in the administration of the laws. The laws themselves are structurally and fundamentally wrong. They cannot now be administered, and cannot be amended so as to be administered and prevent such abuse.

"The Desert Land Act, especially, violates the basic principle of the whole national irrigation movement, which is that no one shall have an acre of public land who will not found a home on it and live on it for five years, as required by the original Homestead Act."

He said the talk about amending the Desert Land Act was nothing more than an attempt to drive the people of the country, and either delay action by Congress or get something through which will still enable cattlemen to get irrigation lands without the necessity of anybody residing upon them. There is no limit, Maxwell said, to the immense area that can be readily absorbed into one great cattle ranch, if title to the land can be obtained without requiring the entryman to live upon it. If the Desert Land Act were so amended as to require five years' residence, it would be equivalent to repeal, because no settler would ever take up land under it, and pay $1.25 an acre for land which he could get for nothing under the Homestead Act, by merely living on it five years.

Mr. Maxwell said further that the large number of workingmen now being thrown out of employment should intensify this demand for a land policy which would reserve the remaining agricultural public lands for bona fide settlers and provide for their irrigation by government works, just as fast as settlers can take the land, in not more than 160-acre tracts, found homes and pay back to the government the cost of irrigation works. He said if this policy were put into force in a broad way there need not be a single man out of employment in the United States in the next generation.

TRIAS GOT NO COMFORT.

NO JAP-FILIPINO DEAL.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5.—The Japanese Minister has received an official statement regarding the alleged dealings between the officials of the Japanese Consulate at Manila and the insurgent leader Trias, as reported by Gen. MacArthur, in December, 1900. The statement says that the matter was investigated by the Japanese government, and it was learned that Mr. Hoajo of the Japanese Consulate at Manila met Trias accidentally on a pleasure trip and was introduced to him by a fellow-traveler. In conversation, Trias stated that the insurgents were in need of arms and ammunition; that if they could obtain a supply sufficient for the equipment of from 8000 to 10,000 men, it would be an easy matter to drive the American troops out of the islands, and ultimately to secure independence and that if Japan would assist the insurgents by supplying arms and ammunition, the right to establish a permanent coaling station, freedom of trade and railway franchises would be conceded. He then inquired how Mr. Hoajo thought the Japanese government would regard such a proposition.

Mr. Hoajo stated that he had no authority to discuss thematter in his official capacity, but that his private opinion was that it would be absolutely impossible for Japan to consider such a proposition, or to render any assistance whatever to the insurgents, and he added he thought the wisest course was submission to American authorities.

The United States Minister at Tokyo was notified of the facts revealed by the investigation and of the resultant action, and the reply received from him stated that the United States government regarded the matter as finally closed.

DANGEROUS DERELICTS.

NUMEROUS IN THE ATLANTIC.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Derelicts, particularly along the trans-Atlantic routes, have become a very serious peril to mariners. Investigation proves that in the North Atlantic Ocean, the derelicts alone average nineteen a month, and with the constantly-increasing size and speed of the great trans-Atlantic liners the necessity for keeping their routes clear of floating dangers becomes more and more imperative.

Thus reports Commander W. H. H. Southerland, in his account of the year's work of the Hydrographic Office of the Navy. Since January 1, four collisions with submerged derelicts, or wreckage have been reported, and though the approximate locations of such obstacles are shown on the pilot chart, these indications merely serve as a general warning to the mariner, but are not accurate enough to insure his safety.

As this matter is becoming of more importance each year, and as the great majority of derelicts in the North Atlantic Ocean originate on this coast, Commander Southerland earnestly recommends that a properly-equipped vessel be provided to patrol the trans-Atlantic lines from this coast to the eastern limit of Georges Bank, to search for and destroy these dangers to navigation.

ADMIRAL BRADFORD'S REPORT ON EQUIPMENT.

COAL DEPOTS IN FOREIGN WATERS NOT EFFICIENT.

New Surveys Necessary in the Pacific. Against Transfer of Naval Observatory and Nautical Almanac Officers. Earnest Defense of His Own Bureau.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5.—Rear-Admiral R. B. Bradford, chief of the Bureau of Equipment of the Navy Department, in his annual report to Secretary Moody draws attention to the inefficiency of the coal depots in foreign waters for naval use, but because of the publicity given to the report, the matter is not discussed, owing to diplomatic considerations. It is stated, however, that no progress has been made during the last year toward increasing the number of stations. In connection with the subject of naval coal depots, two maps of the world are submitted, the first showing the coal depots built, building or projected by the United States, and [illegible] giving similar information concerning Great Britain. Rear-Admiral Bradford directs attention to the maps and concludes: "A comparison of the two is instructive."

Coal for steaming purposes bought during the year amounted to 487,036 tons, costing $2,435,168, an average of $5 a ton. The bureau has made agreements in sixty-six foreign ports to suply ships of the navy with coal at below current prices.

Comment is made upon the necessity of hydrographic surveys in the Pacific Ocean, in order tha the large number of imperfectly-known dangers to navigation may be definitely located, or if non-existing, erased from the charts.

In reference to the Philippines, it is said that with the exception of ports on this archipelago which have been surveyed since its occupation by the United States, there is scarcely a mile of water expanse so charted that it may be navigated with complete confidence. Recommendation is made that in the future these surveys be prosecuted with vigor.

The bureau reports that the commission appointed to consider the question of transferring to the Department of Commerce and Labor offices of the Naval Observatory and the Nautical Almanac offices, has reached the conclusion that it would be unwise to transfer these officers from the jurisdiction of the Navy Depatment, because of their nautical character and their indispensible aid in preparing for war. The bureau says it learns that it is opposed to the proposition to place these offices under civilian control and attach them to the Secrtary's office, and adds: "The reasons assigned would appear to be equally good for retention under the administration of the sea-going combatant officer."

Admiral Bradford devotes one of the longest paragraphs of his report to an earnest defense of the integrity of the Equipment Bureau, the existence of which, he declares, is threatened by the aggressiveness of other bureaus. He presents extended argument embodying quotations from various Secretaries of the Navy and other authorities to show that it would be very unwise to disturb the present organization, and he refers with some bitterness to the efforts to abolish the bureau.

On the subject of an organization of sea-going officers of superior rank to advise the Secretary of the Navy on professional matters which had been advocated for a number of years, Admiral Bradford says it is not material by what name the organization is known, but suggests that the designation "Admiralty staff" seems appropriate. He says that it should not be so large as to be unwieldy, and that probably five members with a corps of assistants would be sufficient, and that its duties should be clearly defined, and advisory only. The bureau recommends such a body to be created and named by executive authority.

In conclusion, Admiral Bradford says that after an experience of six years in the department, he believes that it is the administration of the department that needs attention rather than its organization, particularly in the direction of expenditure of money and in confining the subordinates of the department to their legitimate duties.

DEFENDS THE INDIANS.

AGENT BRENNAN DISTURBED.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5.—The Commissioner of Indian Affairs today received the following telegram concerning the Indian situation from Agent Brennan of the Pine Ridge Agency, dated yesterday, at Hot Springs:

"A Sheriff and posse from Wyoming arrested nine Indians and their families near Edgemont, S. D., last night. They are supposed to be part of those engaged in the fight Saturday. Tried to have them released pending investigation, but officers insist on taking them to Douglas, Wyo. Mob violence threatened. The Governor should be telegraphed at once to use all means to protect Indians now under arrest. The United States Attorney should be ordered to Douglas to see justice be done the Indians under arrest. In my opinion the killing of the six Indians reported was totally unjustified."

In accordance with this recommendation, the Secretary of the Interior has requested the Governor of Wyoming to protect the Indians under arrest. It also has been decided to send Special Agent McNichol to the scene of the recent conflict, to make inquiry concerning it.

CUBAN RECIPROCITY TREATY.

INTERESTING DEVELOPMENTS.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5.—There were some interesting developments today as to the method of Congressional procedure on the Cuban reciprocity treaty. That treaty was amended by the Senate adding the words "This treaty shall not take effect until the same shall have been approved by the Congress." It has been generally supposed that a joint resolution or a bill approving the treaty would be all that was necessary, but members of the House and some Senators take an entirely different view. They say that a bill must be passed reducing the duty on the products of Cuba, and that every provision affecting duties must be enacted into legislation.

Representative Tawney of Minnesota, who was leader of the Republican minority that opposed the reciprocity bill in the last Congress, said today that the provision requiring Congressional approval when inserted in the treaty was known by him to be defective and open to objections. The treaty of 1854 with Great Britain for reciprocity with Canada and the treaty of 1878 with Hawaii, he added, both contained provisions at the very beginning, stating that when suitable legislation was enacted by Congress to carry out the provisions of the treaties, then the President should issue a proclamation announcing the fact and the treaty thereon should become effective. Both these treaties were followed by legislation in the form of a bill reciting the articles that were to be admitted duty free. Mr. Tawney contends that to approve the treaty by a simple resolution would be void, and asserts that the sugar provision of the treaty is nothing more than a pledge of the government that the duties on sugar shall not be changed during the life of the treaty. Any tariff bill, he contends, can abrogate this provision of the treaty or the treaty itself.

The Finance Committee, which will meet tomorrow, will take up the subject of the form of legislation necessary to carry the treaty into effect. Generally, the Senators believe that a simple resolution of approval will be all that is necessary, but some Senators, notably Senator Teller of Colorado, think that if approval is attempted in any such form it will raise a constitutional question which will cause a long debate in the Senate. Senator Teller expects that the whole tariff question will be opened for discussion by the Cuban measures, and that it will be well into the regular session before action in the matter is taken by the Senate.

This afternoon Representatives Payne, Hemingway, Deselle, Tawney and Mann conferred with Mr. Cannon on the form of the proposed Cuban legislation. Later, Mr. Cannon said the matter would be determined by the Ways and Means Committee. Mr. Payne, who is to be chairman of that committee, said he could make no definite statement about the form of the legislation until he had consulted all the members of the committee, but it was his opinion that the measure in form would be a bill rather than a resolution, as he did not see how the House could do otherwise.

Senators Allison, Aldrich, Spooner and Platt of Connecticut arrived in Washington tonight, and immediately went into conference in Senator Allison's apartments at the Arlington Hotel. At the conclusion Senator Allison said he believed the Cuban treaty would be made operative by joint resolution. He cited the method adopted by Congress in relation to the Mexican treaty as a precedent.

The special committee appointed by the Senate at the last session to prepare a financial bill to be submitted for consideration of the Fifty-eighth session of Congress has not prepared a draft of its ideas, and Senator Allison said tonight that he does not look for much financial legislation. However, the Senate Finance Committee will meet tomorrow, and some definite programme may be made.

HAWAII'S POPULATION.

REPORT OF GOV. DOLE.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5.—Gov. Sanford B. Dole, Chief Executive of the Territory of Hawaii, expresses the opinion in his annual report to the Secretary of the Treasury that "unless there should be a larger immigration of American settlers than now seems probable, the present numerical inferiority of those who may be classed as belonging to the Teutonic race, as compared with the Hawaiians, will, in a few years, become a still greater inferiority, as compared with the American citizens of the Hawaiian, Portuguese, Japanese and Chinese races."

This opinion is based on conditions in the schools. The American and European children in these schools, not including Portuguese and Porto Ricans, number 1505, an increase of only eighteen over the previous year, while the Hawaiian, Portuguese, Japanese and Chinese children in the schools number 16,299, an increase of 945. Among references in the report to social conditions in Hawaii, are the following:

"There are many marriages between Hawaiian women and white men and a few between white women and Chinamen. The offspring of both classes of marriages are an improvement, as a rule, over the Hawaiian in business. The Portuguese generally inter-marry among themselves. The same is true of the Japanese. Part Hawaiians as a class are increasing."

The report says the statistics show a steady increase in the last three years in the production of sugar, and an increase in the shipments outside the Territory. Coffee shipments show an increase of 720,000 pounds over the previous year, but a decrease of 689,080 pounds compared with the year ended June 30, 1901. Rice, the report says, is inevitably a diminishing product, both from the competition of the new rice fields of Texas and Louisiana and the diminishing numbers of Chinese in the Territory.

Gov. Dole says that the majority of the new settlers on the public lands last year were white men. He recommends that a limited immigration of Chinese laborers to the Territory be permitted, conditioned upon their engaging only in agricultural, mill and domestic work for hire during their stay, and subject to deportation at their own expense upon their ceasing to do so.

BANKRUPT WHEN BORN.

Shipbuilding Trust Hearing is Resumed.

Nixon Started Crescent Company on Three Thousand Cash.

Owners of the Plants Were the "Eminent Experts" Who Appraised Them.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] A new revelation in the affairs of the defunct United States Shipbuilding Company came at the termination of today's session of the hearing before United States Special Examiner Oliphant when Samuel Untermeyer, counsel for the bondholders' committee, elicited from Lewis Nixon the statement that four officials of the United States Steel Corporation had advised the expenditure of $1,000,000 for improvements on the Bethlehem steel plant, which expenditure precipitated the failure of the shipbuilding trust.

Lewis Nixon said he surmised the reason for recommending the expenditure, but he was not allowed to say what his surmise was. He declared that the steel corporation was really the only competitor in the manufacture of armor plate that the Bethlehem company had.

Nixon's answers to the questions put to him by Untermeyer in re-direct examination said that Schwab, James Gayley, W. E. Corey and W. D. Dixon, all officials of the steel trust, were accompanied by a party of United States shipbuilding officials when they went to make an appraisal of the Bethlehem plant for the purpose of recommending an expenditure for improvements. Aroused by the merciless examination of Lawyer William D. Guthrie, representing Charles M. Schwab, and insinuations that he had helped to deceive the public in an effort to float bonds and stocks of the United States Shipbuilding Company, Nixon declared that lawyer was making a scapegoat of him. When Nixon entered the hearing room after recess for luncheon this afternoon, he was trembling with excitement. He turned directly to Examiner Oliphant and said: "Will you allow me to address a few remarks to Mr. Guthrie?" Mr. Oliphant nodded assent, and Nixon said:

"Mr. Guthrie, I wish to address my remarks to you. When you addressed your outrageous and disgraceful remarks to me here this morning, it was my intention to have my personal counsel with me. I see that this whole thing is sprung out of selfishness and greed, and for that reason you, a reputable lawyer, have been probing into my early personal efforts.

"When you made the insinuations you did about the cash capital of my company, I did not know exactly what you meant. Since I have learned. The cash was on its way from Mexico, and would have been here in ample time. I see it all."

Nixon's voice trembled with emotion. "You are trying to make me into a scapegoat."

ONLY NIXON EXAMINED.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—Nixon was on the stand all day. His cross-examination was finished and the redirect examination partly completed. At the opening of the afternoon session, he presented a personal protest in which he declared that Guthrie, in consultation with Max Pam, had adopted a line of questioning designed to place him in a false and discreditable position regarding the sale of his plant to the shipbuilding consolidation. The protest was angry and bitter in tone, and intimated that Guthrie had been unfair in asking him to answer from memory questions about the finances of his company without opportunity to look up the details, while Guthrie had had the benefit of a full investigation of the figures.

By agreement of the counsel, the protest was stricken from the record, but Nixon thereafter during the hearing insisted that if he were to answer questions he should be allowed to make the necessary explanations.

Besides asking Nixon about the organization of the shipbuilding company, the valuations put upon the constituent companies and the methods by which they were reached, Guthrie took up the alleged withholding of dividends by the Bethlehem company, an action which, according to the charges of Receiver Smith, contemplated the wrecking of the company.

Guthrie placed in contrast Nixon's attitude in demanding by letter, of President McIlvain of the Bethlehem company, that the Bethlehem directors declare a dividend to save the shipbuilding company and later, at two subsequent meetings of the Bethlehem directors, in acquiescing in resolutions declaring it inexpedient to declare such a dividend. He also brought out that Nixon had voted for the resolution for the expenditures for betterments. This was the means, so Receiver Smith, charges, by which earnings were diverted from dividends to needless improvements.

Guthrie took up figures from the financial reports of the Bethlehem company to show its inability to pay dividends. Untermeyer, from the same reports, attempted to show that expenditures for betterments and new material were excessive and that the company might well have declared a dividend had it been so desired. He was questioning Nixon about the trip of examination made by Bethlehem and Carnegie officers to determine means of improving the Bethlehem plant when the inquiry closed for the day.

The re-direct examination of Mr. Nixon will be resumed tomorrow afternoon and Charles M. Schwab may be placed on the stand later in the day.

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—It was announced by the United States Steel Corporation this afternoon that the price of steel billets had been reduced $4 a ton, and that the price of steel rails would not be changed. It was also broadly intimated that the services of a number of high-salaried employés of the Steel Corporation would soon be dispensed with.

AMERICAN POLICY PROMISES SUCCESS.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The President received Admiral Walker, chairman of the Isthmian Canal Commission, Secretary Hay and Secretary Moody today, indicating interest in the Panama revolution. It is thought that if the revolution should meet with only partial success, annoying the Bogota government rather than defeating it, the Colombians might decide to accept the American offer for the canal before it is too late, and as a measure of conciliation to the disaffected State. If the revolution succeeds, the American government can do business with a State long desiring to have the canal constructed. In either event, there must be a two-thirds vote of the Senate in support of whatever policy the administration decides upon before actual construction can begin.

The Colombian treaty, which the Senate ratified last winter, is dead, and any new negotiations at Bogota would require Senatorial affirmation, as much as negotiations with Panama. This, it is argued, should prove a sufficent check against any hasty action. The opinion prevails here that Panama will before long justify its claim to recognition as a belligerant. The present American policy is to prevent bloodshed there and preserve peace, keeping the line of transit by the Panama Railroad open in occordance with the obligations of the treaty of 1846. It will be difficult for Colombia to put down the rebellion with our maintenance of neutrality on this strip. Our officers apparently are interpreting their instructions to mean they should not let the revolutionists get at the government forces at Colon, nor allow the government army to attack the revolutionists who are in control of Panama.

Colombia cannot put in troops except by sea, and much difficulty will attend her doing this without interference with the safety of the Isthmian trains.

The administration realizes how eager Senator Morgan, in his devotion to the Nicaraguan route, will be to prove the present outbreak at Panama is due to American instigation. It is asserted, however, that he will be unable to sustain any specific charge that the administration has gone beyond the requirements of a neutral state, or that its present instructions exceed the obligations of the treaty of 1846. The administration has realized the likelihood of criticism on this score, and so far as can be ascertained, has proceeded with caution. The American governcent cannot be blamed, it is argued, because Panama, which long has been restive under Colombian rule, saw an extremely favorable opportunity for revolt, and at the time when a successful revolution would mean so much to its commercial prosperity.

Colombia has drawn heavily from the reserves of Panama, and has given Panama considerable ground for rebellion, aside from its rejection of the present treaty. The report that an international syndicate, in which the Kaiser is interested, might negotiate for a canal concession with the Bogota government, leaving the question at issue as to whether authorities at Panama or Bogota were in possession of territorial sovereignty, lacks plausibility. The French concession will not run out until next year, even by the absurd claim that its renewal is illegal, which claim recently has been made by Bogota. Rival aspirants for the canal franchise, if there be any, could do nothing until then. A renewal of the concession, moreover, would be obtained by the French government, and undoubtedly by the United States independent of our interest in canal construction.

Recognition of belligerency is an executive function, as was maintained so forcefully by Secretary Olney at the time of the Cuban trouble. There is little likelihood, however, of any difference of opinion between the administration and Congress over the subject now, especially since the necessity of a two-thirds votes in the Senate for ratification of any treaty leaves ultimate control of the situation with that body.

STATEMENT TODAY.

WILL DECLARE OUR ATTITUDE.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5.—The Associated Press is informed that the President will probably make a statement tomorrow regarding the peovisional government of Panama, of the establishment of which this government was officially informed today. In view of the latest advices from Colon, to the effect that the junta had succeeded in gaining control of the situation, it is expected that this government will recognize the newly-established government, but it is impossible to secure official information on this point.

The decision to make an announcement tomorrow was reached after a conference at the White House tonight between the President, Secretary Hay, Secrtary Moody, Assistant Secretary Loomis, Rear-Admiral John G. Walker (retired,) and Rear-Admiral Henry C. Taylor, chief of the Bureau of Navigation. Secretary Hay and Secrtary Moody dined with the President, and later were joined by the other officials. The conference ended shortly after 11 o'clock.

A cablegram received tonight from the American consul at Colon, saying that the 400 Colombian troops which arrived there Monday on the Carthagena had sailed away.

The Associated Press is enabled to say that this government will conduct affairs with a firm hand in the execution of the treaty of 1846. Orders have been sent to the various naval commanders in the Caribbean Sea that the isthmus is to be policed, the transit kept open, and also that bloodshed must be prevented at any cost. This is further than the United States have ever gone heretofore, and in the opinion of officials here indicates that the establishment of the new government at Panama, if it proves stable and orderly, will have the good wishes of the United States and our ultimate recognition and coöperation in conducting an orderly and permanent government on the isthmus. Advocates of the construction of the Panama Canal say this assures the execution of that project.

It was learned tonight that the Prairie will sail from League Island next week with 300 marines for Guantanamo, and that in case the situation cotinues serious on the isthmus, the Prairie will proceed thence to Colon and land additional marines. The dispatch received from the executive board of the new government announcing the establishment of the provisional government of the Isthmus of Panama stated that its action was in response to a popular and spontaneous demand on the part of the isthmus people, and that the board was assured of the necessary military strength to carry out its determination. It was first intended to send a reply to the three consuls, but after the conference tonight it was decided that no announcement would be made as to the character of this reply until tomorrow.

The departure of the troops from Colon greatly relieves the seriousness of the situation, and the arrival of the Dixie tonight relieved the general apprehension here regarding the safety of American lives and property.

This government, it was said tonight, is interested, but not surprised to note the European approval of the policy, as shown in the Associated Press dispatches from London, Berlin and Paris, but it was added by a high official that a restoration of order on the isthmus and its maintenance had been long desired by the European powers, and that the United States was in reality doing them and their interests a service.

Officials of the administration say nothing has yet been decided as to our policy, save that it has been decided to execute the obligations of the United States as to affairs on the Isthmus of Panama in accordance with a broad interpretation of the treaty of 1846.

The State Department has received information to the effect that communication with Buena Ventura, the Colombian port on the Pacific Coast, and with the interior points has been restored. This has been interrupted for a time, owing, it was supposed, to the cutting of the cable by the revolutionists. Recourse, it is supposed, has been had to another cable controlled by the Central and South American Telegraph and Cable Company, which stretches across the Pacific Ocean from the Colombian shore to a point in the State of Panama, but which avoids the city where the revolutionists are operating.

Dr. Herran, the Colombian Chargé d'Affaires, here, said tonight that he had not received any news from his government regarding the revolt in Panama, nor has he had anything from the officials on the isthmus. He may make a report to his government of the conditions on the isthmus, as he learns them here, and of the feeling of the United States government in the matter.

It was said tonight that orders would be sent to the cruiser Baltimore, now on her way to Santo Domingo, to proceed to Colon. It was suggested, also, that in the event of the postponement of recognition of the new government, the question might be referred to Congress for action.

NO MORE BLOOD MONEY.

Back Broken of 'Frisco's Sailors' Trust.

Shipping Crews Without Aid of Boarding House Men.

State's General Fund Almost Exhausted—Strange Sickness of Cattle.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] This port will hereafter enjoy a better reputation in Great Britain and other foreign countries, where for years big ship owners have complained of the crimping and "blood money" methods of sailors' boarding-house keepers. All the efforts of the British consulate and courts seemed futile in remedying the evil.

But now the combination of boarding-house men, which has exacted an extravagant fee for furnishing sailors, the rate recently reaching $35 a man, has been broken through the efforts of Capt. John Barneson and W. B. Swears, who are supplying crews to shipmasters at a nominal fee. The effect has been to demoralize the combine, members of which include the Sailors' Home, and to cause each of the boarding-house men to go into business on his own account.

Barneson, who was recently superintendent of the transport service, and is now the local agent for a number of British ship owners, recently had two ships ready for sea, and while trying to get crews, encountered the combine, which demanded a bonus of $30 per man. He refused and was told he would be forced to pay $35 later, and more if he delayed. Barneson sought the assistance of Swears, who supplies crews for the Pacific Mail and other steamship companies. Swears quickly secured men for Barneson, and the combine seeing defeat ahead, covertly sent some of their seamen to be shipped. Swears has now charge of the shipping of foreign crews, and for the time being blood money is abolished.

The first vessel supplied with a crew by Barneson and Swears was the British ship Orion. Other vessels supplied are the Peter Iredale and British ships Dundonald and LochH orridon. British skippers say the arrangement will be hailed with delight all over the world, wherever there is a ship listed for this port.

LEGACY FROM GAGE.

SHORT GENERAL FUND.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

SACRAMENTO, Nov. 5.—State Controller Colgan today sent a letter to Gov. Pardee informing him that the general fund of the State was exhausted, and suggesting to him that he make an order transferring enough money from special funds to carry on the State government until the new taxes come in at the first of the year. The Governor made an order transferring $447,000. A transfer of $921,000 was made on the first of last July. The claim is made that the transfers are necessary because of the fact of insufficiency of the tax levy made by Gov. Gage.

FRIGHTFUL DEATH.

FATE OF CARELESS WORKMAN.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 5.—George Anderson, an employé of the Risdon Iron Works, met with a frightful death today. Anderson, with two other employés named Frank Beck and Harrison were sent aloft to repair an electric traveling crane which was out of order. Anderson was the last of the trio to mount the ladder to the crane. As he reached the top he threw his arm over the track on which the crane is run, without noticing that a second crane was bearing down on him.

The grooved wheel upon which the crane travels struck Anderson's arm and cut through it like a knife. The severed member fell and the released body of the injured man fell to the foor 35 feet below.

The contact with the floor caused Anderson's skull and many bones in his body to be broken, and by the time his fellow-employés reached his side he was dead.

PROBABLY LOST.

THREE MEN IN LAUNCH.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

CAYUCOS, Nov. 5.—James Liddle, Robert Tonnini, Jr., and Dr. A. C. Ruepke, a dentist, left Morro yesterday morning in a small gasoline launch to fish in the ocean. During the afternoon very heavy seas began running, rendering it unsafe to land at any near-by port. Inquiry by telephone at all accessible points where they might have put in brings no information concerning them, and it is feared that the little craft has been capsized. Parties are patrolling the beach searching for wreckage. Ruepke came here recently from Alameda.

STATE MEDICAL LAW.

TEST CASE UNDER IT.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 5.—On a writ of habeas corpus issued today by Justice Beatty of the State Supreme Court, Dr. G. B. Gerino, arrested at the instance of the State Board of Medical Examiners on a charge of practicing medicine without a license, will be taken before that tribunal tomorrow for the purpose of testing the law passed by the last Legislature in 1901, providing for the issuance of licenses to practitioners by the board.

POOR'S PLIGHT.

ACCUSED OF GRAND LARCENY.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

SEATTLE, Nov. 5.—Frank B. Poor, of the Citizens' Light and Power Company, recently organized as a rival of the company of the same name, was arrested on a bench warrant issued from the Court of General Sessions, charging him with grand larceny in the first degree.

The specific charge alleged is that Poor, while a partner in the banking house of Marquand & Co., New York City, appropriated to his own use $9000 in Iron Mountain mortgage bonds, and subsequently fled the country, coming to Seattle. The alleged appropriation is said to have been committed on June 23, 1901. An indictment by the grand pury was obtained on the 28th of October last.

Poor's bonds were fixed at $1000, and the date of hearing November 14. Bail was promptly furnished.

HIS ANTECEDENTS.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

HACKENSACK (N. J.) Nov. 5.—Frank B. Poor, who was arrested in Seattle today, was, up to the time of the failure of Marquand & Co., of New York, a junior partner in the concern. He was a son of the late Edward P. Poor, of New York, president of the National Park Bank.

RELIGIOUS FANATICISM.

PRAYED TO RAISE DEAD.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

EUREKA, Nov. 5.—One of the most aggravated cases of religious fanaticism that has occurred here was that in which members of the Peniel Mission of Eureka attempted to raise the dead by prayer before the body was lowered into the grave yesterday.

Mrs. Alice Scow, who while in life had been associated with the mission, died three days ago, although many prayers were offered at the mission to have her life spared. After services had been held at the grave yesterday and the box containing the body had been lowered into the grave, four women of the Peniel Mission stepped to the edge of the grave and asked that the box be lifted out again, which was done. The undertaker was called upon to open the box and raise the head, when the women knelt about the ground and said: "Alice, arise; I command thee in the name of Christ to arise now." Receiving no response from the dead woman they called upon the Lord to raise the dead. They made ineffectual attempts to have the coffin lid taken entirely off, so that the dead might arise, but the box was finally closed again and lowered into the grave.

SLOPE BRIEFS.

Small Cargo of Oil.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 5.—The whaling bark Alice Knowles has just arrived here with only 1870 barrels of oil. The captain reports the loss of seven big whales and two boats smashed during the cruise.

Fugitive from Kansas.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 5.—David R. Nelson is detained in the city prison here on information furnished by the Sheriff of Montgomery county, Kan. It appears that Nelson jumped a $5000 bond given for his appearance at the District Court of Montgomery county to show cause why he should not be prosecuted for having aided his brother, John C. Nelson, in avoiding arrest when wanted on a charge of manslaughter.

Chong Wo Owes Much.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 5.—Creditors of Chong Wo, a Chinese fruit packer and storekeeper at Pajaro, in Monterey county, filed a petition in the United States District Court asking that he be declared an involuntary bankrupt. They allege that he owes more than $15,000, and that on October 29 of this year he committed an act of insolvency by suffering F. J. Bettencourt, George Cleveland and other creditors to obtain a preference over other of his creditors by means of attachment suits on his property. Chong Wo has left the country and his property is in the custody of a justice of the peace in Pajaro.

Charged With Abortion.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 5.—Mrs. Dora Fuhrig, a woman practitioner, was booked at the City Prison today on a charge of murder as the result of the death of Mrs. Annie Callaghan on October 29, following a criminal operation, which she said in her dying statement, had been performed by Mrs. Fuhrig.

Last Rites Over Estee.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 5.—The remains of Morris M. Estee, late United States District Judge at Honolulu, were interred tonight in the Odd Fellows' Cemetery, after impressive services at the Masonic Temple. The obsequies were conducted by the California Grand Lodge of Masons and an eloquent eulogy was delivered by United States Circuit Judge W. W. Morrow.

Strange Sickness of Cattle.

SACRAMENTO, Nov. 5.—Dr. C. H. Blemer, State Veterinary Surgeon, returned today from El Dorado county, where he went to inspect several bands of cattle which were sick. Dr. Blemer said the illness of the cattle was strange. He said the cattle seemed to be suffering from some kind of poison. There have not been many deaths among the herds. It is believed the cattle were made sick by some food they picked up. Owing to the drouth that has prevailed in the mountains food has been very scarce, and stock had a serious time in the hunt for feed. It is supposed the cattle in El Dorado county came across some poisonous weeds or vines.

Thief Shamming Insanity.

SALINAS, Nov. 5.—The alleged horsethief, who was arrested at Hollister Tuesday, after a running fight, has been found to have several wounds, received at the hands of the posses. He is now closely watched in the County Jail here as he is thought to be shamming insanity. He claims his name is Delman. He also says the horse was given to him, that he was on his way to the New Idria mines, and shot at his pursuers, thinking them to be thieves. When taken unawares, he answers intelligently and quickly.

BLAIR'S POLICIES.

Mutual Life Insurance Company Files Application for Cancellation of Them, Alleging Attempted Suicide of Holder.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 5.—In the United States Court today the Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York, filed an application for the cancellation of two life-insurance policies aggregating $250,000 carried by the company upon the life of James L. Blair.

The company charges that the policies were secured through fraudulent representations. The petition further charges that Blair attempted to take his own life on October 15 and October 31, and defraud the company of the amount of the policies.

The petition also charges that Blair for ten years, during which time he was attorney for the company, deceived the company by representing that he enjoyed an income of $100,000 a year; that he was a capitalist and able to pay the premiums.

APOSTLE'S POLYGAMY.

Heber J. Grant of the Mormon Church Openly Boasts of It.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SALT LAKE, Nov. 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Apostle Heber J. Grant of the Mormon Church, in a public address at the University of Utah, made the open admission that he was living in polygamy, and that he would gladly take more wives, but was prevented by the government. The apostle, who is known as the smoothest one in the church, made the statement just after he was applauded for an utterance, and when carried away for a moment by the demonstration. His statement has caused a sensation here.

The occasion was the presentation by the apostle to the university of $1000 to be used in establishing a scholarship fund, formerly started by the Alumni Association, and was in memory of one of his deceased wives, Lucy Stringer Grant. He had declared to the student body that he had previously given a check, part for himself and part for each of his wives. This was loudly applauded, and when the applause had subsided he made the startling declaration: "Yes, I have two wives, and the only reason I haven't got another one is because the government won't let me."

This is the first open declaration made in years by an officer of the Mormon hierarchy that he is living in polygamy, and it has caused a tremendous sensation.

CHINESE RAGE AT RUSSIA.

Hot-Heads Want War, But They Do Not Prevail.

Minister Lessar Demands the Life of Maj. Wong.

Professes Surprise That China Should Consider Russia's Action High handed.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

PEKING, Nov. 5.—[By Asiatic Cable.] Yuan Shi Kai, Viceroy of Chi Li province, who, as cabled to the Associated Press yesterday, was dispatched to Mukden by the Dowager Empress with instructions to investigate affairs there and if possible to arrange a settlement with the Russians, did not go any farther than Tien-tsin, which he reached yesterday evening. It is now considered doubtful whether he will go to Mukden at all.

The Chinese are more enraged at the Russian proceedings at Mukden than they have been by any events since the capture of Peking. Some of the hot-headed members of the council have advised the Dowager Empress to declare war on Russia and send troops to release the Tartar general, whose detention at Mukden, growing out of the decapitation of the Chinese bandit, who had enlisted in the Russian service, but fell into the hands of the Chinese after the Russians had evacuated Mukden, wounds Chinese susceptibilities since it is considered to be not only an insult to high officials but as insulting to the Chinese government itself.

Better informed officials, however, realize the helplessness of China and the madness of going to war with Russia. Their counsels have hitherto prevailed, though there is much baseless war talk in the native press and among the younger Chinese officials.

DEMANDS WONG'S HEAD.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

PEKING, Nov. 5.—Paul Lessar, the Russian Minister to China, has repeated the demands of Russia for the execution of Maj. Wong, who recently decapitated a noted brigand in Russian employ, and the dismissal of Yuen, the Taotai of Mukden, who is Wong's superior officer. The Chinese officials here are unable to inform the Associated Press whether Russia proposes to withdraw her troops from Mukden and release the Tartar general of that city, now held in custody in his Yaman, if these demands are granted.

Minister Lessar has informed the officials of the Chinese Foreign Office that he is surprised that they should consider Russia's action in this matter high-handed, as in view of the circumstances he considers it was lenient. The Russians think that the execution without trial of the brigand who was acting as chief of an irregular force of Russian police, was part of China's policy to terrorize the Chinese so as to prevent them from entering the military employ of Russia in Manchuria.

The brigand whose execution has caused the trouble referred to was accused of many crimes against the Chinese. Recently the Russians yielded to China's demand for his surrender, whereupon he was promptly decapitated. When this became known Russia demanded the execution of the officer who ordered the killing of the bandit, giving as an alternative the seizure of Mukden, within five days. The Chinese offered to banish the officer and to remove the Taotai Yuen from office. Negotiations were in progress when Mukden was reoccupied by the Russians.

RUSSIA'S LATEST DEMAND.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

LONDON, Nov. 6.—The Peking correspondent of The Times says that Russia now demands the appointment of a Russian resident at Mukden as adviser to the Tartar general. M. Lessar, the Russian Minister to China in response to China's remonstrance against the re-occupation of Mukden, said the re-occupation was due to China's persistent refusal to accede to the Russian demands. China shows a greater inclination to favor the demands of Russia, and appears disposed to pay large price to "save her face," and avoid disaster brought about by the loss of Manchuria. Japan has reassured China that she will accept no compromise with Russia involving the recognition of any important Russian sovereignty in Manchuria, but at the same time she has warned China that if the Russian demands are accepted Japan will be compelled to reconsider her friendly attitude to China.

SAN RAFAEL RANCH CHANGES HANDS.

GREENE CATTLE COMPANY BUYS THE FINE PROPERTY.

Purchase Price for the Land is Nine Hundred Thousand Dollars and the Cattle Sold for Over Three Hundred Thousand Additional.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

TUCSON (Ariz.) Nov. 5.—W. C. Greene, president of the Cananea Copper Company, has closed a deal with the owners of the San Rafael ranch, whereby the ranch and cattle pass into possession of the Greene Cattle Company.

The purchase price for the land alone is $900,000. There are nearly 300,000 acres of land involved in the transfer. The price paid for range cattle is $16 per head, for blooded stock $100 per head.

The price paid for the cattle will run up to over $300,000. The San Rafael company possessed the finest herd of blooded Herefords in Arizona. The ranch was owned by Colin Cameron, Brewster Cameron and St. Louis parties.

The Cuban Senate yesterday took up the national lottery bill and passed the first article.

EVERYTHING
Depends on Food.

How often the kind of food eaten determines a question of future health and happiness or even life or death.

"Our little girl when but five weeks old had to undergo a very severe operation which left her unable to take her nourishment in the natural way, that is by nursing, and of course she had to be fed. She was naturally frail and the food did not help her. At the age of eleven weeks she was subject to a second operation and from that time continued to grow thinner and weaker until she was but a mere shadow," so writes a lady of Ohio.

"We tried many kinds of infant foods and then the doctor directed us to try Grape-Nuts. We did so and at the end of the first week noticed an improvement and after that she began to improve rapidly. As we continued to give her Grape-Nuts she kept gaining until she is now more than two years old and strong and healthy. Her main food has always been Grape-Nuts and to Grape-Nuts she owes her life. Naturally we are firm friends of the food and never lose an opportunity to speak a good word for it." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

INDIANS TURNED OVER.

Governor of South Dakota Delivers Them to Wyoming and They Will be tried for Murder.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

CHEYENNE (Wyo.) Nov. 5.—The request of Gov. Chatterton on the Governor of South Dakota for the return of nine Indians who were captured near Edgemont, S. D., was complied with and the prisoners were turned over to Sheriff Jack McDermott and posse at Crawford. They will be charged with murdering Sheriff Miller and Deputy Falkenburg.

This step followed a series of dispatches in which the Federal Indian authorities and the State authorities clashed in regard to the question of right to deal with the punishment of the Redskins.

FEAR OF VIOLENCE.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

CHEYENNE (Wyo.) Nov. 5.—United States Marshal Hadsell received orders from Washington today to proceed at once to Douglas and take the necessary steps to prevent the Sioux prisoners from meeting with summary vengeance at the hands of a possible mob. Gov. Chatterton denies the report that any danger exists, but will protect the prisoners at all hazards even to the extent of calling out the militia of the State. It is feared that it will be difficult to get an unprejudiced jury to try the Indians.

Thomas Walsh, a lad of 14, employed in a New York rope factory, met with a peculiarly horrible accident, which undoubtedly will cost him his life. His body was perforated by a thousand steel needles in the machinery.

"TIPPING" FOR CARS.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

TOPEKA, Nov. 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Charles Page, a Monument grain dealer, complains to the State Railroad Commission that the only way he can get empty cars for grain shipment is by "tipping" the trainmen. He says the practice has grown to large proportions, and that only those who "tip" can get cars.

PRIZE-WINNER CARNATION.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

JOLIET (Ill.) Nov. 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The Financee, the dainty pink carnation that is the pride of Higinbotham Gardens, was declared the winner of the gold-medal in the carnation contest at the flower show here today. After the announcement the Chicago Carnation Company, Higinbotham's concern, offered $50,000 for any carnation plant that will exceed in beauty and other respects the Financee.

EAT FUDGES, AND QUIT.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

RACINE (Wis.) Nov. 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The Racine College football team has been disbanded because the members ate fudges and other sweets against the orders of the coach. It is claimed the sweets unfitted the boys for study and athletics.

PREDICTS MORE QUAKES.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Prof. Ira Hicks, the weather prophet, predicts more earthquakes. He said today: "All indications point to a recurrence in St. Louis of yesterday's shocks within the next forty-eight or sixty hours. The disturbances may be more severe than yesterday. After the moon passes away from opposition, the danger will not be so great."

FIAT MONEY A SUCCESS.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WEBSTER (Ia.) Nov. 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The fiat money scheme originated by local merchants and business men is proving successful. A local issue of aluminum quarters, half dollars and other coins, good at all places of business in town, has proved popular with the farmers, and once or twice the coins have been at a premium.

GOT THE WRONG GIRL.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

HARRISBURG (Ill.) Nov. 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] E. E. Baker of Raleigh appeared at the County Clerk's office with a marriage license he secured last Saturday, and asked to have the name of the bride-to-be changed, as in his excitement he gave the name of the wrong girl. The mistake was not discovered until the evening of the wedding, but the minister changed the name on the certificate so it was not necessary to postpone the ceremony.

SHAKE-UP IN INDIANA.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] A severe earthquake shock was felt at Brazil and other places in Clay county at 4:20 o'clock this morning. Windows rattled, and many houses rocked on their foundations. Many people rushed from their homes, thinking an explosion had occurred in one of the coal mines.

NEW TRACK-LAYING DEVICE A SUCCESS.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SALT LAKE CITY, Nov. 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Saturday of this week, there will be placed in operation below Callentes, on the line of the San Pedro, Salt Lake and Los Angeles roadbed, the great track-laying device that is the marvel of railroad construction. Material of all kinds is now at the scene of activity, and delays in the future will be few and far between. This monster automatic machine will lay three miles of track a day. The thirty-three-foot rails which the San Pedro is using and which have never been used in the West before, will increase the capacity of the machine and decrease the number of joints to the mile by one-tenth. The rails are seventy-five-pounders.

The machine is a train of flat cars upon which a narrow-gauge track is laid. On this track runs a small car for the ties, and when loaded this is run out onto the "pioneer car," as the fore car is called, and dumped. The rails fall directly across the track, and the car goes back for a new load. Between the rails on the cars is a set of rollers upon which the rails are placed. When the ties are in position for their reception, the rails are run out to the end of the pioneer car and dropped to the ground. They are secured by a few spikes, and the train is pushed ahead and the operation repeated.

A small force of men is required out on the track, and a smaller force at the loading station, as one set of cars is used in the morning and hauled back empty, to be replaced by the loaded train. The machine is a saver of time, labor and expense. Thirty-foot rails have been in universal use in the West until the present time, but the San Pedro has branched out and will lay thirty-three-foot rails. McCartney, the engineer in charge at this end, says he would use sixty-foot rails if he had the cars long enough. So far thirty-four feet is the greatest length used in flat cars.

HARRIMAN'S OPPOSITION.

Makes Itself Felt in the Huntington-Hellman Electric Field.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 5.—The actual consolidation of the electric roads H. E. Huntington has built and is to build in California with the Southern Pacific may never take place, but dating from today E. H. Harriman and Kuhn, Loeb & Co. of the Southern Pacific have become large owners in the Pacific Electric Railway of H. E. Huntington and I. W. Hellman in Southern California. They are also to be close partners of Huntington in the electric systems he aims to build out from Stockton and Fresno and elsewhere in the State.

The deal signifies that Harriman has prevented any combine between Huntington and Hellman and the Santa Fé in the south. On an agreed basis, the lines of the Southern Pacific, wherever they come into competition with the Huntington electric lines, are to work in harmony. In the San Joaquin Valley, a network of electric lines is to be built, and the Harriman and Huntington arrangement will prevent these lines from being a disastrous source of competition to the Southern Pacific.

KANSAS CITY SOUTHERN.

FOREIGN BANKERS INTERESTED.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 5.—Considerable importance is attached to the visit here of Messrs. Adam Reulinch and W. Bielendstein, prominent bankers of Amsterdam and London, who are largely interested as stockholders in the Kansas City Southern Railway. They are understood to have been looking into conditions in connection with an arrangement between the Kansas City Southern and the Red River Valley road, whereby the Kansas City Southern may find an outlet to New Orleans. Its present gulf port is Port Arthur. The Red River Valley will shortly have a through line from Shreveport to New Orleans, and has been planning for a steamer line to Europe.

SANTA FE SHIPMENTS.

REPORTS FROM LOS ANGELES.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 5.—President E. P. Ripley of the Santa Fé is now inspecting the California branch of the road on his way to inspect the work of filling in China Basin in this city, on which the company is spending over $2,000,000.

Reports submitted to Ripley at the Los Angeles head office concerning the orange, lemon and celery shipments from Southern California during the season just opening show that there will be sent East 1500 carloads of celery, 3000 carloads of lemons, and about 24,000 carloads of oranges.

SPIKES PULLED OUT.

SANTA FE WRECKERS' WORK.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

TOPEKA (Kan.) Nov. 5.—General Manager Mudge of the Santa Fé has returned from Colorado, where he went to investigate the wreck of the Santa Fé passenger train near Fowler. He said:

"It was as clear a case of train wrecking as I have ever seen. The spikes had been pulled for two whole rails' lengths. When the train struck this place, most of the cars remained upright, and for this reason not many of the passengers were hurt.

"We have offered a reward of $5000 for the arrest and conviction of the wreckers. This is a large sum, and will stimulate the western officers in their search for the men. We confidently expect to catch them before long, as we have several important clews already."

Guayaquil and Quito Railway.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 5.—A. Seegmiller, in charge of the work on the Guayaquil and Quito Railway in Ecuador, has arrived here on the steamer San Juan. He says that work on the road has been abandoned, and it is unlikely that the line will be extended to Quito for several years, if ever.

PANAMA.

Republic of Panama is now flying over the public buildings.

The consular advices allege that the American naval forces and the railway company officials have given some assistance to the revolutionary movement at Colon.

The feeling is growing in French official quarters that the revolution at Panama is likely to result beneficially for the canal. It is pointed out that while Colombia obstructed the treaty, the shares of the French Canal Company steadily depreciated, but they went up yesterday on the prospect of the revolution terminating the obstruction.

COMMANDER HUBBARD REPORTS.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5.—The Navy Department has received a cablegram from Commander John M. Hubbard of the Nashville, dated Colon, yesterday, saying that he had landed marines, such action being necessary to protect the lives and property of American residents.

Later in the day the Navy Department received the following from Commander Hubbard: "Have withdrawn forces landed afternoon. No bloodshed."

Telegrams received at the Navy Department announce the departure of the Atlanta from Kingston for Colon, and of the Boston from San Juan del Sur for Panama. It is not believed that any additional ship can get to Colon or Panama before tomorrow.

TORRES ALSO SAILS.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

COLON, Nov. 5.—Col. Torres, commander of the Colombian troops here, has concluded that the situation is hopeless, and has sailed with his troops for Cartagena on the Royal Mail steamer Orinoco in company with Gen. Tovar.

CONFIRMED FROM BERLIN.

GERMANY HOLDS ALOOF.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

BERLIN, Nov. 5.—[By Atlantic Cable.] Germany, the Associated Press is advised, will observe complete indifference to the political side of the Panama revolution. Both the revolutionists and the government forces, it is asserted, will respect the personal and property rights of German subjects living at Panama. It is considered likely that the commander of the German West Indian squadron will send a vessel to Colon, as that is now the most interesting place within his cruising field. It is also conceivable here that the German naval commander might land marines, in combination with the United States and Great Britain, if such action seemed desirable.

Emphasis, however, is placed on Germany's general aloofness. The United States is recognized as the power having dominant interest on the isthmus. Germany has no inclination or object for the least interference, and certainly would not do anything without knowing in advance that it would be agreeable to the United States.

SOMEWHAT SUSPICIOUS.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

BERLIN, Nov. 5.—Responsible opinion in Germany regarding Panama is plainly expressed in the following in the Frankfurter Zeitung as in any newspaper:

"What role the Washington government played in the incidents in Colombia nobody can know. Nothing can be proved in such cases. It has been formally denied from Washington that the government of the United States suported the movement for the separation of the Isthmus. However, that may be, it is not striking, nor does it give occasion for special excitement that a great mighty State will not permit itself to be thwarted in its civilizing work through the stubbornness of a land three-fourths barbarous."

The theory as to the cause of the revolution, which is currently accepted here, is that the United States brought it about with the object of building the interoceanic canal.

Dr. Luehrson, the German minister to Colombia, died yesterday while on leave of absence in the Southern Tyrol.

It is officially stated here that the only desire of Germany is to see peace preserved and to have the United States build the interoceanic canal, which would benefit German commerce. Germany looks to the United States to protect the Germans on the Isthmus.

ENGLAND.

IRISH PARTY SPLITS OPEN.

William O'Brien Resigns Seat in Parliament.

He Will Also Cease Publication of His Newspaper.

Sexton, Davitt and Dillon Are Leaders of a Revolt Against John Redmond.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

LONDON, Nov. 5.—[By Atlantic Cable.] William O'Brien (Irish Nationalist.) has decided to resign his seat in Parliament and as a member of the governing body of the United Irish League.

In a letter to Father O'Flynn, president of the Cork branch of the United Irish League, announcing his decision, O'Brien complains that efforts are made in many quarters to "Thwart the policy recommended by the National Directory for the purpose of extracting the largest possible benefit for the Irish tenantry under the new Land Act."

He says in this connection that he, himself, has been pursued by many interests "with a ferocity and a hatred beyond that incurred by any Irishman of this generation." When he finds that the policy which the Irish party, the National Directory, the national convention and the representative boards of the county have approved, is covered with opprobrium and derision by a newspaper which is the only source of information for half of Ireland, and when he finds that this counter policy is shared by public men, including his own colleagues, of the Irish party, the limit of endurance has been reached, and after deliberation he has determined to resign without delay from Parliament and from the governing body of the United Irish League, and to leave the state to whatever alternative policy the assailants are prepared to lay before the country.

O'Brien adds that as his continued editorship of the Irish People would inevitably lead to a continuance of public controversy which had better be ended, he is determined to cease the publication of that paper after this week's issue.

O'Brien's resignation appears to have been forced by Thomas Sexton, who controls the Freeman's Journal, and by Michael Davitt, whose letter to that paper October 4, indignantly denounced John Redmond for the terms under which the Irish Parliamentary leader sold his Wexford estate under the new Land Act. "Mr. Redmond's action," wrote Mr. Davitt, "turns the whole Land Act into a farce."

Other members of the Nationalist party, including John Dillon, have been in almost open revolt against the Land Act and Redmond, whom they regard as too moderate. Owing to the powerful coöperation of O'Brien, Redmond has been able to retain the leadership of the party, but with O'Brien's resignation there is every probability of a far-reaching split in the Nationalist ranks.

O'Brien has long been in poor health and it required an effort to enable him to make a public appearance or to attend Parliament.

SLAYER OF SAGOUNI.

CRIME TRACED TO YANGIE.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

LONDON, Nov. 5.—[By Atlantic Cable.] The police have located the lodging place up to October 24 of George Yangie, the murderer of the two Armenian delegates to the revolutionary convention yesterday, and who committed suicide immediately afterward, and they are satisfied that he was identical with the murderer of Sagatel Sagouni.

All the members of the Hentchakist Society are in a state of the greatest alarm. They are satisfied their enemies, the Alfarists, will appoint a successor to carry on the work of extermination of the Hentchakist leaders.

POWERS GIVE WAY FOR UNITED STATES.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

LONDON, Nov. 5.—[By Atlantic Cable.] The morning papers here display a greater interest in the outcome of the revolution on the Isthmus of Panama than in the Democratic victory in Greater New York. The latter is looked upon with regret. Concerning the Panama situation, the view is expressed on all sides that the United States is not unwilling to witness the success of the revolution, which would so greatly facilitate the successful carrying out of the canal scheme, and while no paper expresses objection to such a solution, some are inclined to think it would be best in the interest of civilization. In this case, however, it is recognized that, if not actually absorbed, Panama would become practically an American sphere of influence.

The Post says: "Panama doubtless counts on the friendliness of the United States, which can hardly fail to manifest itself, since both governments are at issue with Colombia. An alliance arising in such interesting circumstances may easily become permanent."

A writer in the Chronicle thinks if this crisis is her fate, other nations could persuade Colombia to again treat with the United States in regard to the canal. The Times this morning says that Colombia seems to have brought the revolution on her head by wanton procrastination in regard to the canal treaty.

The British officials' attitude toward the events at Panama is that it is entirely the United States' affair. This, with the consequent apathy, appears to be shared in all diplomatic quarters in London. Except in the unlikely possibility of some outside interference, no action is contemplated by the British, or so far as the Associated Press is able to ascertain at the various embassies here, by any other government. Upon request of the British diplomatic, or consular representative in the disturbed region, a war vessel would be sent to protect the rights of subjects of Great Britain, but such a request would not be encouraged, as Downing street is of the opinion that the force the United States is sending to the isthmus is more than sufficient to maintain the safety of the foreign residents.

The question of the recognition of Panama's independence entirely depends upon the action of the United States. If Washington communicates to the powers that it intends to recognize the independence of Panama, it is not likely that there will be the slightest objection on the part of Great Britain, while, according to the views of the diplomats here, the other European powers probably will quickly follow suit. There has long been a strong feeling in British official circles that it would be an excellent arrangement if the United States would undertake the preservation of good order and the stability of all the Central American States. This feeling is well known to the American diplomats in England.

At the German embassy here, a representative of the Associated Press was informed that there was not the faintest likelihood that Germany would take any steps in the matter. If the United States is satisfied to recognize Panama's independence, doubtless Germany will cordially agree to it.

On all sides the United States' paramount interests and right to deal with the situation single-handed are frankly recognized by the diplomats, though the Globe, in its usual anti-American tone, declares that on account of the proximity of the West Indies, the British government should take a hand in the matter. The other afternoon newspapers, however, comment on the correctness of the United States' attitude and the reasonableness of anticipating a solution of the interoceanic canal problem from the independence of Panama.

SENOR PASADO'S DICTUM.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

PARIS, Nov. 5.—Señor Pasado, the Colombian Consul here, told the correspondent of the Associated Press today that the conditions at Panama gave France no right to intervene. He added: "If the United States will keep her hands off, Colombia will have no difficulty in suppressing the insurrection and maintaining her sovereignty over the isthmus. I can understand why various interests are anxious for the independence of Panama, but the government has regular troops at Colon and they will vindicate her authority if the United States does not place any obstacles in the way."

ELOPES FROM HOME FOR LOVE OF CHINAMAN.

MISS BOBB CLARKE HOYT IS NOW MRS. JOHN WING LEE.

Bride is Niece of Well-known Rancher and Groom a Stanford Graduate, Who for a Time Was Stenographer to Mr. Hoyt.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CHICAGO, Nov. 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] While her uncle was searching every nook and corner of San Francisco for her, Miss Bobb Clarke Hoyt of Bozeman, Mont., outwitted her relative by coming East instead of going West when she put her plans for an elopement into effect. She is now the wife of John Wing Lee, a naturalized Chinese, who was formerly an employé of her uncle, Benjamin Hoyt, owner of the "Bar H" ranch. They were married by Justice Cochran today. They are now on their way to Niagara Falls for a honeymoon trip. The young woman is also related to the family of Senator Clarke of Montana.

The father of the groom was at one time cook in the Hoyt household, and it was while the son was on a visit to his father from Leland Stanford University, which he was attending, that he met Miss Hoyt. When Lee was graduated he visited Bozeman, and was made private secretary to the ranch owner. Soon an attachment sprung up between the Chinaman and Miss Hoyt, and when the ranch owner learned of it there was a scene, and Lee came to Chicago. Lee remained in the East until about a month ago, when he returned to Bozeman. A meeting with Miss Hoyt resulted in an understanding being reached, and the couple finally came East.

BOODLE CASE.

State Senator Farris Takes Stand in His Own Defense and Denies Statements Made by Lee.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

JEFFERSON CITY (Mo.) Nov. 5.—Former Lieut.-Gov. Lee resumed the stand today in the trial of State Senator Frank Farris, charged with boodling, and told of receiving a $1000 check from Havemeyer, the sugar magnate, in 1902.

"Did you ask Kelly (the baking powder lobbyist) to see Havemeyer and ask him to contribute to your campaign fund?" was asked of Lee.

"I think I did."

"Wasn't the $1000 from the sugar trust a contribution to your campaign fund?"

"It was not."

Mr. Lee, in answer to a question, said:

"The session of Congress prior to July, 1902, was legislating regarding the duty on raw sugar. I was running a grocer's paper. I was endeavoring to get advertising for my paper. I wrote letters to Congressmen and others getting their opinions on the reduction of 2 cents a pound on the duty on raw sugar. I put their letters in pamphlet form and distributed them. The $1000 check from Havemeyer was in payment for this work."

After excusing Lee and hearing one or two witnesses the State closed its side of the case and Senator Farris took the stand in his own behalf. He positively denied Mr. Lee's statement of yesterday that he had given Farris $7000 for himself and the other members of the Criminal Jurisprudence Committee to influence their votes on the anti-alum bill.

"Did you ever say to Lee that the members of the committee demanded $1000 apiece?" was asked of Senator Farris.

"I did not," very positively. "I made no such demand."

"Did you ever tell Lee that the boys wanted something tangible?"

"I did not."

"Did Lee pay you any money whatever for your vote or influence in the Legislature?"

"He did not."

Senator Farris denied that he ever met D. J. Kelly, the lobbyist, or that Lee had shown him a telegram from Kelly regarding the alum bill.

WENTZE REALLY ABDUCTED.

BRISTOL (Va.) Nov. 5.—Congressman Slemp in Bristol tonight confirmed the rumor that Edward L. Wentze, the young Philadelphia millionaire who disappeared, is in the hands of abductors in the mountains of Southwest Virginia and that a ransom of $100,000 is demanded for his release.

"KID" RILEY'S LEG BROKEN.

"Kid" Riley, the lightweight pugilist who officiates as a messenger boy between heats in the ring, had his right leg broken above the knee just after midnight this morning. He was rounding the corner of Third and Hill streets with a tray of dishes balanced on his head, and was run down by a Traction car. The wheel was demolished and the boy thrown heavily. He was treated at the Receiving Hospital.

COTTON TRAFFIC SHOWS FALLING-OFF.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The Sun says that reference to the records of the commerce of various nations of the world shows a considerable increase in the volume of the world's cotton traffic during the last five years. It may be said that all leading nations of the world, and many of less important countries, have shared in this general increase. The United States is the great cotton-producing country of the world. Our fields are the source of 60 per cent. or more of the market supply. We retain about one-third of the crop for home manufacture. Our production and exports have both fallen off during the last five years.

The decrease in the percentage of export may be accounted for by an increased home demand and by the fact that we have increased our export of manufactured cotton from $17,000,000 in 1898, to $32,000,000 in 1902.

From the existing market conditions it is a fair inference that the foreign buyers of raw cotton buy what they can elsewhere, and buy from the United States what they cannot buy elsewhere. At present the conditions of production are such that England, Germany, France and other competing nations are compelled to purchase the major portion of their supply from us. That this is only a temporary condition becomes more and more evident. England, France and Germany are all turning toward their African possessions as the source of their future supply. The possibility of cotton production in equatorial Africa and in sub-tropical South Africa, and its production upon an extensive scale have been fairly demonstrated.

It will undoubtedly be several years before the cotton supply of East and West Africa, of Egypt, of India and Central Asia will seriously affect our cotton industry. But the disposition of our present surplus of six or seven million bales a year will at no distant day present itself as a serious problem, unless we solve it before it becomes troublesome.

The alternative of a vast curtailment of our cotton crop is an increased market for manufactured cottons. Whatever may be done in Africa or elsewhere by any other country, the United States will always have the advantage of having a cotton mill alongside the cotton field. We now export $32,000,000 worth of manufactured cottons. England, importing a large part of her raw material from this country, exports $350,000,000 worth. From present indications, the salvation of our cotton fields will depend upon an increase in the number of American spindles and an extension of the American export of manufactured cotton goods.

CAPTURE GERMAN FORT.

Revolt of Bondelzwar Tribesmen Results in Massacre—Heavy Fighting Going on With Unknown Results.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

LONDON, Nov. 6.—[By Atlantic Cable.] According to the Cape Town correspondent of the Daily Mail the Bondelzwar tribesmen who are engaged in a native rebellion in Demaraland, succeeded in capturing Warmbad, a German fort. They burned the fort and the village, massacred all the Germans and took the English families prisoners. A relieving force from the north engaged a large body of the natives and heavy fighting ensued, the result of which is not known.

LABOR.

STREET-CAR STRIKE THREATENS IN CHICAGO.

MEN ARE SAID TO HAVE VOTED FOR SUCH ACTION.

Immediate Walkout is Not Expected, as the Prevailing Sentiment Favors Renewed Efforts to Reach a Peaceful Settlement of the Difficulty.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

CHICAGO, Nov. 5.—Employés of the Chicago City Railway Company voted today to decide whether or not they will strike.

Opinion is divided as to the result of the vote, but the officers of the union are confident that the men have decided in favor of a strike. It is not probable, however, that there will be an immediate walkout, as the sentiment among the men favors renewed efforts to reach a settlement before entering upon a fight with the company.

COAL MINERS' STRIKE.

FUTILE EFFORTS TO AVERT IT.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

DENVER (Colo.) Nov. 5.—Gov. Peabody and Commissioner of Labor Montgomery have practically given up hope of being able to avoid a general strike of coal miners in district No. 15, which includes Colorado, New Mexico, Utah and Wyoming. Montgomery, speaking of the situation, said:

"I don't know what we are going to do. If the miners persist in calling a strike unless a conference is arranged by November 9, then I am afraid there will be a strike. We have tried in every way to bring about a conference and have failed."

It is understood that the Colorado Fuel and Iron Company and the Victor Fuel Company, which employ the greater portion of the men who will be affected by a strike, have refused to treat with any persons except their own employés direct.

Notices have been posted at several of the mines, ordering the men to quit work on November 9. They are signed by John Mitchell, national president.

RIOT FOLLOWS MEETING.

LABOR TROUBLES IN FRANCE.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

LYONS (France) Nov. 5.—[By Atlantic Cable.] A meeting held today in the Bourse de Travail to protest against the present system of employment agencies and the alleged brutality of the police in Paris, was followed by a riot. After the meeting the demonstrators paraded the city, until they came up with a force of mounted guards. Some person fired a revolver, and the rioting commenced.

Paving stones and lumps of coal stolen from a nearby factory were hurled at the guards and police. This was followed by more shooting. Many of the police were injured and one sargeant had his skull fractured. Finally the police, with drawn sabres, charged the riotors, wounding several of them, and dispersing the mob. Several arrests were made.

Marine Band Boycott.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5.—The President was asked today to forbid the United States Marine Band to accept engagements to play for pay. The request was made by President Miller of the National Federation of Musicians. The President indicated his willingness to consider the question, if presented to him in writing.

Offer a Compromise.

CHICAGO, Nov. 5.—Representatives of the packing interests at the Union Stock Yards have offered the striking sausage makers and canners an increase in wages that probably will be accepted by the employés, preventing a general strike in all the centers of the industry.

Leather Workers Out.

CHICAGO, Nov. 5.—Eleven hundred leather workers employed by the American Hide and Leather Company, in its four tanneries here, went on strike today to enforce their demands for an adjustment of working conditions.

Niagara Trouble Over.

NIAGARA (Ont.) Nov. 5.—The 1500 striking laborers on the power plants have returned to work, accepting a dollar and a half a day, and the strike is over.

KEROSENE GOES UP.

Price Advances Another Half-cent and the "Squeeze" Adds Thirty Million Dollars Annual Profits to Standard.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CHICAGO, Nov. 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The price of kerosene oil was advanced one-half cent a gallon today. This makes an increase of 2 cents a gallon in the price in less than a month. The annual output of refined product of the Standard Oil trust is 1,500,000,000 gallons. Today's "squeeze," therefore, adds $30,000,000 annual profits to the trust. John D. Rockefeller gets 65 per cent. of the total profits, and the 2 cents' advance will add $19,500,000 to his bank roll by the end of the year.

The consumer will pay 16 cents a gallon for kerosene at retail, with the prospect of having this increased when Rockefeller gives the word. Rockefeller says that the natural supply of Pennsylvania oil is being exhausted.

OBITUARY.

Mary E. Schenley.

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 5.—News was received today of the death of Mrs. Mary E. Schenley in London. Mrs. Schenley inherited much property from her grandfather, Gen. O'Hara the noted soldier and pioneer of Pittsburgh and from her father, Col. Crogan of Kentucky. She was the largest owner of real estate in Allegheny county and her holdings here are valued at between $40,000,000 and $50,000,000.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 5.—Edward Livingstone Heath, a capitalist aged 55 years, and formerly connected with leading jewelry houses of New York, Boston and Philadelphia, died today.

Notice.

The Fisher Music Company, wholesale piano dealers with a warehouse at No. 507 Aliso Street, have opened a handsome retail department at No. 449 South Spring Street in order to gratify the demand of those who want the very best pianos the market affords, at lower prices than commonly prevail. All the choicest samples of the highest manufacturing skill will be displayed in this retail wareroom, direct from the makers, thereby giving to the purchasing public an advantage that cannot be overestimated.

These samples will always comprise the various grades of pianos carried by reputable dealers but although the prices will be lower than can be obtained elsewhere, their standard of excellence and reliability will ever be the first consideration of the company.

The most liberal terms of payment will be extended to those who desire to buy on monthly payments.

BUSINESS.

For the week ended yesterday the local bank clearings amounted to $6,490,295.87, an average of more than a million dollars a day, compared with $4,585,680.76 for the corresponding week of last year. This means an increase of 41.3 per cent. For the same week in 1901 the figures were $3,549,006.14. Yesterday's clearings were more than a million and a quarter dollars.

Phenomenal selling pressure in December wheat brought a decline of December to 77¾. May option remained firm and helped recovery at the close to 78¼@78⅝. Weakness in United States steel affected the whole New York stock market and Pennsylvania and Atchison were bid up, but the closing was weak, with many standard railroad stocks below Wednesday night's figures.

A REACTIONARY ISSUE.

Senator Arthur Pue Gorman of Maryland, Senator Tillman of South Carolina, and a few other southern statesmen, have had a great deal to say, of late, about the "race question," and have shown a distinct inclination to drag it again into politics. Tillman has declared, with considerable unnecessary dramatic emphasis, that the Fourteenth and Fifteenth Amendments to the Constitution have got to be repealed, and that they are morally certain to be repealed within the next few years. Gorman has practically made the same declaration, and both of these fire-eating southrons have sought to lay upon the President the blame for having "raised the race question" into prominence as a political issue.

It is on the unwritten schedule of Democratic probabilities that Mr. Gorman will be the next candidate of the Democratic party for President of the United States. It begins to look very much as if he had set out deliberately to make the race question the principal issue in his prospective campaign. His utterances have already evoked much bitterness against the negro in the South, where there was bitterness enough. His evident purpose is to stir up as much race animosity as possible in the North, with a view to inducing the national Democracy to take up the race question as an issue in the Presidential campaign, and make him the "logical candidate" of that party for President. The Gorman campaign, according to a recent dispatch from Washington, "has been planned with deliberation, and it is to be agitated constantly from now until November, 1904, when the American people at the polls will be called upon to say what they think about it."

The further announcement is made that "in Congress the race question is to be discussed at every opportunity by the Democrats;" that "Tillman and Gorman will lead the discussion and fan the flames in the Senate, and in the House the southern members, led by John Sharp Williams of Mississippi, who will be the Democratic leader in the coming Congress, will avail themselves of every opportunity to agitate the race question and interject it into national politics."

Time alone will tell to what extent these plans will be carried out. The Democratic party has made political blunders without number, and there is no guaranty that it will not make more blunders. But there is nothing more certain under heaven than that the Democratic party, if it should allow itself to be led off by Gorman, Tillman, et al, on this moribund issue, would make the greatest blunder it has ever made during its political existence (and this is stating the case in extreme.) If any considerable number of Democratic statesmen, on either side of Mason and Dixon's line, think they can win on this issue, let them try, by all means, and be convinced of their folly. Republicans, as such, would welcome the test of political strength on this issue. But as American citizens they would deplore the attempt to galvanize into the semblance of life an issue which was long ago fought out to a finish, so far as it can be decided by statutes and constitutions.

The President has not raised this issue, as he is falsely accused of having done by Gorman, Tillman, and others. He has declared against the closing of the door of opportunity to the black man, because of the color of his skin. He has declared that every man, whether white or black, ought to enjoy equal opportunities and the equal protection of the laws. This is right. It is in accord with the letter and the spirit of the Constitution. The American people will never vote to take a backward step in this matter. To do so would be to stultify themselves, and to bring upon themselves and their government the just censure and ridicule of the entire civilized world.

If this question of equal rights for the black man must be passed upon anew by the American people, by all means let the issue come up for decision as soon as possible. But those who are seeking to win political success upon this issue may as well be warned in the beginning that they are facing inevitable and crushing defeat.

WALL STREET ALL RIGHT.

In answer to the oft-propounded question, "What is the matter with Wall street?" the Financier, a financial journal of New York, makes answer that Wall street is all right. "It has been going along in the even tenor of its way," says this journal, "taking whatever cash may have been offered it, and it will be ready to repeat the operation as soon as it can again persuade people that wealth comes without effort, that fortunes grow over night, that anybody can get rich quick if he has sufficient nerve to risk everything against nothing, and that the source of opulence is found in speculation rather than honest endeavor." Continuing, the writer says:

"How can Wall street be otherwise than 'all right?' Isn't the rest of the country—the speculative portion of course is meant in this connection—rather badly crippled? The money that has poured into the street for a year or more hasn't gone back to its original owners, so far as can be learned, and there is small prospect that it will, for the present at least. We do not see that Wall street has grounds for complaint. The oft-repeated question, therefore, ought to be revised to read: 'What's the matter with those who deal in Wall street?' Here we strike a rich subject for investigation. The amateur speculators have played the game and lost. Deceived on all sides, they have, in the aggregate, parted with millions of hard-earned dollars. High finance, coupled with low morality, tells the story. Ideals as well as prices have been shattered. There was a grim bit of humor in the disclosure last week that one of the dummy incorporators of the United States shipbuilding trust had acted in a similar capacity for the late lamented Five Hundred and Twenty per cent. Miller syndicate, but the young man from whom the information was wrung, did not, to his everlasting credit, be it said, seem to find anything in the fact to laugh at. His perception was clearer than that of the high-priced legal gentlemen who were baiting him.

"To return to the subject of Wall street's present condition, the only moral that can be drawn is that it is unsafe to play another man's game. Let it be written down also, in contradiction to the usually accepted belief, that the characters of some conspicuous figures in recent financial history have not been lost. Rather they have only been exposed. One may conceal for the time being that which he does not possess, but he cannot lose anything which he never had. And that is about all that is the matter with Wall street now. Exposure is the word that answers the question in full."

These points are well stated. The recent "flurry" in Wall street has had one beneficial effect, at least. It has served to put a check upon reckless speculation, and, above all, to make small investors more cautious about risking their all on "another man's game." The collapse of the United States Shipbuilding Company has put a stop, for a time at least, to the unreasonable inflation of industrial enterprises and securities. This reaction had to come sooner or later. It is wholesome. It is essential. The country is fortunate in the fact that the reaction brought with it no consequences even approximating a financial crisis.

Kansas City comes along regularly with a report of an accident on that stretch of cable railway leading from her impossible and odoriferous union station on the flat to the heights overlooking other gullies and clay banks which go to make up that lively city on the banks of the Big Muddy. Considering the frequency of the fatalities on that bit of railway, it would seem to be about time for the authorities of Kansas City to insist upon some system of traction up hill in that town that is less risky than the superannuated scheme of sending human beings to destruction that is now in vogue there. Kansas City is a great town for business, but it has a street-car system which is some ten years behind the procession, and, in spots, as dangerous as trying to navigate the air in a Langley aërodrome.

The Kentucky rifleman who shoots from cover is out gunning again, but, surprising to note, he missed his man when aim was taken at the person of Capt. Ewen. It is a rare circumstance when the Kentucky marksman misses a shot, and we are unable to account for his lapse in this instance. Possibly he had been once too often caressing the little flask of good old Bourbon which flows in old Kentucky where the meadow grass is blue, and which transforms the staidest towns into places of reddest hue, or words to that effect.

Russia is confident that the dispute with Japan with respect to certain matters in the Far East can be adjusted without bloodshed or other ruction, and word comes over the continents and under the seas from St. Petersburg that "a rupture is now regarded as extremely remote." This studied effort to "let us have peace" is fully appreciated, for there is trouble enough over here in witnessing Tammany Hall's return to power in New York without having to read tidings of slayings from far away Manchuria and other points along shore in those parts.

A hint comes that there is a land scandal on which is likely to involve persons who do not live more than 1000 miles from California. The promised something is about to "drap," and those not rooted to the spot, as it were, would better stand from under. The man behind the Interior Department, who resides in the White House, is an unerring shot and a tireless hunter for big game.

Sam Parks has decided not to appeal his case, but will take his way to Sing Sing in front of the officer who stalks close behind, as gracefully as it is possible for so crooked a person as the Parks person to take in any direction. The mills of the gods grind slowly, but if they can macerate a critter like Sam Parks, it is plain to be seen that they do not grind in vain.

Secession is on in all its fury on the Isthmus of Panama, and the bombs and things are bursting in air in a right lively manner. Should one of the missiles blow a hole through which Uncle Sam can build a canal for deep-water vessels the conflict which is now raging will not have been entirely in vain.

Ohio succeeded in breaking her record by giving Mr. Herrick the greatest majority ever accorded any candidate for that office in the history of the State. That sort of thing aids in soothing that tired feeling which is abroad regarding the action of the New Yorkers in returning Tammany Hall to power.

McClellan, Mayor-elect of New York, is already mentioned as a candidate for the Presidency, but as Republicans have had an experience in defeating McClellans for that high office they are not shuddering to any great extent at the prospect of seeing his name on the opposition ticket.

It cost Tammany $2,000,000 to win out the recent election in New York, but as soon as she gets her collectors out she will be able to rake in that much stuff in about a week. Speaking of Tammany as "she," we are unable to say whether Tammany is that sort of a tiger or not.

The decent element in San Francisco divided on two Mayoralty candidates, and, as a result, the fiddler, Schmitz, will continue to lead the orchestra at the City Hall, at the same time demonstrating what a poor official an indifferent fiddler can make when he gets an opportunity.

Up to this time Canada has made no further moves toward secession from the ma country because of the Alaskan boundary award, but this outbreak at Panama may stir her into rebellion; who knows?

It is now in order to take a seat on the bleachers and watch that lusty team of ball players which hails from Los Angeles placing a few clinches in their position at the front end of the procession.

Through some miscue on the part of Tammany Hall, Mr. Low was permitted to carry one borough in New York. Probably the audience didn't hear the motion to make it unanimous.

It having been pretty effectually demonstrated that Ann is 18 years old, there would seem to be no good reason why the ordinary business of life shouldn't be resumed.

There is no great amount of comfort to be taken from the late elections by either party—they merely emphasize the fact once more that "white man mighty onsartin."

If given ample elbow room, Germany is willing to dig that canal across the Isthmus of Panama. But then nobody asked Germany to, sir, she said, sir, she said.

Let us hope and pray that the ruction in Panama will not last long enough to prevent plucking the early hat crop for next summer.

The Schmitz victory in San Francisco merely goes to show just how perfect a cinch the labor unions have on that bedeviled town.

The new Chamber of Commerce Building and other improvements are making the "decaying end of town" look like a two-year-old.

It would be sad indeed were one Charles M. Schwab to be called upon to take his way to the resort to which Sam Parks is headed.

The San Francisco election settled one thing—one Mr. Lane is removed from the political arena in California good and plenty.

There was a close vote in Rhode Island on Tuesday—in fact, the margin was almost as small as the State.

In one year from this time California will proceed to show them what a real election is like.

You probably noticed that Tom Johnson of Ohio was among the also rans.

LETTERS TO THE TIMES.

[The Times freely publishes the views of correspondents, without holding itself responsible for writers' opinions. Be brief, write plainly, state clearly. The space of 250 words, on the average, is sufficient for the expression of an idea.]

Control of Sex.

GENEVA (N. Y.) Oct. 29, 1903.—[To the Editor of The Times.] A reckless young man of this city has been sending a false report of a conversation with me on the parental control of sex. He is an occasional correspondent of the New York World, and his perverted sensational language is wholly unworthy of the dignified columns of the Los Angeles Times. After a conversation of a few minutes with me he wrote out the following nonsensical words, which he changed somewhat from his words in the World, and sent to you. Speaking of me he says:

"In the so-called discovery of the control of sex pre-natally he uses mechanical means combined with the chemical action of light and water, charged with the spectral rays of the sun."

This idea is got up out of whole cloth and is totally contrary to anything I said. I spoke of the great chemical and therapeutic power of light and the color forces, but to say that light and color have anything to do with determining sex, is a piece of folly. I have been invited to take a department in the beautiful William Smith College that is now going up in this city but to have it understood that I teach these and other things spoken of in this article is a slander upon what is to be a noble institution.

On Polite Street-Railway Men.

GLENDALE, Nov. 2.—[To the Editor of The Times:] Will you kindly allow me through your columns to speak a good word for the conductors and motormen of Los Angeles? I was born and brought up in New York City and lived there all my life till just previous to coming out here. I remember the old 'buses, horse cars, cable, elevated and electric cars of that town, and I blush to say I have never seen any men employed on those several conveyances that had any decent manners. When I came to this City of the Angels, a year and a half ago, I was astonished to find the railroad men of the city were real men and not loafers; were even gentlemen, and not only polite to ladies but to passengers of their own sex.

Now my wife writes from Denver as follows: "The people in the stores are more polite than in Los Angeles, but the street-car conductors are horrid and lazy. They don't come up to Los Angeles conductors. They don't help any lady on or off the car, no matter how many parcels or babies she has in her arms."

The managers of the railroads in Los Angeles are to be congratulated on the fine class of men they have and the men have my thanks and best wishes.

GEORGE B. EDWARDS.

A Little Sister in Black.

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 5.—[To the Editor of The Times:] Just now, and right here in our own immediate neighborhood, a bright, gentle-hearted girl is working out a little life tragedy of her own as best she can and with such aid as those who love her can render. She is a student in one of our prominent schools, to which she gained admission through her own efforts, backed by the good work of many well wishers in a Times scholarship contest. Since her entrance into the school—where, as far as is known, she was kindly received—the thing happened which makes the little life tragedy we speak of. And it was all because the dear Lord, who made us, everyone, saw fit to send this girl into the world with a black skin. Otherwise, she is no different from the rest of us, except that in the possession of certain high qualities of heart and mind there are some of us vastly her inferiors. But a portion of her fellow-students drew the color line against her; she was refused membership in a literary society. Now, if you do not think this heartless act constitutes a tragedy for our little sister in black, then you do not know the human heart, which is the same among all the races of the world.

It is believed that action will be taken tomorrow that will set matters right and it is to be hoped that such will prove the case. The colored lassie has white friends in the institution who are staunch in their loyalty to her, and it is felt that those who opposed her have, by this time, seen the cruel injustice and unworthy intolerance of their action. The school itself is part of a great religious denomination that stood in the forefront of the strife for abolition in the days when the negro was a shackled slave. So, after all, the dark-skinned lassie is in the house of her friends, and the incident may have arisen for the best, in the end. It may mark the passing of the last vestige of that deplorable and inhuman sentiment of race hatred as far, at least, as Los Angeles is concerned. Let us have done with it and the shame of it.

MUSIC AND MUSICIANS.

Y.M.C.A. Glee Club.

The Y.M.C.A. Glee Club gave its first concert for this season last evening in Blanchard Hall. A fair-sized audience was present, and the numbers offered met with a response of hearty applause. The programme was varied, including songs and glees of all sorts, from the ridiculous college chortle, "Ba, Ba, Black Sheep," to Barnby's tender "Sweet and Low." The club was assisted by Miss Gladys DeWitt, reader; Miss Marie Mason, violinist, and Miss Madge Patten, pianiste. Miss DeWitt gave as an encore a very clever child impersonation, which quite captivated her auditors. Mr. Dupuy's stirring tenor song, "The Wandering Knight," is a robust air, calling for fine discrimination in effects, which were duly observed by its singer last evening.

Still, under the direction of Joseph Dupuy, the club is much improved this year. The membership is substantially the same as at the close of last season, but the young men sing more "together," have more reserve power for strong passages, and hold the individual voices in well-modulated control for soft ensembles.

The complete programme was as follows:

Part I: "When Day Fades" (Parks;) violin solo, Spanish dance, No. 1 (Moszkowski,) Miss Marie Mason; Nursery Rhymes (Custance;) bass solo, "The Clang of the Hammer" (Bonheur,) Vernor A. Campbell; "Sweet and Low" (Barnby;) reading, "Joint Owners in Spain" (Alice Brown,) Miss Gladys DeWitt.

Part II: "Cooper's Song"—from opera "Boccaccio" (Von Suppe;) "Ba, Ba, Black Sheep (Wiske;) violin solo, "Romance" (Haley,) Miss Marie Mason; "Laughing Gas" (Geibel;) tenor solo, "The Wandering Knight" (Eldridge,) J. P. Dupuy; "Evening" (Abt.)

Tonight at Simpson Auditorium the Lorelei Quartette will present the opening concert of its eighth season. The organization this year is composed of Mrs. Wuerker, soprano; Mrs. LeSage, contralto; Miss Maud Bittleson, mezzo soprano, and Miss Letitia Williams, alto.

Those Courteous Virginians.

It is the story of a polite and polished Virginia gentleman and his landlady, also polite, polished, and a Virginian. It rained on a day not long ago, and when Mr. Culpepper looked for his umbrella in the terra cotta tile in the hall it was not there. Mr. Culpepper was far too courteous to say that somebody had taken it. He didn't even say it was gone. He merely looked at the terra cotta tile and cherished regrets. It was raining and he had no umbrella. The courteous landlady came upon him and divined his trouble.

"Haven't you any umbrella?" she asked. "Oh, that's too bad. You mustn't think of going out without one. Just wait a moment till I get you mine."

Mr. Culpepper protested, but when Virginian meets Virginian, courtesy is bound to prevail in the end. The landlady went upstairs and presently returned with an umbrella.

"There," she said, "take it; I shan't need it today, and you're perfectly welcome to it, perfectly welcome."

And the grateful Mr. Culpepper stepped out and unrolled an umbrella which was the very one he had lost. Courteous Virginia gentleman, courteous Virginia landlady, and you needn't ask me how the umbrella came to change owners, for I don't know. Neither does Mr. Culpepper.—[Washington Post.

"'TWEENTIMES."

BY E. A. BRININSTOOL.

DON'T "CAVE IN."

If your luck seems turned agin you,
An' th' clouds are dark as night,
An' there ain't no sand left in you
An' th' future's far from bright,
Don't give way to grief, my brother,
Set you teeth an' show your grit;
Buckle in, an' take another
An' a stiffer hold on it.
Pull you belt up tight an' try,
An' you'll git there by an' by.

If you'll figure out th' troubles
That seem pilin'' mountain-high,
You will find them airless bubbles,
That will bust up by an' by;
Don't parade your ills forever
'Fore th' world, it doesn't pay;
'Tisn't manly, an' you'll never
Win success in such a way.
Roll your sleeves up an' sail in,
If you want to fight to win!

Profit where you see your errors,
Learn a lesson from each one;
An' defeat will lose th' terrors
That seem mountain-high to run;
If you get a setback, never
Stop to register your kicks;
Keep your grit at par forever,
An' put in your swiftest licks!
Don't go lally-gaggin 'round
With your chin a-scrapin' ground!

It's th' chap who keeps a-peggin'
Who is bound to win th' prize;
Who, through thick an' thin, keeps leggin'
Up the slope where Fortune lies;
Never haltin', though he stumble,
Never backward in th' race,
Pausin' not to growl or grumble,
Though defeat stares in his face.
But in dogged style, still fights
Up the steep an' rugged heights.

Don't go whinin' 'round an' grievin'
Sayin' that you've had no chance;
Half th' world will be believin'
It's your own blamed ignorance;
Grab th' oars an' pull like thunder,
Don't hang back an' try to shirk;
Or you'll make an awful blunder;
Quit your chewin'—git to work!
Hustle, an' some future day
Things are bound to come your way!

IMPERIAL SCHOOL MUST WAIT.

A typographical error in the published advertisement calling the bond election at Imperial will defer the sale of the bonds at least thirty days. It will be necessary to hold a new election. In the advertisement it was stated that the polls would be opened from 1 o'clock a.m. to sundown of election day, whereas it should have read 1 o'clock p.m. The attention of the Supervisors has been called to the error and the board will decline to approve the bonds. The issue calls for $6000 for the erection of a four-room school building at Imperial, the plans for which have been drawn by Los Angeles architects.

HARDNESS OF SKULL PREVENTS SUICIDE.

WAGON MAKER'S FUTILE ATTEMPT TO END HIS LIFE.

Mark Mitchell, Despondent Because of Ill Health, Fires Three Bullets Into His Head, but Fails to Inflict a Dangerous Wound.

Mark F. Mitchell, member of the firm of Werden & Mitchell, carriage makers, at No. 904 East First street, and who rooms at No. 707 Turner street, made a desperate attempt to commit suicide yesterday at noon in the office at his shop. He fired three shots at his head with a new 3.-caliber revolver, but none of the bullets penetrated the skull. One caused a three-inch fracture of the skull, but the break is not considered dangerous, and the wounded man is almost certain to recover.

Despondency due to long-continued ill health prompted Mitchell to attempt his life. He has been sick for months, but was usually able to be about his work. Wednesday he spent the entire day in bed, but yesterday morning he appeared at his shop, but was unable to work. He sat in the office nearly two hours and then left, his associates thinking he had returned home. About noon Werden heard two shots in the office, and rushing in, he found Mitchell with a smoking revolver in his hand, seated with his back to the wall. As he approached him Mitchell raised the pistol to his head and fired a third shot. He attempted to fire again, but the weapon was wrested from his grasp. Werden thought his partner was fatally injured. At the Receiving Hospital Mitchell, who was fully conscious, expressed regret that he had not been successful in his efforts to end his life.

All the bullets glanced when they struck the skull, and two after having passed under the scalp, emerged several inches from the points at which they had entered. The third bullet was found flattened against the skull and was removed by the Police Surgeon. It had caused a frontal fracture of the skull. Mitchell insisted that he be taken to his room, and after his wounds had been dressed he was conveyed there in a carriage. He is 64 years of age. His home is in Hamilton, O., and his family is there. He has been in Los Angeles only a short time. He is a member of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows and members of that fraternity are looking after him.

LAKESIDE TRACT,
OVER
500 FINE LOTS,

Generally 50x150, at very low prices; ¼ cash, and balance on easy terms to suit.

Lakeside tract, which is exactly the same distance from First and Spring as Westlake Park, lies between Alvarado st. and Lake Shore ave., and is crossed by Sunset boulevard, and the electric line to Hollywood. Alvarado Park corners with Lakeside tract to the northwest, and Edendale tract lies 1240 feet farther to the north. The new electric line to Glendale passes just 150 feet east of our Lakeside tract, the entire length of the tract. It comes within 300 feet of our Alvarado Park tract, and runs directly through the Edendale tract.

Grading is progressing rapidly on this road, which is to be completed within 90 days. We have a few fairly good lots, convenient to this road, for $100. We have better lots for more money, and strictly first-class lots, with fine soil, best climate and beautiful views, for $350 to $600. This property will double in value after cars commence running on the new Glendale road. However, we bought the property cheap, and we are going to sell cheap and let the buyers share in the profits. To facilitate business, we have opened a real estate office on our Lakeside tract, corner of Sunset boulevard and Alvarado st.

S. D. Rannells is in charge and will have a conveyance ready on the ground to show property free of charge. Any one looking for a good investment, whether great or small, is invited to take a ride with us and see the property; you won't be bored if you don't buy. But just think of a lot, say at Vermont and Pico sts. for $100, or of the choicest lots in the neighborhood of Westlake Park for $350 to $750. The lots we offer at these prices now are likely to be worth as much in the next few years, as lots at Vermont and Pico and Westlake Park are today. Don't forget that this is CLOSE-IN property. See M. L. WICKS, room 123 Hellman Blk., or STEPHENS INVESTMENT CO., 125 Temple st., or take the Hollywood cars and come right out to the office on Alvarado st. and see the property, which will be shown to you by S. D. RANNELLS. 8

SALT LAKE SHOPS TRACT.
IS LOCATED WITHIN 6 MINUTES' RIDE OF THIRD AND SPPRING STS., ON THE BOYLE HEIGHTS TRACTION CAR, AND HAS A FRONTAGE ON FOURTH ST., CLARENCE, GLESS AND PECAN STS.

Street work all done; cement sidewalks and curbs. You seldom get an offer like this—$10 down, and $10 a month, no interest. It is just like buying a lot for cash on the installment plan. We have a contract on this tract until December 1. We have already sold 60 lots, and the owner would like very much to withdraw the balance, as he states they are now worth twice what we are asking. But his loss is your gain until December 1, but don't delay or they will all be gone. You know this tract is close to the new Salt Lake shops, and the money is now in the vaults to build the

NEW FOURTH-ST. BRIDGE.

When completed, will be the finest bridge that crosses the river, and will also almost double the value of these lots.

MINING—
And Assaying.

C. E. POOR'S CONCLUSION AFTER SPENDing a month in the famous Coeur d'Alene mining district of Idaho and Montana, and personally inspecting such great mines as the Hercules, Standard, Tiger, Poor Man, Benton, Moonlight, Dominion, Tarbox, Danamore, O. K., and many others, and seeing the amount of wealth piled in each and every mine which cannot be exhausted during a generation, and where there has never been a failure or pinchout, and where statistics show that there has been $10 received in dividends for every $1 put into development work, contends it is the best and most reliable mining district in the United States or Mexico. Some of these mining companies placed with me a few thousand shares of their treasury stock to sell at low figures to help complete their lower tunnels, which will enable them to be shipping ore by the early part of the coming year. I have opened an office, and have samples of ore which I took out of these mines myself, and firmly believe every dollar put into these properties will increase 1000 per cent. and bring handsome dividends, when these lower tunnels are completed. Call at the office, or write me to call on you at your home. Rockefeller and others lately invested $30,000,000 in the Coeur d'Alenes because they found the mines are everlasting and have no limit. The deeper they go, the wider the veins. A pinchout has never been known. The Hercules vein is now 83 feet wide, with $10,000,000 in sight; took out last month $225,000 with 20 men's work. ACTIVE WORK BY GARDNER.

Training at Larkspur for Contest With Fitz.

He Will Not Have to Undergo a Very Severe Course.

Seattle Outplays the Senators. Portland Wins Ten-inning Game—Horse Races.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] At Metzner's quarters at Larkspur, George Gardner has commenced active work for his "go" with Fitzsimmons, which is scheduled for November 25, when the championship of the light heavyweight class will be at stake. Comprising his camp are Martin Canole, who will face Jimmy Britt on the 20th, and Harry Foley and Dave Barry. Billy Pierce, Gardner's manager, is due to arrive from the East next Tuesday.

Gardner has taken good care of himself since his bout with Root, several months ago, and will not have to undergo a severe course of conditioning. This morning he took an eight-mile run and return, accompanied by Barry. Then he sparred four fast rounds with Foley and Barry. Gardner weighs 172 pounds, which is eleven pounds heavier than ever before. He is very confident of winning.

WILL RULE LYNCH OFF.
STEWARDS CLEARING HARLEM.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CHICAGO, Nov. 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Unless there are changes in sentiment the stewards of the Western Jockey Club will tomorrow defy "certain influences" and rule D. J. Lynch off the turf. Lynch is the man who was reinstated by the Harlem judges recently, because they had not power to oppose influences brought to bear in his behalf. It is the disposition of several, and perhaps all the Board of Stewards, to wipe out the blot which was put on the western turf when Lynch was forcibly placed in good standing.

Whether the stewards will be unanimous in throwing down the gauntlet in the move to purify the turf is not known. The actions of the Jockey Club are shrouded in such secrecy that the final stand which will be taken today can only be surmised. It is known that a number of stewards are ready to rule off Lynch and clear racing of the charge that it cannot punish its wrong-doers and take consequences, no matter what they may be. If such action means fight some of the stewards are ready for it.

WHIST PLAY.
TOURNEY ENDS TODAY.

Team championship play was the order yesterday at the second day's session of the semi-annual convention of the Southern California Whist Association, held in Odd Fellows' Hall. The sitting began at 9 o'clock in the morning, and with the exception of an intermission for luncheon and dinner, play was kept up continuously until 10:30 o'clock last night. The count to determine the winner of the team championship was not completed for an hour later, but when play was finished it was stated definitely that Los Angeles had won, with Pasadena and Santa Barbara dividing second and third honors. Refreshments were served late in the evening.

The final session of the association will be held today, the programme to consist of the playing of the pair matches.

BAPTISTS HOT FOR NAUGHT.

Smale and James Prominent in Futile Fight.

Pastor Resents Crying Down by Charging Gag Law.

Intense Excitement Over Allegations of Wrong Spirit. Amendments Go Over.

[SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE TIMES.]

SANTA BARBARA, Nov. 5.—After spending the entire day in a fruitless argument over a technical point, and setting aside every event scheduled on the regular programme, the delegates to the Baptist convention found themselves at the close of the day's session in precisely the same position as before, not one step having been taken toward furthering the work of the convention.

The delegation of the First Church of Los Angeles failed in an effort to reverse the decision the convention reached yesterday, providing for a committee of twenty-one to consider porposed amendments to the bylaws, although for a while it loked as though they would eventually win out in their contention.

The original amendment in controversy provided that officers of the convention be placed in nomination by the Nominating Committee, which committee is appointed by the president. C. J. Bickford offered another amendment calling for nominations by the general body. The action in referring the proposed changes postpones action for a year, and is taken to mean their death.

The entire morning session was taken up with the question regarding submitting the amendments of the First Church of Los Angeles. By noon no decision had been arrived at, and the business meeting adjourned until 4 o'clock.

During the morning there was evident a decided split among the members of the convention, the delegates from the First Church of Los Angeles standing practically alone for the proposed amendments. There was a decided tendency to shut off speakers in favor of the amendments, and cries of "Be brief!" from the chair and the house at large did not add dignity to the proceedings. So strong was this feeling that once when Rev. Joseph Smale had been curtailed in a speech he cried out: "Is there gag law in this convention?"

The discussion started with the nomination of the Committee of Twenty-one. After nearly all the nominations had been made an objection was made by the delegation of the First Church to the name of Dr. Melville Dozier as a member of the committee. The speaker stated that the First Church did not approve of referring the amendments to a committee, and that it was the desire of the delegation that no member of the First Church be connected with it. President Griffith of the convention ruled that the delegation had no right to decline the nomination of Dr. Dozier without the latter's consent, and as the nominee was not present his name would have to stand. The name of Rev. Robert J. Burdette, pastor of the Temple Church of Los Angeles, which had been placed in nomination, was withdrawn by the nominator. No sooner had the name been taken off the slate than Mr. Burdette was again nominated by another member, who absolutely refused to withdraw it. This brought up a lengthy discussion, after which the name of Dr. Dozier was taken off the slate at the request of his nominator.

At this point H. G. James addressed the convention, saying that the delegates were not proceeding with the right spirit. "I don't care whether we are Smale or anti-Smale," said he, "we should consider the matter fairly." At this point Mr. James was called to order by President Griffith, who refused to let him proceed unless he retracted his references to Mr. Smale as representing the feelings of the convention. This Mr. James refused to do, and he sat down amid intense excitement.

Mr. Smale then addressed the house, explaining the stand of his church in the present controversy. He said that the delegation of the First Church desired the amendments to come before the entire convention for consideration, and not to have them pigeon-holed with a committee. For this reason he stated that none of his delegation would vote for a committee or take any part in electing one.

A motion then prevailed that for the sake of peace in the convention any delegation be allowed to withdraw the names of members of the church it represented, from the list of candidates for the committee. This motion carried and several names, including that of Mr. Burdette, were withdrawn.

A motion to reconsider the report of the Board of Directors favoring the appointment of a committee to consider all changes and report at next year's convention, which was adopted yesterday afternoon, came before the house and was carried by a large majority, and the question was again opened for discussion.

S. I. Merrill, superintendent of the Sunday school of the First Church of Los Angeles, was the first speaker. He stated clearly and at some length the exact position of his church in the matter of the proposed amendments, and begged that they be considered by the convention as a whole and not referred to any committee. In the course of his address Mr. Merrill said:

"There seems to be a distrust or a suspicion regarding the attitude of the First Baptist Church of Los Angeles in this matter. There is no feeling on the part of the First Baptist Church against the members of this convention."

Several other speakers addressed the house both in favor of and against the proposition of referring the proposed amendments to a committee, and the matter was still under discussion after the regular time for the noon recess. For this reason the meeting adjourned until 4 o'clock in the afternoon with the understanding that the matter at hand would be settled before any other business came before the convention.

At 4 o'clock the convention reassembled to transact the unfinished business of the morning. It was suggested that the proposed amendment to the bylaws be referred to every church instead of to a committee of twenty-one, and to this proposition the delegation of the First Church agreed. Discussion of the new proposition lasted until 6 o'clock, and when the question was finally put it failed to carry, the original committee being thought more practical.

The business meeting then adjourned until tomorrow morning, when it is hoped the convention will complete its work. The evening session of the convention was devoted to a discussion on foreign missions.

The early hours of the afternoon were given over to the Baptist Women's Missionary Society, which held a most successful meeting, several interesting papers being presented.

EMPEROR AND CZAR.

They Lunch and Play Tennis While Their Foreign Ministers Talk of the Balkans and Far East.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

EGEBACH (Hesse) Nov. 5.—[By Atlantic Cable.] Emperor William arrived here at midday from Wiesbaden and was cordially received at the railroad station by the Czar. Their Majesties kissed each other on both cheeks and then drove to Wolfsgarten, where they lunched together. While at the castle of Darmstadt, Chancellor Von Buelow and Count Lansdorff, the Russian Minister of Foreign Affairs, had a prolonged talk.

No speeches were made during the luncheon given to the royal personages at Wolfsgarten. In the afternoon Emperor William and the Czar played tennis, and in the evening there was a gala dinner attended by the Emperor and the Czar and their suites, as well as by Count Von Buelow and Count Lamsdorff. Emperor William left at 9:50 o'clock, being accompanied to the station by the Czar, Prince Henry of Prussia and the Grand Duke of Hesse.

LOS ANGELES MODERN PARIS.

Grand Broadway Promenade Already Planned.

Scheme for Brilliant Lighting of the Thoroughfare.

Property Owners and Merchants Launched Project for a Fine Boulevard.

To make Los Angeles the modern Paris and Broadway a new Champs Elysées is the aim of a number of progressive citizens, who have ambitious plans for the city's future. The first step in mind is the brilliant illumination of Broadway from Temple to Tenth street. It is expected to make of this wide street a grand boulevard and promenade that will draw throngs and be a constant attraction to sightseers.

Subscription papers to carry out this improvement are being circulated among Broadway property owners. It is planned that the owners shall pay the first cost of installing the lighting system, and that the tenants will bear the expense of maintenance, at least temporarily.

Such men as Robert A. Rowan, John D. Bicknell, J. W. Robinson, A. Fusenot and many other Broadway business men are said to be enthusiastic in support of the plan.

F. W. Blanchard of the Blanchard & Venter Company has taken a very prominent part in securing this improvement for Broadway, and he is very sanguine that the plan will receive the support of the property owners and merchants. Estimates of the cost of such a system have already been secured, and the consent of the City Council will be asked as soon as the subscription papers make the rounds.

"The thing we need most in this city," said Mr. Blanchard last night, "is a well-lighted thoroughfare, where visitors can take a pleasant stroll in the evening. Los Angeles has many natural advantages, but we have neglected to make careful provision for the entertainment of the tourists and visitors that come here every year. Any one who has been abroad realizes the shortcomings of this city in that direction. In Paris and other European cities vast sums of money are spent to provide for the amusement of the stranger within the city's gates. Broadway, as the name indicates, is a wide thoroughfare with broad walks. It can be made into a popular promenade. The one thing necessary is to have it brilliantly illuminated every night in the year."

For the purpose of making Broadway a "valley of light" from one end to the other it is planned to place a lamp post of artistic design every 100 feet on each side of Broadway for the entire distance, and to alternate the posts, so that one will stand every fifty feet of the length of the street.

The lighting system installed in Chester Place is very similar in design to that projected for Broadway. Each lamp post will carry one arc and four incandescent lamps. The Council will be asked to grant the owners permission to fasten the posts to plates on the edge of the sidewalk in such manner that they can be removed readily at any time.

Rough estimates place the cost of the plates and the ornate iron posts at about $1.20 a front foot. This expense, as planned, will be borne by the property owners.

The cost of illumination will not be far from 20 cents a foot a month, and it is expected that in most cases this expense will be borne by the tenants.

After outlining the plan for the improvement of Broadway, the subscription paper says:

"By making this improvement Los Angeles can boast of one of the handsomest boulevards in the country, proving a joy as well as a great benefit to the business interests of the city."

The movement for the illumination of Broadway was quietly launched a few days ago, and it is expected to gain much headway in the next few days. By a week from Monday it is hoped by those who have the success of the undertaking most at heart to present a well-defined plan for the illumination of the street to the Council and Board of Public Works.

What a chance for Mayor Snyder's brand new public art commission!

BRAINLESS DIET.

Striking Butchers' Sympathizers to Abstain from Eating Non-union Meat. Boycott Order Goes Into Force.

Ask for union meat at almost any of the retail butchers' stalls in Los Angeles now, and you may be offered a calf's head from which the brains have been extracted. What use could a union man make of brains?

The Council of Labor boycotters have ordered the adherents of the labor unions to adopt the brainless diet. They must not buy any non-union meat, because some of Maier's, Hauser's and Cudahy's butchers are still on strike. The union employés in eastern packing-houses are to be asked not to help to ship any refrigerated meat to the Los Angeles butchers who refuse to kow-tow to the Butcher Workmen's Union.

The men who obeyed the foolish order to strike and whose places have been filled by independent workmen, are continuing to eat the bread of idleness and will do so as long as the strike fund on which they are drawing, lasts. Then they will have to beg for their old jobs or hunt new ones.

The packing-houses are all running almost full-handed and the casual observer would not know that a strike is on, but for the yelping of the Council of Labor yawpers.

What He Wanted.

"My brother bought an automobile here last week," said an angry man to the salesman who stepped forward to greet him, "and he says you told him if any thing broke you would supply a new part."

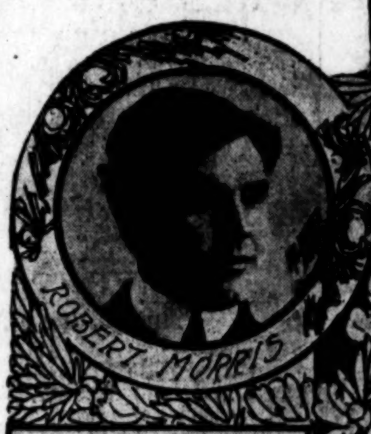
"Certainly," said the clerk. "What does he want?"

"He wants two deltoid muscles, a couple of kneepans, one elbow, and about half a yard of cuticle," said the man, "and he wants 'em right away."—[Youth's Companion.

Romance Off the Stage With Actress as Star.

WHEN the play comes true, it is very often replete with stranger situations, and more romantic than any human dramatist ever devised.

A little romance, with its touch of tragedy, has just come into the lives of three actor folk, all well known in Los Angeles. The romance had its beginning in this city last summer, and its conclusion, happy for two persons and sad for another, will come in Portland, Or., one day next week.



ROBERT MORRIS

MISS ELSIE ESMOND

ROBERT SIDDLE

At that time Miss Elsie Esmond, playing ingenue parts with the Neill-Morosco company in that city will be married to Robert Morris, at present manager for and for many seasons with James Neill. The third party is Robert Siddle, an actor, at present playing with Neill on Puget Sound, and to whom Miss Esmond was betrothed in Los Angeles.

Miss Esmond first met Morris in San Francisco, about eighteen months ago, when she joined the Neills, then on their way here. Since that time Morris has been away from the Neill company a great part of the time, has played in the organization with which she is connected, and has been elsewhere. Siddle made no secret of his infatuation for Miss Esmond while here.

Morris and Siddle are now playing in the same company, and often it happens that, while Morris is cast for a semi-heroic part, Siddle plays opposite him, and there are quarrel scenes, duels and other fierce manifestations of mimic hate. Speaking cold-bloodedly, from the elevated standpoint of high art, the recent episode in which Morris has despoiled Siddle of his heart's desire, may materially increase the intensity and effectiveness of their scenes.

It is understood that the couple, when wedded, will continue to play, as they are doing at present. Of the trio, Morris is best known to Los Angeles theater goers, having played at the Burbank for many seasons. His last impersonation was in September, when the Neills concluded their engagement with "Shenandoah." Morris played Sergt. Barket, Siddle enacting the villain.

LOVE FEAST ENDS MARRIAGE SET-TO.

"AND THEY lived happily ever after"—this is the orthodox way for all true love stories to end, and this is the bright prospect for Mr. and Mrs. Charles Weisbart, who have had just about as strenuous a honeymoon as could fall to the lot of the most romantic bride and groom.

In the first place, it will be remembered, the bride had to run away from home to meet her lover; then the stern parents notified every County Clerk in California not to issue them a marriage license; and finally the bride-to-be proved by the school records that she was of age, and the young folks were twice married—first by a justice of the peace, and afterwards by a rabbi.

Incidentally, Papa and Mamma Herzikopf had sought to arrest the course of true love by locking up the wedding trousseau of their daughter Ruth, and after the marriage, there was a lively time with attachment writs, visits of the constabulary, a personal set-to between Papa Herzikopf and Son-in-law Weisbart, and a side play of a punching bout between Mamma Herzikopf and Daughter Ruth.

But now the dove of peace has settled on the divided households; and Papa Herzikopf, who couldn't help admiring the pluck of his doughty son-in-law, who made things mighty interesting for the parental homestead, has done the handsome thing by extending to Mr. and Mrs. Weisbart his choicest blessing. Yesterday afternoon the youthful pair visited the home at No. 1409 West Ninth street, and were received with open arms. The past is blotted out, and all is peace. To celebrate the auspicous ending, a feast was spread at the Herzikopf home last night and the neighbors were bid to come in and join in the joy of the family over their reunited household. Mirth and good cheer prevailed until a late hour.

Mr. and Mrs. Weisbart have taken a flat at No. 1017 Temple street, and will be at home to their friends after next Monday.

SINKING RAILROAD PUZZLES ENGINEERS.

WHAT is the matter with the bottom of America's Dead Sea—the Great Salt Lake of Utah—that it will not support the forty-eight miles of grade and trestle that the Southern Pacific engineers have been trying to construct across an arm of it?

In Wednesday's Times appeared a dispatch from Salt Lake City telling about the difficulties encountered, necessitating the postponement again and again of the opening of this cut-off in the Central Pacific line, for the running of trains. Miles and miles of the new track have sunk as much as seven feet below grade, and that after a firm foundation was thought to have been secured by driving piles to a great depth. A number of work trains have even been swallowed by the salty sea, through the sudden giving away of the bottom.

It has been surmised that Bear River has filled in the bottom of the lake with a sediment too weak to sustain the great weight thrown upon it by the building of the railroad track on a pontoon of piles. A. J. Woodbury of No. 1173 West Jefferson street, who has devoted some study to the problem, says there is doubtless another cause. He ascribes it to the existence of a quicksand of unknown depth, under a thin layer of river mud. Said Mr. Woodbury yesterday:

"Ogden is ten miles from Great Salt Lake and 100 feet higher. In the early nineties an effort was made to develop natural gas, which had been successfully accomplished some miles to the southward. At a depth 400 feet lower than the present bottom of the lake the drill brought up pieces of wood. I have in my possession now some of the bits of wood which I secured at the time. Whether the wood grew there or was brought down by an avalanche or great flood, there is of course no way of telling, but there it is, with 400 feet of earth on top of it.

"There are no scars on the face of the country round about to indicate the great changes that have taken place, other than the old shore line of the lake, which can be traced for miles and miles along the sides of the Wasatch mountains, 1000 feet higher than the present surface of the lake, making it the largest inland body of water of which we have any knowledge. It is evident that when this vast lake was drained the waters went out with a rush, but whether by the Snake River route, or the Grand Cañon of the Colorad, geologists have never definitely determined. However, that has nothing to do with the subject under discussion, except to show the wonderful changes that have taken place in the great inter-mountain basin since the upheaval of the continent.

"What was the result of the boring for gas at Ogden? Shortly after the drill passed through the stratum of wood, it encountered quicksand which baffled all attempts at further progress, so the work was abandoned. This sand in all probability extends out under the lake.

"It is easy to conjecture, therefore, that the Southern Pacific engineers have encountered an unknown depth of quicksand with a thin veneering of Bear River mud."

Will the engineers be able to overcome this difficulty? That is a question that must be answered, and a problem to be solved, before the millions already spent in trying to shorten the line of the Central Pacific between Ogden and California will become effective. Apparently a harder engineering task was never undertaken. The outcome will be watched with interest by the whole engineering world, and the people of the Pacific Coast generally.

FALLEN GIRLS' FRIEND HAD WHISKY BREATH.

"CHRIST'S RESCUE HOME" LOOKS LIKE BALD SWINDLE.

Maj. Frank Robinson Seeks Contributions for Fictitious Charitable Institution—Indorsement is Denied Him and Police and Public Warned.

If you should be tackled for a dollar one of these days to help along a rescue home, rescue the dollar first by holding onto it, provided the institution is the "Christ's Rescue Home."

There is an elderly man calling himself Maj. Frank Robinson turned loose in town, who says that he and his wife have a rescue home for girls at No. 1275 Lake Shore "avenue." There is no Lake Shore avenue. It has been changed to boulevard. Where No. 1275 should be on the boulevard there is a barren stubble field.

Robinson called on Secretary Zeehandelaar of the Merchants' and Manufacturers' Association seeking indorsement for his scheme. He said that he had just come from Oakland, where he was engaged in the rescue business for thirteen years, and spread out a bunch of alleged testimonials from the ministers of the bay city for the secretary's inspection. They were all typewritten, even to the signatures.

This looked like such an easy way of getting ahead that Mr. Zeehandelaar went into the matter of the rescue home for girls with the "major," and became convinced that Robinson is an imposter. The "major" had a whisky breath, which is not compatible with most kinds of rescue work, says Mr. Zeehandelaar, so the secretary turned him down with a warning not to push his enterprise too zealously.

In an effort to find Robinson in his "rescue home" on Lake Shore boulevard, a Times reporter searched that thoroughfare from one end to the other yesterday afternoon, but found that the number given does not exist and that the project of Robinson's is unheard of among persons living near where the number would be if there were a building to bear it.

It is believed that Robinson is collecting money solely on the strength of the card which he displayed to Secretary Zeehandelaar. He represents his "home" to be a refuge for girls who are out on the cold world, unprotected and abandoned. Such a tale as this would stir up a sentiment of pity in most any breast.

Whether Robinson is turning this sentiment into cash for his "home" has not been learned, but the police have been warned to look out for him.

A Victory Worth Winning.

"And," said the sising young spellbinder as he reached his eloquent peroration, "I predict that our candidate will, when the votes are counted, be found to have ridden to success upon a tidal wave of glory that will have swept all before it like wild fire breaking in flying spray upon the strand where the sun of victory shall blaze forth its first effulgent rays upon the close of one of the most noble, most memorable campaigns that have ever been launched upon the sea of politics to gather strength and carry all before it like the cyclone sweeping across the broad prairies from which even the orb of day has disappeared in terror."—[Chicago Record-Herald.

BULLETS FLY AT BURGLARS.

Exciting Fusillade and One Thief Captured.

Store Proprietor Gives Hot Chase Barefooted.

Robbers Plunge Through Show Window, Two Escaping. Guilt Confessed.

Detected in the very act of robbing a store by the proprietor, two burglars, without waiting to open a door, plunged through a front show window last night and ran down the street, following a third thief who had been watching on the outside. The proprietor of the store, barefooted, gave chase and fired several shots at the thieves. The chase was taken up by citizens and officers and a fusillade of shots was fired at the fleeing criminals. Then the entire neighborhood was aroused, and fifteen minutes later one of the thieves, a well-dressed young man, was found secreted at the entrance of an unoccupied flat. He was positively identified and, realizing that there was no chance of a successful defense, subsequently confessed his guilt.

It was on Fifth street, opposite the State Normal School, that the burglary was committed, and it was at Fifth street and Grand avenue that the shooting began.

While the family of S. L. DeTar, proprietor of the Normal Book Store, No. 623 West Fifth street, were preparing to retire about 9:30 o'clock, Mrs. DeTar happened to look out of a window in the direction of the store and saw two well-dressed men forcing open a rear door, while a third man stood in front. Her husband, without clothing, armed himself and crept barefooted to his store. The burglars were inside as he could hear. DeTar decided to enter through the door which the burglars had forced and if possible get behind them and cover them with his revolver.

Noiselessly as possible he crept in, but in doing so he stumbled and made a noise, which the burglars heard. Just as DeTar entered the storeroom the thieves were near the front door, and he saw them rifling the cash register. Instead of trying to open the front door, they plunged through the front show window and started toward Grand avenue. DeTar quickly followed. The thieves had about fifty yards the start, and, seeing that he could not overtake them, he began shooting. He admitted afterward that his aim was probably wild, and he expressed satisfaction that he had not killed one of them. His shots only had the effect of making the burglars run faster.

Deputy Constable William Appel happened to be on Grand avenue, and heard the shots and the shouts of DeTar. As the men dashed past him he too took up the chase. The fleeing thieves ran through the yard of the residence at No. 518 West Fifth street, and just as they scaled the back fence Appel began firing at them. A bullet struck just where one of the men's hands had been, and splintered the wood under him, but the fellow disappeared.

Patrolmen and detectives hurried to the scene, and, with the assistance of scores of armed citizens, made a search of the neighborhood without success.

Returning to the store, the officers were getting a description of the men, when a citizen found a hat which one had dropped.

About the same time another citizen ran breathless into the place and informed the officers that one of the burglars had run up the rear stairway of a flat at No. 515 South Olive street, and had not been seen leaving. The officers hurried to the place, and while Patrolman Helman entered the front door, Detectives Kelly and Baker went to the rear. In a dark corner they found a hatless man pretending to be asleep. He was promptly covered with revolvers and handcuffed. At the store he was positively identified as one of the burglars. His hands were found cut by broken glass, slivers of glass adhered to his trousers, and in his pocket was $2.55 in pennies, nickels and dimes, which had been taken from the cash register. The hat which had been picked up fitted him perfectly, and contained his initials.

It was not until the prisoner was taken to the Police Station that he would talk, and there, after having been thoroughly searched, he confessed.

He said his name is Carl M. Clander, and that he has been in Los Angeles about two years. He is a photo-engraver by trade, but has not worked at that business for a long time. He is about twenty-five years of age, wears good clothes and had considerable money in addition to that stolen from the store.

Asked who his partners were, the prisoner asserted that he had had no partner. This is known to be false and the officers told Clander so.

"Well," he replied, "I was in that store. I did the job. That is sufficient for your case against me. I had no partner. Even if I had I would not tell you, but I didn't have any."

Public Work Not a Monopoly.

Of all the ill-advised, wrong-headed movements undertaken by union leaders during the year, the most surprising was the demand that none but union laborers should be employed in the mechanical departments of the government. With amazing "gall," the leaders of 2,000,000 citizens demanded that the President should shut the door of federal employment against the other 90,000,000.

It was to be expected that certain politicians would seize upon this occasion to embroil the labor unions in politics. If the Democratic national leaders could gain a million union-labor votes for their next nominee, it was—from the politicians' point of view—worth playing for. But those politicians who wish to use the unions will almost certainly get fooled. The unions have everything to lose and nothing to gain by going into national politics with a demand that they be allowed to monopolize public as well as private employment. In view of the organization and rapid growth of the employers' national union, formed this year for mutual protection against unjust strikes, the labor unions will probably have all they can do to hold the ground they have gained in monopolizing private employment.—[National Magazine.

PUBLIC SERVICE—OFFICIAL DOINGS.

SUMMARY OF THE DAY.

It was stated yesterday that unless some action is taken to sell the outfall sewer bonds or in some other way to commence work on the sewer, a recommendation will be made that the issue be canceled and new bonds voted.

Councilman Davenport was shocked yesterday to find that his bull ordinance had gone astray.

Interesting developments came out of a suit in which Creasinger's lawyer is suing him, yesterday.

G. J. Griffith was arraigned in the Superior Court yesterday. Monday was set for the taking of his pleas.

In the Police Court yesterday the case against against B. Ballerino for maintaining the "cribs" was again postponed.

Councilman Todd appeared as a Police Court lawyer yesterday.

AT THE CITY HALL.

GREAT NECESSITY FOR AN OUTFALL SEWER.

OFFICIALS TALK OF CANCELLING THE BOND ISSUE.

Another Election May be Called and Securities Voted Bearing Higher Interest—Syndicate Still Figuring on Building Sewer for Bonds.

There are approximately 40,000 persons in Los Angeles today who have no sewer facilities and the City Engineer estimates that the number would be 60,000 by the time a new outfall sewer could be completed if work began today.

Such a statement is surprising to those who have not followed the growth of the city closely. The southwestern section is practically without sewer facilities, and it is in that direction that the city's greatest growth has been made.

The old outfall sewer is rapidly going to pieces. It was necessary to expend $6100 in rebanding a portion of the big pipe line in order to prevent it from breaking this winter and flooding farming lands. From such breaks last year several damage suits resulted, and in some cases the city was glad to compromise.

Very soon a portion of the brick conduit near the ocean must be rebuilt. Already the bricks in this section are falling out of the mortar. After much backing and filling the South Side Irrigation Company has at last agreed to take 200 inches of the sewer water on a contract. The former contract with this company called for 400 inches, and when it expired the city officials were face to face with a serious situation. The outfall already had all it could carry during periods of maximum flow, and at times was taxed beyond its capacity. There was no way to take care of the 400 inches. Now that the company has agreed to take 200 inches of flow the City Engineer and B. T. Tilden, superintendent of the outfall sewer, is hopeful that the other 200 inches can be handled.

The $1,000,000 bonds voted last fall to construct a new sewer to the ocean and extensive additions to the internal sewer system still lie in the City Treasurer's office fully signed, but without takers. The 3¾-per-cent. rate of interest has not proved an attraction to eastern bond-buying houses. There have been feeble nibbles at the bond bait, even as late as two weeks ago, but no bond buyer has appeared with the temerity to take the bonds.

Financial conditions in the East now preclude the sale of the bonds, apparently, for a considerable period. A prominent banker said yesterday that the city would have difficulty in disposing of its securities today if they bore 4½ per cent. interest on account of the stringency in the money market.

The State Board of Examiners will have about $600,000 more money to invest within a few months, and the board may purchase the $400,000 storm-drain bonds to keep the $480,000 issue of school bonds company, but this outcome is not now regarded as likely by the city officials. At any rate, the sale of the storm-drain bonds will in no wise help the city out of its present predicament regarding an outfall sewer.

In this extremity city officials are somewhat at a loss what course to pursue. Unless some plan for sewering the city comes to a focus before the annual reports are presented in December, the City Engineer will recommend that the $1,000,000 bond issue be canceled and new bonds voted bearing a greater rate of interest.

If this plan is followed a special election will be called, and there is every prospect that an issue of library bonds of $350,000 or $400,000 will be submitted at the same time. The need of a new Public Library is recognized and it is belived that the bonds will carry if it is not necessary to call an election specially for the purpose.

The only thing that seems to intervene between the early cancellation of the bonds and the calling of another election to vote 4 per cent. securities is the project of M. F. McLaurin of the West Coast Fertilizer Works, who with associates is trying to perfect a plan for building the sewer and taking the bonds in payment. This plan is also being considered by San Diego, which has an issue of 4 per cent. bonds that cannot be sold at present.

City Attorney Mathews believes that a plan could be formulated whereby a sydicate of capitalists could build the sewer and take the bonds. Undoubtedly the city would be ready to pay a larger profit to men who would take such a risk than to the ordinary contractor, and enough might be made in this way to make up for the inferior rate of interest. For instance bids might be called for, and if the syndicate's proposal was the lowest, some bank might buy the bonds from the city with the understanding that the money would be left on deposit until expended in the construction work. Nearly all city money is kept in private bank vaults anyway. The money could then be paid over to the contractor in the customary manner upon certificates by the City Engineer that a specified amount of work had been satisfactorily completed.

It is thought that the bonds could be sold in installments to cover the cost of construction.

Mr. McLaurin and his associates hope to make a profit from the sludge left in the purification works and from water sold to irrigate forming lands. The city authorities are somewhat skeptical about the outcome of this plan, however, as there is only about 1000 acres of land that it would pay to irrigate that can be reached by gravity from the proposed septic tanks.

A. Prescottt Folwell, in a work on outfall sewers, published in 1900, states that there is manurial matter of value in the sludge, but that no process has yet been found by which it can be utilized at a profit.

Perhaps Mr. McLaurin has a patented process that will make a gold mine of this sludge. The City Fathers hope he has, and that he will be able to build the outfall and take the bonds. Otherwise there seems to be no alternative but a new election to vote bonds that will prove more attractive to buyers.

The sewage of Los Angeles now amounts to 10,000,000 gallons a day, and to build septic tanks and filter beds for the scientific treatment of sewage from the whole city would necessitate an outlay of about $300,000.

In London the importance of purifying the sewage is fully recognized, owing to the scientific discovery that the fish in adjacent waters and, indeed at some considerable distance from the city, were afflicted with the germs of typhoid fever. London now uses sludge ships that transport 300,000,000 gallons of sludge fifty miles to sea, where it is dumped. In a few places sludge is removed from the beds by farmers.

CASE OF "BULLS."

DAVENPORT IN DIRE STRAITS.

It was not a "bull" that made a "bull" in the bull ordinance. Neither was it Davenport. But nevertheless some one has blundered.

The member from the Sixth Ward believes himself fully competent to write a "bull" as forceful as any that ever issued from imperial Rome for, alas, his best laid plan has "gang aft agley."

To put it mildly, the joke is on Davenport.

For weeks he labored to secure the passage through the Council of an ordinance to prohibit the keeping of bulls—male cows—within the district where it is forbidden to keep more than two milch cows to the lot. Davenport expatiated at length on the shortcomings of the bovine gentlemen before the Committee on Legislation and carried his campaign of extermination into the Council.

"The bulls must go," declared Davenport.

And one glad day the Council passed the ordinance decreeing that all bulls should be exiled from the city.

But on the same day there was an amended cow-limit ordinance before the Council. This ordinance repealed the former cow-limit ordinance. This amended ordinance was passed and then the vote was taken on the bull ordinance. But the bull ordinance was prepared as an amendment to the original cow-limit ordinance, which had been repealed—did not exist.

Of course the ordinance had no effect or validity under such circumstances.

When the mistake was discovered the Mayor was asked to return the measure to the Council and this will doubtless be done.

But the last state of the Councilman from the Sixth Ward is worse than the first. He does not know whether the City Fathers will view their mistake in the most serious manner or whether they will consider the joke about good enough to entitle the bulls to a reprieve.

And, horrors, meanwhile the bold, bad gentleman cows go stalking about the vacant lots of the city in utter disregard of the majesty of the law and of Davenport. The member from the Sixth has met with divers adventures during his candidacy. He took a running jump at the garbage question which no one else dared to tackle and later he ran to earth a terrible nuisance in the shape of a pig sty that held six guinea pigs. His political life has run the full gamut of official experience, but not until yesterday, when he discovered the defect in the bull ordinance, was his cup of sorrow filled to overflowing.

But Davenport still has hopes of banishing the bulls from the cow district.

Will Make for Art.

Mayor Snyder sent letters yesterday to the Civic Art League, Municipal League, Merchants and Manufacturers' Association, Ruskin Art Club, Friday Morning Club, Los Angeles Realty Board, Chamber of Commerce, Ebell Club and other organizations asking them to submit three names for the eligible list from which he will name a Public Art Commission of five persons. This commission is expected to make suggestions that will assist in beautifying the city.

THE UNIVERSAL TARGET.

Speak kindly to the millionaire;
  Perhaps he does his best,
Don't try to drive him to despair
  With rude, unfeeling jest.
Don't laugh at portraits which display
  His face with comic leer,
And when he gives his wealth away
  Don't take it with a sneer.

Speak kindly to the millionaire,
  He has a right to live,
And feel the sun and breathe the air
  And keep his coin or give.
You may be rich yourself, you see,
  Before your life is through:
Speak kindly, and remember he
  Is human, just like you.

TROUSERS KICKED, DAMAGES AWARDED.

A. M. THEAL, who was emphatically kicked on the seat part of his trousers, was plaintiff against the kicker, Robert Bruce Urmston, for $10,000 damages yesterday in Judge Trask's court.

Theal and Urmston were partners in the Los Angeles Art Leather Company, whose troubles have already been liberally aired in the courts.

Theal was found in the office of his attorney, Will D. Gould, Esq., arranging about the collection of some of the firm's bills. Urmston was unwilling that the bills should be taken to a lawyer for collection.

Urmston went to see Gould and as he started to leave, saw Theal sitting in the outer office.

He confided in Theal that he thought him a contemptible cur.

"What do you consider yourself?" asked Theal.

"A gentleman," said Urmston, promptly.

Theal inquired sarcastically if he thought he could find anyone else to say so. Whereupon Urmston kicked him in the region of the glutaeus maximus muscles with exceeding energy.

Theal says he was injured in his good name and reputation, although it would seem, at first thought, that he was hurt elsewhere.

Judge Trask gave him $100 damages.

AT THE COURTHOUSE.

CREASINGER'S LAWYER GIVING HIM AWAY.

SPICY SUIT AGAINST "BARREL-OF-MONEY" MAN.

Attorney Shinn Explains the Famous "Vindication" of His Client by the Stockholders of the Red Cloud Mining Company.

S. P. Creasinger's famous "vindication" by the Red Cloud Mining Company was spicily explained in Judge Conrey's court yesterday by W. H. Shinn, who was formerly his lawyer.

Shinn and Creasinger have fallen out and Shinn is suing him for $2753.55 fees.

Shinn told about the vindication when Creasinger went the rounds of the newspapers triumphantly announcing that the Red Cloud company had seen the error of its ways in saying mean things about him and had reëlected him president.

Shinn swore on the witness stand yesterday that this had been accomplished only by the most frantic efforts on the part of himself and Mrs. Creasinger.

She was afraid that the stockholders would come on her for the debts on her stock. Shinn heard her trouble and told her that the only way out of the difficulty would be to elect a board of directors that she could control.

He said that he personally wrote as many as 250 letters, to all the stockholders he could locate, and Mrs. Creasinger wrote as many more.

By their efforts they managed to get proxies from 300 shareholders.

The election meeting lasted all day, he said, some of the stockholders being rabid against Creasinger. The Creasinger family finally put in seven out of nine of the board of directors. Shinn and Creasinger and Mrs. Creasinger were all on the board.

About the first thing that was done was to appoint a committee to "investigate" to see how much the Red Cloud Company owed Creasinger. Shinn claims that Creasinger's claims against the company were nearly all void by being outlawed and for legal mistakes.

However, by means of the board of directors, the Red Cloud Company took over the Corn Springs property from Creasinger and gave mortgages and notes aggregating about $58,000 in his favor.

It is out of this settlement that Shinn's claim for a fee grows.

The Creasingers deny the justice of his claim. They assert that on account of the manner of the settlement, Mr. Creasinger was accused of fraud; they also claim that Shinn turned against Creasinger and really forced him into bankruptcy when, as his attorney, it was his duty to protect his interests. He claims that Shinn has turned about to prosecute claims against him.

Most of the time was taken up yesterday with arguing the point as to whether Creasinger could be sued in the Superior Courts on such a claim when he is going through bankruptcy. Judge Conrey ruled that he cannot, and Mrs. Creasinger alone is being sued.

Shinn was only on the stand for a short time. Today promises interesting developments.

GRIFFITH ARRAIGNED.

COLONEL FELT HUMILIATED.

Col. G. J. Griffith seemed to feel the humiliation of being arraigned in the criminal court yesterday more deeply than of any other position into which he has been forced.

A number of other felony prisoners were bought up at the same time—rough, unkempt fellows. Col. Griffith sat himself apart from them, and cuddled up as closely as he could behind his attorneys, Works and Silent. He sat bolt upright on the edge of his chair, over the back of which he had thrown his overcoat.

When Judge Smith called out, "People against Griffith," there was a moment's pause. Dist.-Atty. Fredericks said: "Stand up, Mr. Griffith."

Griffith looked doubtfully at his lawyers, and as they nodded their assent, stood up.

"Griffith J. Griffith, is that your true name?" asked the District Attorney, reading from the information.

"Yes, sir," said Griffith.

"Do you waive the reading of the information?" asked the District Attorney.

"Yes, we waive the reading," said Mr. Silent.

The case was then continued until Monday, at which time the plea of the defendant will be entered.

LOVED THE MAN.

AND LOST THE MONEY.

J. M. Heber, a real estate agent, was defendant yesterday in Judge Conrey's court against a woman who says he deceived her.

Her name is Katie Scherer. She claims that fascinating Heber won her affections and then borrowed $350 from her.

It is claimed that he represented himself to her as a wealthy Denver man. He said a tornado blew down some of his buildings and that he needed the money.

The woman exhibited her bank book in court yesterday; it showed that $350 had been drawn from her account on the day she said. As Heber went on the witness stand and flatly denied the loan, it was only her word against his. Consequently, she lost the suit.

COURT NOTES.

GREVITIES MISCELLANEOUS.

FIREMAN JAILED. Charles Lewis, a young railroad fireman, was sent to the County Jail for ninety days by Judge Smith yesterday for stealing a bicycle. The boy, who comes from a good, respectable family, would have been sent to State's prison, but that the District-Attorney consented to allow him to plead guilty to petty larceny.

LAWYER DISAGREES. Clarence Eble can't agree with his attorney, Frank A. Cattern, Esq., as to whether or not he is guilty of burglary. He went to see the District-Attorney the other day and offered to plead guilty; his attorney immediately followed and objected to his pleading guilty. Eble was before Judge Smith yesterday in a mood for confession, but under the circumstances, the court ordered the case postponed.

DIVORCED. Mary Jane Bailey was divorced from James Bailey yesterday on the ground of cruelty. The case was tried in Judge York's court. Annie Sanders was divorced from M. M. Sanders for desertion.

Lillian R Reiche was divorced by Robert E. Reiche yesterday on the grounds of adultry.

THE INFERIOR COURTS.

LAWYER TODD WINS FIRST COURT CASE.

NOT A STRIKING VICTORY, BUT "BOB" GOT THERE.

Case Against Ballerino, Proprietor of Obnoxious "Crib" District. Again Postponed on Account of the Absence of Principal Witness.

"Bob" Todd, City Councilman from "de Ate," won his first victory as an attorney yesterday, when he appeared to defend H. J. Harris, who had been arrested for violating one of the ordinances which Todd had helped to make.

It wasn't a very serious matter with which Mr. Harris was charged—that of permitting his horse to stand hitched for more than twenty minutes on the street.

It was very easy for Attorney Todd. His client did not go on the stand, and the policeman testified that Harris had left his horse stand on Main street "for about twenty-five minutes," but he had committed the fatal blunder of guessing at it, instead of using his watch. Justice Chambers wouldn't stand for it, and ordered Harris discharged.

With mock gravity Todd was congratulated on all sides as he left the court, for the "brilliant victory" he had won.

Ruby Hath Flown.

The case of Bartolo Ballerino, charged with renting a tenement in the "crib" district to Ruby Miller for immoral purposes, was called in the Police Court yesterday. As on several prior occasions the case had to be postponed on account of the absence of the principal witness.

Ruby appears to have flown, and it is intimated that the officers have an inkling that Ballerino knows somewhat of her going. Prosecuting Attorney Beebe says that there seems to be no lack of evidence to convict, even in the absence of Ruby, and the trial was reset for November 17, when it will be disposed of whether she appears or not.

Police Court Briefs.

B. Acuna was convicted of cruelty to animals yesterday, for driving a poor old horse that ought to be in the boneyard. The chunk of justice he got was a surprise to even the humane officers. Justice Chambers handed him down a $20 fine.

There is a lull in the arrests for expectorating on the sidewalk and riding bicycles without bells, and the expressmen are being brought to book. A whole bunch of them were arraigned yesterday and fined $1 each.

IROQUOIS' POW-WOW.

Local Club Welcomes Alderman Tom Cary and M. J. Ryan, of Chicago. Barbecue Spread for Braves.

Local Iroquois braves smoked the pipe of peace last evening with the big chief of the Watita tribe, from the banks of the Chicago, and incidentally learned much of practical politics.

The occasion was a social pow-wow at the Iroquois Club rooms in honor of Alderman Tom Cary and M. J. Ryan of the Windy City, here on a visit of a few days.

Tom Cary is to Chicago what Boss Croker was to New York in his day of power, and is credited with being the one man responsible for the continuance of Carter H. Harrison in the Mayor's chair.

"Organization," said Mr. Cary in addressing the tribesmen present, "is the secret of our success in Chicago. We are at work when others are asleep. We don't wait for occasion to prompt us to action—we are at it all the time. And another thing that ties the voter to Democracy in our city is that we take care of our people. We don't give every man a job in the City Hall, but if a man is out of work we place him somewhere. I am safe in saying that in the packing-houses of Chicago I alone have at least 5000 men that have been given place. And you will find 'Cary's Indians' everywhere. The result is when election day comes we know where to find the faithful. One of the routine questions at the meeting of the Watita League is 'Is here a man here out of a job?' I usually give four hours each day hunting jobs for my 'Indians.'"

Aside from being Alderman of the Twenty-ninth Ward, Mr. Cary is Chief of the Watita League, chairman of the Democratic Central Committee of Cook county, and all-around business man. Mr. Cary came to Los Angeles to locate his family, it being his purpose to leave them here for the winter.

M. J. Ryan, who accompanied Alderman Cary on his coast trip, and who is one of his faithful lieutenants, also addressed the meeting last evening, commenting in a happy vein upon both the humorous and practical sides of Chicago politics. He emphasized the need of organization and paid a loyal tribute to Alderman Cary's active efforts in support of the Democratic organization.

A feast of the barbecue order enlivened the closing hour of the Iroquois reception, and Alderman Cary added much by reciting some of his experiences, not the least of which was how he "organized" the Lutheran preachers of Cook county.

FOR SACRED HEART.

Catholics Give Benefit for Lifting Church Debt and Have Crowd and Substantial Returns.

An event of importance in Catholic circles was the benefit given last evening at Y.M.I. Hall, corner of Downey avenue and Avenue 21, by the association for the completion and decoration of the Sacred Heart Church. Sacred Heart Church is located at the corner of Sichel and Baldwin streets, and the work yet to be done before completion of the edifice will cost in the neighborhood of $12,000.

All of the local Catholic societies are interested in the work on the Sacred Heart Church, and last night Y.M.I. Hall was packed with a crowd that not only filled all the available seats and the standing room, but spread itself out in adjacent rooms, on porches and down the stairway to the street. A substantial help toward the lifting of the debt was realized.

The programme rendered included a vocal solo by Mr. Mylat; recitation, Miss Thornton; vocal solo, Miss Osborn; reading, Albert Frothman; vocal solo, Mr. O'Donnel; reading, Jack Harrington, and a solo by St. Vibiana's contralto, Miss Lillie Scanlon. Especially applauded was Miss Scanlon's singing, and the readings of Messrs. Frothman and Harrington, two prize elocutionists of St. Vincent's College. After the programme was dancing, and light refreshments were served.

POST-SEASON BALL LATEST SCHEME.

LOS ANGELES is likely to have some post-season championship baseball of its own. Games between pennant winners in various leagues seem to be the sporting style this year, and a movement which was started yesterday with a view to bringing together the Los Angeles Baseball Club, champions of the Pacific Coast League, and the Los Angeles team, leaders in the defunct Pacific National organization, will likely be welcomed and boosted by the fans.

Greely W. Bentley, manager of the erstwhile local "Nats," admitted last night that he had been thinking over the possibilities of the project, and this morning he will start in bringing together the two teams. Whether this will be possible or not it is too early to say positively, but the effort will be made, and if successful the series thus arranged is expected to prove a splendid drawing card. The old argument regarding the batting ability of the two teams is reopened by the proposed championship series, and the rooters of both sides can be relied upon in force. A best 5 out of 9 games series is the kind contemplated.

Bentley stated last night that the entire team which represented this city in the late P. N. L. is available for play, with the exception of the Hildebrand brothers and Hollingsworth, whose place is more desired by the local public than his presence. The outfield, Gannon, Walters and Householder, is intact; all the men are in town. Messerly, Russ Hall, Hardy and Charlie Reilly, infielders, are obtainable on short notice. Stricklett and McKay, pitchers, would have to be reinforced by another man, and a catcher would need to be engaged; some such man as Frank Chance might be found available. Chance has not been approached, but probably will be if the scheme goes through. Bentley says the men are very anxious for the games, and are willing to cut the gate receipts any way the Looloos desire. So far as the Nats are concerned the match is made, and it will be put up to the Looloos today. There is every reason to believe Capt. Dillon and his mates will see the proposed series favorably, as it will be a much better money maker than a barnstorming tour in which the Morley men could play only picked-up teams. Manager Morley will be asked to lease Chutes Park in case the match is made.

The Nats in their brief career established an enviable reputation as batters, and a very unenviable one as baserunners. The Looloos are consistent, but not phenomenal with the stick, though they excel in fielding and are stars of the first magnitude in general team work and baserunning. A series between the two teams would be a battle between batting, and the finer art of baseball; strength against science, so it should prove of peculiar interest. The Pacific Coast pennant race has been a walkaway for the Looloos; they broke in front and were never headed, being collared only once, and that for a period of seven innings. Reilly's team had a similar experience in its league. Whether the Nats can hit against such men as Corbett, Hall and Newton and Wheeler is one of the things a post-season series would show the public.

OAKLAND CAPTURES A LIFELESS CONTEST.

GOOD PITCHING MAKES BATTING A LOST ART.

Raymond and Moskiman Show up Best in the Fielding—Game Noticeable on Account of Length and Scarcity of Bad Plays.

Oakland, 4; Los Angeles, 3.

Bernie McKay may be a relic of the defunct Pacific National League, and he may look like Martin Glendon, but neither one of these things prevents him from being one of the best pitchers now performing on the Coast. It is not often that you find such a good one in a tail-end club of a three-State league, but he showed yesterday that he is a star that should shine bright enough to suit almost any manager up and down the line.

He was so fine yesterday out at Chutes Park that he had all the fans scared from the start, and he finally beat the Champions with the help of the hard batting of the team behind him. Five singles and a useless double were all that the locals could get off him and had not some of these been mixed up with several blunders in the first inning, the Morley side of the score would have been a lot less than it was at the end. He soaked one player with the ball and passed another to the first road house, but to offset these he scattered through nine slow innings the half-dozen swats he was touched for, and, of course, this business couldn't win any games for the team that "swang" their heads off trying to show him up.

Aside from Bernie's pitching that of Hall was the next best feature. The foreigner beat him to the finish, for Hall was touched lively in the fourth and then hit at the right time in the sixth. These two outbreaks netted four runs, which were enough to win the game. Fifteen hundred people saw the performance, and it was a very slow one for some reason. Two hours were needed to settle it, and after waiting this long the fans had to go home with a beating for their patience.

After two were out in the first inning, Smith hit safely to center, and was safe at second, when Moskiman let Dillon's grounder go through him. Both scored on Cravath's hard bouncing single over shortstop. In the third Hoyt singled to center, stole second, went to third on Wheeler's infield out, and scored after the catch of Smith's fly to right.

The Tail Ends didn't do anything until the third, when a double by O'Hara and successive singles by Moskiman, Murdock and Schwartz brought in two runs. In the sixth, Moskiman was passed, sacrificed to second by Murdock, and scored on Schwartz's double to left. Schwartz arrived on Messerly's mean bounder past Dillon.

The fielding features were made by Moskiman and Raymond, although the score shows that each player did clean work.

BARBER IN THE BOX.

WHY SENATORS DIDN'T WIN.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

SACRAMENTO, Nov. 5.—Barber was in the box for the Seattle team and up to the ninth inning he proved too great a puzzle for the Senators to solve. In the ninth, however, it looked like a batting finish, as the Senators bunched four hits and had two runs made when Hildebrand tried to kill the ball and fizzled on account of the darkness. It was a great battle from start to finish.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 5.—Portland won out in the tenth inning today in a hotly-contested game, in which hits and tallies were very scarce. It was to a certain extent a pitcher's battle with Shields, with honors about even and the support of both sides was generally good.

WINTER BASEBALL.

GOOD LEAGUE IN PROSPECT.

The Southern California Winter Baseball League was formally organized last night at the Nadeau Hotel in this city with J. E. Wooley as president and Phil De Voin as secretary.

This league has been talked of for some months, and now that the Pacific Coast League is playing its final games the winter league is springing into life. There will be four teams, one each at Santa Barbara and San Diego and two in this city. Bill Devereaux, now third baseman for the Oakland team, will manage the San Diego team. H. E. Edmunson will have charge of the Santa Barbara aggregation, and Phil De Voin and J. E. Wooley will look after the interests of the local teams. Good baseball should result, for the teams will be composed of eastern and Coast professionals.

The season will open about December 13. The San Diegos will play the Wooleys in this city and the Santa Barbara team will play the De Voins in Santa Barbara.

POMONA HIGH BUSY.

TEAM SHOWS UP STRONG.

[SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE TIMES.]

POMONA, Nov. 5.—The Pomona High School football team, which won the interscholastic championship of Southern California last season, is striving assiduously to repeat this year, and from the amount of training and practicing being done now, will make the other teams do star work. The first game of the local team this season will occur at the new High School grounds Saturday afternoon, the San Bernardino High School being the opponents. The Pomona players have been training under their captain, Fred C. Palmer, with the occasional help of Coach Hempel of Pomona College, and will line up as follows: Clay, center; Himrod, left guard; Smith, right guard; Tuller, left tackle; Afflerbaugh, right tackle; Hume, left end; Palmer, right end, captain; Casey, right half; Lane, full-back; Thomas, left half; Ludden, quarter-back; substitutes, Elder, Seaver and Parker. The regular quarter-back, Will Beatty, left unexpectedly for the East yesterday. Beatty has bene one of the mainstays of the team, but Ludden, who takes his place, is also a reliable player. Good work is also expected of Afflerbaugh, Lane, Casey, Thomas Tuller and Palmer. The average weight of the Pomona eleven is 145 pounds. Four games each will be played by the four high school teams, representing the interscholastic league, during five Saturdays, each team having one Saturday open. The Los Angeles High School team will then meet the winner of the league games for the championship.

STANFORD FOOTBALL.

'VARSITY TEAM WORK.

[SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE TIMES.]

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Nov. 4.—The football situation has taken on a very definite form during the past week of practice. In the development of the team the coaches have done a great deal, but there still remain several problems which they must solve before the intercollegiate game on the 14th inst. The team has not yet been chosen. From this time on the work will be largely devoted to signal practice and a development of the fine points of the game. In two respects California has a clear advantage. At present she has a heavier line, and she has Overall to do her punting. To offset this advantage, Stanford will try to put in the field a lighter but faster team, with stronger backs and superior team work.

Rooters' tickets for the intercollegiate game were put on sale at the box office on the oval at 8:20 this morning, and long before daylight a line of men was waiting to buy. The remainder of the tickets will go on sale on the oval tomorrow morning.

This year for the first time the Southern Pacific Company will run an excursion train from Los Angeles to San Francisco, on account of the Stanford-California game.

E. C. Dudley of Yale, who acted as umpire at the intercollegiate game last year, will officiate again this year.

SANTA ANA FOOTBALL.

THROOP VS. HIGH SCHOOL.

The Throop team will journey to Santa Ana Saturday to play the High School of that burg in Santa Ana Athletic Park. Both teams are about evenly matched in weight and although Throop has the advantage in training and practice games, the locals have been doing snappy practice work every night this week in preparation for the game which they recognize will be one of the hardest of the season.

The line up for the contest will be:

Santa Ana.		Throop.
Robinson	center	Lee
Menges	right guard	Dunn
Cope	right tackle	Smith
McPherson	right end	Stafford
Howland	quarter	Conklins
Collins	left half	Elliott
R. Spurgeon	right half	Patton
W. Spurgeon	full-back	Frampton (c.)

MARGARET STERLING, in The Times Magazine the coming Sunday, will tell of some exceedingly interesting experiences she had with apes and other wild animals in India.

SOROSIS TRADE MARK

CENTRAL TENNIS SITE SELECTED.

THE Central tennis-courts project has grown and is now developed into a very lusty, crowing infant.

At a meeting of the committee appointed to consider the feasibility of various locations offered to the playing talent by lovers of the net game, it was decided to accept the proposition of Edwin Cawston of South Pasadena, who tendered the playes a pretty tract of land not far from his ostrich farm, conveniently and centrally located, and as near perfect for the purposes intended as anything well could be. Mr. Cawston practically donated the right to use this property for ten years, the rental being the nominal figure of $1 a year. The work will be started at once, permanent organization being first effected. The name of Central Lawn Tennis Club has been agreed upon, subject to change. Subscription lists are already circulated among the players, and it is confidently expected that the new club will start with no less than fifty charter members.

The membership will be of two kinds—ordinary and life. The former costs $20, and entails dues of $1.50 per month. Life memberships are exempt from dues and may be had for $100. Several have already been spoken for, and it is believed all the wealthier members of the club will go in on a life basis so as to be saved the bother of paying dues. As will be seen, the dues on ordinary memberships will in a few years amount to as much as a life membership.

As soon as permanent organization is effected, which will be next week, the work of building three up-to-date cement courts and a comfortable modern clubhouse will be started. In it will be individual lockers, showers, and the usual conveniences, together with such additional comforts as may be suggested from time to time. Eventually five cement courts will be put down, but at present the intention is to install only three.

John S. Cravens, Eugene Overton and A. C. Way, the committee chosen to select a site, has done its work very well, and the members have been made the recipients of many thanks already. An unusually long list of enthusiasts is already in line on the books, among them being A. C. Way, Simpson Sinsabaugh, John S. Cravens, R. A. Rowan, Frank Hart, J. R. Britton, Alfonso Bell, H. T. Fuller, John and Horace Donnell, Tom Bundy, Hal Gorham, Lew Freeman, Arthur Ainsworth, L. Rising, Art Braly, M. Bernheim, W. Bacon, H. A. Massey, J. Erwin Hoy and R. P. Rogers.

The location selected is certainly the fulfillment of every promise made by the committee. It is midway between Los Angeles, Pasadena and Alhambra, and will doubtless be well patronized in consequence.

TEMPERANCE LECTURES.

Series of Talks on Popular Topics to be Delivered Here by Eloquent New Yorker.

Under the auspices of the W.C.T.U. Prof. A. A. Hopkins of New York will begin a series of lectures in Los Angeles Sunday evening. He is announced as an author, poet and lecturer, and is said to be a pleasing orator. For the first week his appointments are as follows:

First Baptist Church—Sunday, Monday and Tuesday evenings at 7:30; subjects, "Barabbas," "Cost of a Boy," "Manhood and Gold."

Wednesday evening—Immanuel Presbyterian Church; subject, "Wealth, Wages and Waste."

Thursday evening—Haven Methodist Episcopal Church, Twenty-seventh street and Central avenue; Friday and Saturday evenings in Akey's Hall, Vernon avenue. All these lectures are free and the public is cordially invited to attend.

Prof. Hopkins will arrive today and will be received at the station by a delegation from the W.C.T.U., and escorted to the residence of Fred F. Wheeler, No. 212 South Reno street, where he will be entertained.

The federation of the W.C.T.U. will hold an all-day meeting on Wednesday in Irvine Chapel, on Avenue 33, East Los Angeles.

MARGARET STERLING, in The Times Magazine the coming Sunday, will tell of some exceedingly interesting experiences she had with apes and other wild animals in India.

Gas cookstove especially nice for Sunday-night supper.

There are more serious needs than a cookstove to cook an informal two or three things, when the principal thing is talk and no disposition to work.

Gas does it; and nobody almost knows it is done.

PLAYED PIANO WRONG WAY.

Scheming Shufflebarger Got Lot of Money.

Bathing-suit Disappearance Man Stuck the Lenders.

Peculations Believed to Reach Two Thousand Dollars. Warrant Out.

J. F. Shufflebarger, the insurance agent, who did the bathing-suit disappearance act at Long Beach last Friday evening, didn't have to ride the brakebeams to Arizona, where he is supposed to have gone.

It developed yesterday that Shufflebarger wasn't such a small fish in his peculations as was at first supposed; there are those left behind in Los Angeles who mourn a combined loss of probably $2000.

Sadder than this, it appears that the hard-working and saving wife who wanted her gay dog of a husband to "get along," is also mixed up in Shufflebarger's fraudulent dealings.

When it came out that the man of the bathing-suit episode had beaten one firm out of $2.50 and two banks out of a total of about $40, it was necessary to fall back onto the remarkably peculiar job he did in disappearing to get any stimulus from the news.

Now come two money-lending concerns, i. e., Hurd Bros. & Co. and Theodore J. Welk, the proprietors of which depose and say that Shufflebarger is a very bad rascal and defrauded them out of a total of $575.

In September the insurance agent "bought" a piano on which he paid $15. On this instrument he borrowed $400 from Hurd Bros.

While this loan was still warm he made overtures to Welk, who is a motorman for the Los Angeles Railway Company during working hours, but lends money between times, for a loan on the piano. Welk regarded the piano proposition kindly, but wanted to be sure that everything was all right. Shufflebarger said that the piano was his and all paid for, but Welk, wishing to secure himself, obliged the insurance agent to sign an affidavit in which he (Shufflebarger) swore that he owned the piano outright and that it was free from all incumbrances.

Mrs. Shufflebarger also affixed her signature to the affidavit, although knowing, as she must have, that she was making a false representation, inasmuch as she had signed the previous affidavit for Hurd.

Welk handed over $300, which was secured by a chattel mortgage.

The motorman-money lender is out the full amount of the loan, not a cent of interest or principal having been paid him.

But Shufflebarger took $125 of Welk's loan and paid it to Hurd Bros. & Co., thereby cutting the latter's bill to $275.

Although the above-mentioned are the only persons who have made their losses known, there is reason to believe, from the remarks of both Welk and Charles C. Hurd, the head of the firm, that other money lenders ran up against Shufflebarger's stock in trade—the piano belonging to a local firm—and were victimized for considerable amounts.

A warrant has been issued for the arrest of the originator of the bathing-suit idea, and circulars have been sent out by the local police bearing his picture and description.

It is admitted by the police that Shufflebarger will be a hard man to get from any description, as he shaved his mustache before he left. This loss makes him, according to his wife, a man with little resemblance to his former self.

Though the police will not make the statement positively, there is strong reason to believe that Shufflebarger was accompanied by a woman when he left.

PETTIGREW HERE.

Distinguished Party Will be Witnesses in Mining Suit Monday—Quarrel Over Machinery to be Aired.

Senator Pettigrew has arrived in Los Angeles to testify in a mining suit to be tried in Judge Allen's court Monday. He is registered at the Westminster.

The witness room during that trial will contain a distinguished company. Among the witnesses will be Richard D. Bright, formerly sergeant-at-arms of the United States Senate, Ex-Sen. Stephen A. Dorsey, Capt. Colonna, a well-known mining man in Washington, D. C., and at least one of the professors from the College of Mines, University of California.

The plaintiff in the suit is the Colorado Iron Works Company against the California King Gold Mining Company. It is a quarrel over mining machinery.

The iron works wants to recover a balance of about $40,000 alleged to be due for putting in machinery at Picacho, San Diego county. The defense is that the machinery did not come up to the promises. It was to have a capacity of 1000 tons of ore a day.

The defendant company not only claims that it owes nothing to plaintiff, but also makes a claim for damages for failure to fulfill the promises.

Senator Pettigrew figures in the case as vice-president and manager of the mining company. Dorsey is cast for the part of former vice-president of the company. Richard D. Bright is a witness by virtue of being a stockholder of the company.

The case will be tried before a jury, and will last several days.

WALDECK'S RECEPTION.

New Eden Musee Exhibited to Newspaper Men and Others Yesterday Afternoon—Neat Little Theater.

Common, ordinary folk yesterday afternoon hobnobbed with kings, princes, presidents, and other great men of the earth at Waldeck's "Eden Musee," near Fourth and Spring streets. The occasion was the first inspection of the new place by any except those connected with the enterprise. The visitors, who came upon Manager Waldeck's invitation, were theatrical people, friends of the stockholders, newspaper men and others.

There are at present installed in the Musee sixty-eight wax figures, arranged in various tableaux, and representing all manner of scenes. At the head of the hall stands a group of the martyred Presidents, in the center of which is an extremely lifelike image of William McKinley, standing in an easy posture, with one hand upon a table. At either side sit figures of Lincoln and Garfield.

Just to the left of these important personages is an equally distinguished collection of the world's rulers. It is not hard to pick out the various celebrities, and they are all there, from our President to the strangely-garbed Shah of Persia. On the right of the center tableaux is a family group, with the head of the family seated in a natural manner at the piano. There are several children playing about, and one, tired with the sports of babyhood, is sleeping, a la negligée, in a great armchair.

But there are other scenes—not so pleasant. One is a series called "The History of a Crime." At the first booth is a criminal, holding a dark lantern casting a shaded light over the ghastly, blood-stained face of his victim, who, attired only in night garments, lies murdered upon the floor. The next represents the criminal's capture, the next his trial, then a scene in the condemned cell, and finally the final moment before execution. This is not a nice portrayal for people with nerves.

The opening to the public will come one week from Saturday. The theater will not be ready until some time near the Christmas holidays, but when it is added to the list of local amusement houses, it will be one of the neatest little places on the Coast. It is the intention of the builders to make it seat nearly 1200 people, and the stage will be of ample size to accommodate the attractions given.

The popular-priced vaudeville intended to be placed here has been abandoned, and Waldeck will probably make a sort of "Weber and Fields" burlesque theater out of it.

"GOSPEL FOR AN AGE OF UNREST" COMING.

NEW CRUSADE OF B. FAY MILLS AT LONG BEACH.

Curiosity Among Church People as to Just Where He Stands—Congregational Union Holds a Banquet—The Nazarenes and Missions.

B. Fay Mills, at one time one of the most fascinating Christian evangelists in this country, and the writer of numerous tracts and books designed to inspire the Christ-life in men and women, has again started out as an evangelist, but with a new gospel.

Several years ago he renounced all he had said and written, and receded from the doctrine of the divinity of Christ. He connected himself with the Unitarian Church, and having lost the prestige of his first position, has never been able to regain it to any considerable extent. He was advertised to appear in Los Angeles two years ago, and though he failed to come, no notice of it was given until the moment for opening the meeting had arrived, and the house was not half full, indicating that he had lost his hold upon the people.

Mills is announced to appear in the Long Beach Congregational Church next Sunday, and his reception in the seaside village may determine whether or not he will try his luck in Los Angeles. He calls his new crusade: "The Gospel for an Age of Unrest."

He seemingly would still criticism by saying of his gospel for an age of unrest; It is always constructive and never critical; it is always kindly in spirit and utterance, taking as its motto: 'I am come not to destroy, but to fulfill.'"

The announcement of his coming into Southern California will undoubtedly create no little curiosity among churchmen in general, to know what he has to say and learn, if possible, just what his present attitude is. This being the condition, he will probably not lack an audience wherever he may appear.

CONGREGATIONAL UNION.

The Congregational Union held a meeting and banquet at the Young Women's Christian Association Hall last night. It was a pleasant affair throughout, and was attended by about a hundred persons.

E. P. Clark, president of the union, presided gracefully throughout the evening, and following the dinner an entertaining programme was rendered. The singing of Miss Clara E. Sands, with violin obligato by R. H. Bacon and piano by Miss Hulburd, was most enjoyable. Miss Sands has the rare combination in her voice of great power and beauty and smoothness of tone.

It was decided last night to form a Congregational Club for the purpose of promoting the social life of the churches of the city and creating a fund to carry out the idea. A paper was circulated, the signers to which agreed to pay $1 a year and become members of the club.

Rev. B. F. Boller, pastor of Olivet Congregational Church, talked upon the subject "Methods that Win in a California Pastorate." He spoke upon the common-sense side of his topic, and advocated associating the church with the activities of the neighborhood in which it is located, thus familiarizing with the church and the pastor people who otherwise would not come in contact with either. This plan he has in active operation in his church, in which the meetings of the Washington-street Improvement Association are held. Among other things he said was this:

"The opera and the theater, what there is good in them, must be uplifted and purified."

The subject of Rev. Dr. Warren F. Day was "The Outlook in Los Angeles." He spoke of what had been done in increasing the denomination in the city from one church to fourteen. He said the people who are coming to Los Angeles are of the most desirable class, and he won applause when he said that the action of the City Council on Monday in legislating against prize-fighting did more to make it worth their coming than anything that had occurred in the city for six months.

Rev. A. B. Chase presented the Spanish work, and Rev. William C. Merrill of Santa Barbara spoke on "Congregational Ideals."

NAZARENE ASSEMBLY.

Yesterday the general assembly of the Church of the Nazarene received a report from the missionary committee upon the subject of the establishment of permanent home and foreign mission boards. The recommendation to form them was adopted and a committee of fifteen to work out the plan will be appointed before the assembly adjourns. This was the only important business transacted yesterday, and the larger part of the day was taken up by devotional meetings and the home camp meeting.

RAILROAD RECORD.

"SCALPERS" MAY KILL EXCURSION BUSINESS.

LOW CALIFORNIA RATES MAY CEASE AFTER NEXT YEAR.

Passenger Agent Byrne Forecasts Action by Transcontinental Lines on Cut-Rate Nuisance—Conventions Already Arranged for Coast Not Affected.

"Scalpers are so persistent in their violation of the law, even in the face of injunctions of the courts," said J. J. Byrne, general passenger agent of the Santa Fé, yesterday, "that it sems doubtful if the railroads, after next year, will grant any more special convention rates to California. This cut-rate-ticket business of the scalpers causes so much trouble that the railroads are almost compelled to cease making cheap excursion rates, for it offers such an unlimited field for skulduggery. And it is surprising to know how many people—of reputation even and high standing morally—will stoop to that form of dishonesty, and fortify themselves with old letters and sign other names than their own. Where there is one scalper, there are many, many people who will patronize him."

The railroads lose thousands and thousands of dollars annually from scalpers.

Should the various railway systems of the West conclude to make no more convention rates hereafter, it would not be pleasant news to California. Mr. Byrne evidently voices the sentiment of the strongest lines, for he has just returned from Chicago, where an extended conference of western traffic managers has been held, and the "scalper" question considered.

The above intimation of possible future policy, however, will not interfere with the big conventions arranged for the Pacific Coast next year. The rates heretofore announced informally were only authorized at the Chicago conference. These rates will prevail on the basis of $50 from Chicago for the round trip. The Methodists in Los Angeles, the Knights Templar and the Odd Fellows in San Francisco will be next year's big events.

COLONISTS COMING.

Tomorrow morning, the Santa Fé announces, will see more than two hundred colonists and tourists arrive at La Grande station. The occasion is not special, but word was received yesterday that from six to eight tourist sleepers are due at that time, amounting to an extra train, in addition to the regular equipment of two trains. The newcomers are from all parts of the East, and it just happened that one car after another has had to be added by the railroad to accommodate the people, until more than a half-dozen will arrive all at once tomorrow.

November is the last month for colonist rates.

GRAND CANYON SERVICE.

Beginning December 3 the Santa Fé will run a sleeper once a week to the Grand Cañon. It will leave Los Angeles every Thursday, and depart from the cañon every Monday.

TODAY'S BANK CLEARINGS. The clearings of the Los Angeles Clearing-house today amounted to $1,125,126.49, as compared with $928,829.78 for the corresponding period of last year, an increase of $196,296.71. Following is a comparative statement of local clearings day by day for the week as it ensues, beginning Monday, November 2, 1903:

	1903.	1902.	1901.
Monday	$1,079,943.67	$1,156,951.07	$724,081.76
Tuesday	1,151,190.45	(Holiday)	580,365.05

STOCKS WIDELY SCATTERED. How widely the securities of the leading railroads and industrials have become distributed is well illustrated by the Pennsylvania Railroad and the United States Steel Corporation. The Pennsylvania Railroad has 35,000 stockholders. The present capital of the company is $301,000,000, divided into something over 6,000,000 shares of a par value of $50. The average holding of Pennsylvania stock, therefore, is only 172 shares. The United States Steel Corporation has 9,000,000 shares of common and preferred stock outstanding. Including the 28,000 employés who hold stock under the profit-sharing plan, the total number of shareholders of the Steel Corporation is 99,000. This makes the average holdings less than 90 shares. The American Sugar Refining Company has 15,000 shareholders. Before the organization of the company less than forty people owned the properties which were absorbed. The companies whose securities are dealt in on the New York Exchange, have over 1,000,000 shareholders.

One year ago the Illinois Central Railroad had a total of 7128 stockholders, and among them were 5599 people who owned less than 100 shares each, and who combined owned $13,352,000 of a total capital stock issue amounting to $95,038,400. During the year the total number of stockholders increased to 8647, out of whom 6728 owned colectively $15,947,600. This shows that the increase of 1519 in the total number of stockholders came mainly from the small investor.—[Cincinnati Price Current.

PIG STICKING. The Cincinnati Price Current of October 29 says: There is but little tendency yet apparent toward increase in market offerings of hogs. Total western packing 320,000, compared with 295,000 the preceding week, 265,000 two weeks ago, and 305,000 three weeks ago. For corresponding time last year the number was 420,000, and two years ago 480,000. From March 1 the total as indicated by current returns and estimates is 12,575,000, against 11,940,000 a year ago—an increase of 635,000. The quality is from fair to good, the latter prevailing. Prices were well sustained most of the week, receding at the close, with an average for prominent markets of [illegible] per 100 pounds, compared with [illegible] a week ago, $5.60 two weeks ago, [illegible] a year ago, $5.80 two years ago, [illegible] three years ago, $4.10 four years ago.

The speculative provision market was only fairly active the past week, with the tone steadier and some gain in values as compared with the preceding week. In a general way there were no important developments, and the character of the trading was along the same lines as in the recent past. At the reduced prices of last week there was more inclination to buy, and this had the effect of steadying the market, but at the slight recovery in prices the demand again became quite moderate. The export clearances of product were moderate, and show a decrease as compared with the preceding week, but a slight increase compared with the corresponding week last year.

The following shows the lowest, highest and closing prices of leading articles at Chicago for the week, for deliveries indicated, and also the closing a week ago and a year ago:

GERMANY'S POTATO CULTURE. Frank H. Mason, Consul-General of the United States at Berlin, has reported at length to the State Department upon the scientific potato cultivation in Germany, showing that the average yield per acre in 1902 was 199.01 bushels, while in this country it was only 96 bushels, less than one-half. The total yield from nearly 9,000,000 acres under cultivation was about 1,600,000,000 bushels, while in the United States nearly 3,000,000 acres were cultivated, with a total yield of about 300,000,000 bushels. The average production per capita in Germany was 28.27 bushels, and in the United States 3.73 bushels. The average price per bushel was 31 cents for exports and 34 cents for imports in Germany, while in the United States it was respectively, 90 and 41 cents. The market value of yield per acre was $39.92 in Germany, and $45.22 in the United States, the higher amount in the United States being due to the fact that farm value in this country was 47.1 cents a bushel, while in Germany it was 12.62 cents for manufacturing purposes, and 20.9 cents as food. The excess in yield per acre in Germany is due to the fact that potato cultivation, like all farming in that country, is based on an exact knowledge of the soil. The Ministry of Agriculture, through its system of experimental stations, has worked out the problem of varieties, soils, methods of planting, cultivation, and harvesting; the farmer has only to follow the methods that modern science has made easy and plain, and with reasonably favorable sunshine and rain fall his result is secure.

LOCAL PRODUCE MARKETS.

Ranch eggs were scarce today (Thursday) and the price reported was 38 cents for prime stock. The demand is good and supplies by no means enough to meet requirements. Dealers say they will be surprised if prices go any higher. The market, however, is firm. Fresh eastern and storage are also firm.

Butter and cheese unchanged.

Good potatoes are scarce; other grades reported a little firmer.

Onions slow, with only fancy grades finding sale.

NEW YORK MARKET.

SHARES AND MONEY.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—The persistent weakness in the United States Steel securities today was a weight upon the whole stock market. The repressive effect was evident at the outset, when the stocks of both classes and the second-mortgage bonds all opened at lower prices than before. But the influence was resisted for a time, except for a few stocks affiliated with the iron and steel trade. During the forenoon, the effect on the railroad stocks held above last night's level. Dividends came off a number of important stocks this morning and the appearance of cheapness thus produced perhaps encouraged some bidding up. Both Pennsylvania and Atchison were in this class. Amalgamated Copper also offered some resistance in the early part of the day, apparently on account of the putting-forward on the court calendar of the litigation in Montana. The whole market yielded, however, in the late dealing, and the closing was weak, with many of the standard railroad stocks a point or more below last night. The industrials and specialties showed even wider declines. In the outpouring of United Steel stocks in the late dealings, the price of the common touched 10⅝; of the preferred, 54⅝, and the second bonds, 66⅝, for common. The slump in the securities after the long-continued decline which they have already undergone, let loose a flood of rumors and conjectures. Some of these were colored with a sensational tinge, but the conviction was very general in the street that the situation in the iron and steel trade was very discouraging, and conditions were much unset. Sales were made in the outside market of the next dividend on United Steel common at [illegible] of 1 per cent. on several thousand shares. Reports of cuts in steel products were very contradictory, but the decision to make the price of 23.00 a ton for steel billets, compared with the recent price of 27.00, was known on authority. There were rumors in addition of coming cuts in steel rails, and in other lines of finished product of reductions in wages throughout the industry and of the discharge of large forces of workingmen. The announcement of the resignation of one of the executive officials of the corporation was used as a basis for rumors of official friction widely-extended and of a coming extensive reduction of the executive forces for the purposes of economy. The [illegible] of some heavy sales of the corporation's product in foreign markets gave no help to the stocks. The bond market was easy. Total sales, $2,047,000. United States bonds were unchanged on the last call.

GENERAL EASTERN MARKETS.

GRAIN AND PRODUCE.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

CHICAGO, Nov. 5.—There was a phenomenal selling pressure in December wheat, which has characterized trading the past few hours, at the start today, and during the opening hour that delivery declined to a point below what May was selling at. News was again decidedly bearish before the opening, cables being generally weak, receipts larger and weather favorable, and many traders seemed inclined to dispose of their holdings. After opening unchanged to ¼ lower, at 78½@78⅝, December quickly declined to 77⅝. There was a good demand for May throughout, and that month was firm and tended to support the nearby options. Toward the noon hour reaction set in which resulted in a recovery of most of the early losses. December closed with a loss of ⅛ to ¼, at 78¼@78⅜. Complaints from reliable sources continued to come in regarding the poor condition of the corn crop, and with general commission houses the sentiment was quite bullish. December closed ⅝ higher, at 44⅛. Oats ruled firm in sympathy with the strength in corn. December closed ⅜ higher, at 35¼. Lard was the strong item in the provision market and showed a fair advance on a good demand from shorts, but other products were easier; January pork closed 7½@10c lower; lard 10c higher, and ribs a shade higher.

The leading futures closed as follows:

New York Cotton Market.

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—The cotton market today developed into one of the most sensationally exciting and active ones of recent times. Prices were forced up at a record rate, and trading continued active at the advance. December, which had sold at 10.25 last Monday, and had opened at 10.60, was soon forced up to 10.92. January advanced to 10.82; March to 10.90, and May to 10.91. This represented gains since the close of last night of 24 to 30 points. The gains were largely due to a very bullish crop estimate issued by a conservative local house, estimating the crop at 10,257,000 bales and with a future aggressive bull support, a less favorable turn in the weather and the reported heavy buying by spinners.

Yerba Lip-Tus

Stomach Talk.

Dyspepsia makes life miserable. Its victims eat because they have to—not for the distress that follows. They are fretful, irritable and "snappy;" they have a "bad taste" and suffer from belching, fullness, headache etc., and are weak and wably because undigested food bringeth not strength. Many home people cured of painful stomach ills, and repulsive nasal catarrh by using—

California Yerba Lip-Tus.

Here's convincing testimony:

"For fifteen years I have suffered untold agony with my stomach—dreaded to eat because of discomfort and pain; because weak and draggy, and had no real pleasure in living. Took many remedies prescribed but Yerba Lip-Tus Tablets cured me, and it is the grandest medicine in the world for stomach troubles. MRS. W. SUESS, 850 South Grand Ave."

In powdered form Yerba Lip-Tus is equally good for nose or throat catarrh.

"Yerba Lip-Tus cured my son of most offensive catarrh; so ill he had to be kept from school. MRS. SMART, 3110 Altura Street."

[NEWS REPORTS FROM TIMES CORRESPONDENTS.]

BURGLARS DO THOROUGH JOB AT RIVERSIDE.

BIG RESIDENCE RANSACKED FROM CELLAR TO GARRET.

O. H. Hicks Returns from Eastern Trip to Discover Loss of Several Hundred Dollars by Thieves—Mineral Specimens from Desert.

RIVERSIDE, Nov. 5.—Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Hicks, who returned last night from an eastern trip, found that their handsome residence on Brockton avenue had been looted by burglars during their absence. The thieves, evidently two of them, effected an entrance by prying open a window. They had worked at night, and rather than risk turning on the electric lights they ransacked every room in the house with the aid of matches. Hundreds of burned matches on the floors testified to the thoroughness of their search. Everything was overhauled. Costly silk dresses and fine pieces of bric-a-brac were thrown on the floor and discarded, while several boxes of silk neckties and handkerchiefs and a quantity of silverware and curios were carried away. The police were notified today of the crime. There is no clew to the perpetrators, or as to when the burglary was committed. The value of the goods stolen will approximate several hundred dollars.

BREEZY BITS.

Rev. Dr. H. B. Gage of Long Beach, who is visiting friends here, returned a few days ago from the desert, bringing with him a fine collection of minerals from this county, principally from the mountains near Cahuilla. Some of the specimens of tourmaline are exceptionally fine.

H. T. Hays returned today from a month's eastern trip. Mrs. Hays and Miss Wanda Hays are visiting relatives in Pennsylvania, and will return within a few weeks.

A meeting of the Magnolia Avenue Improvement Association will be held Friday evening at the Casa Blanca Clubhouse on Adams street to consider the proposed sidewalk ordinance, the proposed construction of concrete bridges to cross the canal on Palm and Magnolia avenues, near Madison street, the Salt Lake shops proposition and the double-track electric railway matter.

The Riverside Woman's Club met in general assembly yesterday afternoon decided by vote to call the beverage commonly served at receptions "fruitade," and not "punch."

Ninth street, from Market to Orange, is to be paved with asphalt, the contractors having conceded the changes asked by the City Trustees.

SANTA ANA.

SHUTTING OUT ELECTRIC ROAD.

SANTA ANA, Nov. 5.—At the meeting of the Chamber of Commerce last night the special committee on the right of way for the proposed Los Angeles-Santa Ana electric road submitted a detailed report. While the committee reported a general advance since the mass-meeting at Garden Grove a week ago, the response met with among the ranchers had not been satisfactory. A very considerable percentage of the right of way had not been conceded and numbers of the property owners were still apparently hanging back for big prices for their land, in the belief that the road would come whether they gave concessions or not. After a detailed consideration of the matter, the chamber instructed the committee to meet this evening with the Garden Grove contingent at Garden Grove and there to determine finally whether or not any further effort should be made to obtain the right of way or whether the route should be abandoned and an attempt made to secure the line through some other district.

LESSON FOR TOUGHS OF SAN BERNARDINO.

JOHNNY PAINE FOUND GUILTY OF PRISON OFFENSE.

Notorious Young Thug Who Disgraced Faithful Mother, Likely to Wear Stripes—Trial of Alleged Fellow-thug Promptly Begun—Chance for Girl.

SAN BERNARDINO, Nov. 5.—Johnny Paine, about the worst of the bunch of disreputable young men of the city, who keep the officers in hot water most of the time, was today convicted by a jury in the Superior Court on the serious charge of assault with a deadly weapon. The testimony went to show that Paine with two youthful companions made a vicious assault one night last week on G. H. Bovee, and his son, brutally beating them.

This is the most serious charge Paine has yet run up against, and his conviction will probably be followed by a stiff sentence. Paine's aged mother has paid hundreds of dollars in fines and in other ways in getting her worthless son out of previous scrapes.

Within a few minutes after the verdict was rendered the trial of Becentia Salas, an alleged accomplice of Paine, who is charged with the same crime, was commenced in the same court where Paine had been convicted. It took only a short time to agree on a jury, and the taking of testimony was then begun.

A petition was filed today by Victor Berger to have committed to the Whittier Reform School Lee Parker, an incorrigible youth of 16, who has given the local police all kinds of trouble. The matter will come up at 9 o'clock tomorrow morning in the Superior Court.

AROUND TOWN.

Mary Worthy, a fifteen-year-old girl, who has recently fallen into evil ways by reason of bad associations, was yesterday taken from the County Hospital to the Salvation Army Shelter Home in Los Angeles, where it is believed she can be transformed into a good girl.

The company is capitalized at $25,000, of which the sum of $250 has been subscribed by the following, who constitute the Board of Directors: E. J. Richardson, Earl H. Richardson, M. Richardson, North Ontario; E. R. Shaw and M. S. Shaw of Ontario.

BAKERSFIELD.

DAYLIGHT HOLD-UP.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

BAKERSFIELD, Nov. 5.—Frank Coleman, a sausage maker, was held up in broad daylight this afternoon by two men, both of whom have been arrested. The hold-up occurred about half a block from the business center of the city. One man slipped up behind Coleman and seized him around the neck, while the other went through his pockets. As he was released, one man whispered a warning in his ear that if he dared to complain he would be killed. A policeman happened to come up a minute after the affair and captured one of the highwaymen after a chase. The other was apprenhended later.

The Rosiere.

If there is no virtue in Paris, it is not because the authorities do not encourage it. Those who have gone out of the beaten track of sightseeing know what a rosiere means. A rosiere is a deserving young girl who has lived an honest life, often one of sacrifices, and who receives a reward in the month of June, the month of roses. Often these rosieres are orphans who have worked hard to bring up and support a family of small brothers and sisters, or who have supported blind relatives, or those suffering from other infirmities. These girls must have lived virtuous lives, never have gone out alone with young men, and must never have sought diversion at the expense of those they have cared for. The rosiere is generally from 20 to 25 years old, and is chosen from the common walks of life. Of course, there are always many who present themselves, and the Mayor of one of the twenty districts of Paris, or of a small town, for rosieres can be found in all parts of France, examines the claims of all the aspirants, and the prize is given to the most deserving. It is not much, for there are only $5000 to be divided among forty girls in the twenty districts. It is not much, but we must remember that money is more valuable in France than in America, and that one franc, worth 20 cents, goes as far with the poor in France as a dollar does in America.

In the small towns the ceremony of rewarding the rosiere is touching. She is dressed in white, goes to mass in the morning, and takes the holy sacrament; then, generally accompanied by the village band, she walks to the village Courthouse, where the Mayor is ready to receive her. After a short address, he hands her the prize with a wreath of roses, which she places on her head. When the rosiere happens to be engaged to a worthy young man, the community makes it an object to marry the couple on the day the rosiere is crowned and rewarded, and thus combines two important ceremonies; then she employs a part of the money in buying her trousseau.—[Brooklyn Eagle.

After the Wedding.

"But they told me you had money."

"And they buncoed me into thinking you were rich."

"Well, what's to be done about it?"

ONLY A SUGGESTION.

But It Has Proven of Interest and Value to Thousands.

Common sense would suggest that if one wishes to become fleshy and plump it can only result from the food we eat and digest and that food should be albuminous or flesh-forming food, like eggs, beefsteak, and cereals; in other words, the kinds of food that make flesh are the foods which form the greater part of our daily bills of fare.

But the trouble is that while we eat enough and generally too much, the stomach, from abuse and overwork, does not properly digest and assimilate it, which is the reason so many people remain thin and under weight; the digestive organs do not completely digest the food-forming beefsteak and eggs and similar wholesome food.

There are thousands of such who are really confirmed dyspeptics, although they may have no particular pain or inconvenience from their stomachs.

If such persons would lay their prejudices aside and make a regular practice of taking, after each meal one or two of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, the food would be quickly and thoroughly digested, because these tablets contain the natural peptones and diastase which every weak stomach lacks, and by supplying this want the stomach is soon enabled to reach its natural tone and vigor.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets digest every form of flesh-forming food, meat, eggs, bread and potatoes, and this is the reason they so quickly build up, strengthen and invigorate thin, dyspeptic men, women and children.

Invalids and children, even the most delicate, use them with marked benefit, as they contain no strong, irritating drugs, no cathartic nor any harmful ingredient.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets is the most successful and most widely known of any remedy for stomach troubles because it is the most reasonable and scientific of modern medicines.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are sold by every druggist in the United States and Canada as well as in Great Britain, at 50 cents for complete treatment.

Nothing further is required to cure any stomach trouble or to make thin, nervous dyspeptic people, strong, plump and well.

Who Have Contracted Disorders PERMANENTLY

The Leading Specialist.
DR. O. C. JOSLEN

The progress in the study of contracted disorders in the past few years has resulted in my advanced methods of securing permanent results. In my practice I use special methods of irrigation, and a method of my own devising for installations that cure gonorrhoea PERMANENTLY in from 3 to 10 days. I make frequent inspections of the canal by means of a small electric light, which enables me to see and to treat each inflamed part separately, and I am also enabled to show the patient himself the conditions that actually exist. Following my treatment there are no evil after results. There is no stricture to fear, not the slightest chance of a chronic condition (sometimes called gleet,) but there is COMPLETE healing of the inflamed and poisoned tissue. Never use harsh injections or drastic internal remedies to stop the discharge, for if you do it is certain that in the future you will find your state worse than ever. I guarantee you a PERFECT CURE, and as well as that

My Methods of Treatment
Are the Most Rational, Direct and Effective, and are Not in Common Use.

Statement of Interest to Many Men.

The unreasonable treatment of many conditions is the direct cause for continued use of treatment, due to improper treatment rather than disease. I have found many men also who treated for conditions which they did not have, which accounts for failure to cure. I am convinced the treatment I employ is the most rational and effective, since it removes the direct cause. By personal attention I am enabled to treat with a certainty of a cure.

NOT BY MAIL.
Certainty of a Cure is What You Want.

Permanent results cannot be had by guessing. Many have tried it and failed. When I commence to treat a case I know what for and why—what to do and how to do it. My treatment and methods are the most effective and I get at the EXACT CAUSE.

Varicocele Cured 4 to 6 Days.

The methods which I employ in the treatment of varicocele and associated diseases for speedy results have long been approved by the extent of my practice and by my phenomenal success in the cure of these conditions. My methods result in the establishment of perfect health. They do not involve loss of time from business and are free from painful, harsh measures, which patients would do well to avoid. I will be pleased to explain to gentlemen who are interested.

Contracted Diseases.

I am confident I cure these ailments more quickly than any one claiming to treat successfully these conditions. Has your case become chronic through improper treatment or by the use of caustic remedies? Has it caused deep-seated inflammation in the urinary tract, the result of which you now suffer from stricture?

Stricture.

10 to 15 days is usually sufficient in the most aggravated cases. I have devoted much time to the formation and complete eradication of urethral obstruction.

[NEWS REPORTS FROM TIMES CORRESPONDENTS.]

NORTH ABOUT READY TO JOIN PASADENA.

ANNEXATION SENTIMENT STRONG AT MASS MEETING.

Committee Appointed to Present the Whole Question Again Next Month. Prof. Grinnell on Bird Lore—Woman Ransacks House—Clever Hobo.

PASADENA, Office of The Times, No. 26 South Raymond Avenue, Nov. 6.—Judged from general sentiment expressed at a mass meeting in North Pasadena last night, the much-talked-of annexation by Pasadena will be accomplished. The meeting was called by the North Pasadena Improvement Association for the purpose of discussing the pros and cons of annexation. The association has under advisement certain improvements which it did not wish to take up until the matter of annexation was settled, for the present at least.

By 7:30 fully 100 citizens of the northern suburb had assembled in the vacant store of G. A. Winner. In the absence of the president of the association, M. D. Painter, proprietor of the La Pintoresca Hotel, was made chairman of the evening. In taking the chair, Mr. Painter expressed himself as heartily in favor of annexation and he was backed up in short speeches made by Isaac Jewell, E. E. Jones, G. A. Ennis, Lewis Lackdell, D. W. Lewis, J. R. Harden and others.

The leaders of the opposition were L. Reed, Amos Wright and H. H. Benedict, who were all of the opinion that to join Pasadena would unduly increase the taxes and throw upon the northern citizens the burden of supporting some interests from which they derived no benefit. This matter of increased taxes appeared to be the only stumbling block in the way of a unanimous opinion in favor of annexation. The general sentiment of the meeting was in favor of the move. The result of the meeting was the appointment of M. D. Painter as chairman of a committee of five, he to appoint the other four members, to map out plans for the proposed annexation in regard to boundaries, benefits and possible detriments of the movement; in short, to cover the matter thoroughly on both sides of the question. This committee is to report at a public meeting set for December 1. Painter has not yet appointed the other four members of the committee.

BIRDS AND THE FOREST.

Prof. Joseph Grinnell, head of the botanical department of Throop, delivered a very interesting lecture on "Birds in Relation to Forestry," last night in the institute assembly hall before a large audience. The lecture was based on his own observations in the mountains about Pasadena and elsewhere, and as the young professor has lived in Pasadena for twenty years, his words were listened to with unusual interest. He is a fellow of the American Ornithological Union and has gained a prominent position among scientists for his work along ornithological lines.

He introduced his subject by speaking of the interdependence of trees, insects and birds with the wonderful hand of nature working as the regulator through it all.

"The relation of the birds to forestry is especially important in this locality, as we are so dependent on the conservation of the waters, and the forest plays the largest part in this storage. Careful observation shows that in almost all cases the birds are a benefit to the trees and assist in the development of the forests. This benefit is derived in two ways, first, in the checking of insect pests and second, by the scattering of seeds.

"The larger percentage of the birds are of the class of insect eaters which are divided into two classes, the foliage feeders and the bark feeders. Of the former, the warblers are the most numerous and the auclubon is used as an example to demonstrate their effect. They will average, at a close estimate, [illegible] of this species to an acre, and as I have found from extensive data that they eat on an average two flies per minute during a day of ten hours, I believe that I can safely say that within the limits of Pasadena over 15,[illegible]000 flies a day are eaten by this one species of bird. On my home place there was one of these birds that was blind in one eye and this I believe had a tendency to make him stay around the place, although they generally move over a large area. My data were gathered from him, and as he was handicapped, the estimate is a safe one. This bird makes a strange little sound like sip, sip, and I even estimated that he takes two sips to each fly. By flies I mean insects of various kinds that live in the foliage of trees.

"The bark feeders are principally the creepers, chicadees and woodpeckers, and in their case it is interesting to note that the birds generally feed on insects in proportion to their size, and in many cases it is seen by the construction of their bills that nature meant them to eat but a few kinds of insects. Birds eat more in proportion to their size than almost any other animal, and this is necessary because the life they lead is such a fitting one that they use up much energy and have to be almost constantly feeding through the day.

"Of the seed planters, the jays and finches are the most interesting, and their influence on forest life is a very important one. The jay begins planting acorns and other seeds early in the winter, as soon as they are ripe, and they plant the seeds at just the ideal depth for sprouting. As many of the birds forget where their hordes are, and as many of them die, the beneficial results can readily be appreciated. Of course, these birds feed on these seeds and the object in planting them is to come and dig them up again when needed, but nature has provided for this by supplying trees with far more seeds than she could ever hope to grow to maturity."

Prof. Grinnell illustrated his lecture with birds of his own mounting, and at the close most of the people went forward and examined the specimens more closely. His collection is one of the largest and best in the country, and his knowledge of birds most intimate.

FEMALE BURGLAR.

The house of Joseph Fulton on Locust street was entered some time during the past few days and ransacked, $9 in cash being taken. Suspicion points to a woman who was seen on the porch the other afternoon trying to get into the house. She was noticed by a neighbor, but the incident was forgotten until the robbery was reported. The money was missed the same night the woman was seen on the porch. Entrance was effected by means of a skeleton key.

Some time Thursday morning the bunkhouse at Kinney Oak ranch, north of Lamanda Park, was broken into and $2.50 and a pocketknife belonging to W. A. Williams, and $3.50 and a [illegible] belonging to an employé named Rosenauer, was taken. A Smith & Wesson revolver was also secured. It is thought that the burglary was committed by two Mexicans, who were carousing near the place the night before, and who were seen there early the following morning. Constable Harley Newell took up the hunt, but the trail was cold, and there have been no arrests.

IN THE POLICE COURT.

Hans Hall, the negro bootblack employed at La Spada Bros.' barber shop, was before Judge Congdon yesterday on the charge of "tumultuous and offensive conduct." Being asked by the judge why he came so often he said, "I never come unless somebody brings me." He will not be brought again for at least sixty days, as he was given that time in the County Jail. Upon his arrival home from Los Angeles on the "jag car" Wednesday night he used most abusive language. Officer McIntyre attempted to arrest him and a fight ensued. Hans woke up in the City Jail.

Thomas Kelly, a sixteen-year-old lad, who claims that he hoboed it from St. Louis, and that he had never been arrested, was pulled out of a box car late Wednesday night. He received fair treatment from the police department, as a job was found for him in Simon's brick yard. He hit the tender spot of the judge when he said that the dream of his life had been to get to California, which was the most beautiful State in the Union.

FINDINGS.

Jim Britton, who has been spending the past month at Glendora for his health, is reported to be improving, having gained nineteen pounds since he went out there. He does not expect to return to Pasadena for two months and will spend the last month in the mountains.

Chief Freeman was a popular man about town yesterday, as it was his birthday, and except for a few sore places where the friendly punches landed, he survived the day very well. He received a letter yesterday from an eastern State, which was addressed to "Mr. Freeman, Chief of Police, California," which proves his fame.

J. W. Keese, a retired capitalist who had been a resident of Pasadena but eight months, died Wednesday night. The remains will be shipped to his former home in Syracuse, N. Y. He was 64 years old.

Reports from the library state that during the past month 300 new subscribers have been added and that 600 more volumes were circulated during the month than for the corresponding month last year.

Chester Vail, who has been seriously ill with the pneumonia, is recovering and will soon be on the street again.

Mr. and Mrs. George S. Yarnell arrived yesterday from Philadelphia and will spend the winter in Pasadena.

The Executive Committee of the Tournament of Roses will hold a meeting tonight at 7:30 o'clock in the office of Daggett & Daggett in the Dodworth block.

SANTA MONICA.

LIBRARY BIDS OPENED.

SANTA MONICA, Nov. 5.—The Board of Library Trustees held a meeting at 5 o'clock this afternoon and opened bids for the construction of the new Carnegie Building. Only two bids were received, both came from Los Angeles, and one of them was irregular, there being no certified check accompanying it. The regular bid was from the Continental Construction Company and asked $13,789 for the building complete. Several suggestions are made for the changing of the specifications to bring the building within the Carnegie donation of $12,500. The sum of $550 would be deducted from the $13,789 if a change were made from solid brick walls to 2x6 studding sheathed diagonally and veneered with pressed brick. This change would allow the basement walls to be cut four inches at a saving of an additional $150. The bidder also says if the steam heating plant were omitted and gas radiators substituted, another saving of $500 could be made. The irregular bid was from John Rebman, who wanted $15,890 for the construction of the building complete. There was a disposition on the part of the board to cut out a few of the things suggested by the construction company and to award the contract to that company, but an adjournment was taken until 8 o'clock Saturday evening, when it is expected final action will be taken.

BEACH BRIEFS.

At the meeting of the Board of Education last evening it was decided to open a new room in the Ocean Park school and Miss Holway of Wadsworth avenue, this city, was elected teacher of the same. The room will have children from the second, third and fourth grades, and will be opened next Monday.

Dr. N. H. Hamilton, who went to Baltimore two months ago to be operated upon, is reported to have gone through the operation successfully and will return to Santa Monica early in December.

The property-owners of South Ocean avenue, between Front and Strand streets, are about to petition to have their street improved under the ten-year bond act. It is intended to grade, sidewalk and curb the thoroughfare. The street has been practically impassable for years, and all movements heretofore to improve it have been defeated by a majority protest.

"Come all ye that are heavy laden"—put a "Liner" in The Times and the burden will be gone. Telephone your wants to Main 95, and our Santa Monica agency will take your ad. and send it to the main office.

MONROVIA.

ANOTHER NEWSPAPER.

MONROVIA, Nov. 5.—Mr. McPhee of Santa Ana has announced his intention to start a daily newspaper here immediately. He has leased an office in the Spence Block, adjoining the Public Library, and will move a plant here from Santa Ana. It is reported that C. N. Whitaker will be the editor.

The City Improvement Association has been at work for some time to have several buildings on the east side of Myrtle avenue moved back into line with the majority of the buildings. They have succeeded, and the Harper, Badeau, and Slosson blocks are to be set back. As soon as this is done a cement sidewalk will be laid.

Hon. A. J. Greer of Lake City, Minn., formerly a member of the Legislature of that State, with Mrs. Greer, has come to Monrovia to reside. They spent last winter here.

SHARK'S GREAT FIGHT ON CATALINA BEACH.

HOOKED, GAFFED AND MAULED, IT FINALLY ESCAPES.

Big Creature Twice Runs Ashore, but Crowd of Men Fail to Subdue and Capture it—Teredo Pest Shows Remarkable Activity.

AVALON, Nov. 5.—George Johnson and T. D. Clark and "Mexican Joe" this morning went to the grouper banks in the launch Katherine for a shark hunt. About five miles off Church Rock some enormous sharks had been seen, and in such numbers that they robbed the anglers of their fish before they could get them into their boats.

At the banks it was not long before they had a big fellow on their string, and after half an hour's battle, conquered him. Then they hooked another, which was larger and gamier than the first, and it took nearly an hour to master him. The smaller one was taken into the boat, but the other was deemed too large to attempt, and having secured him with a tow line they returned home, arriving here at noon. The smaller shark was dumped out of the boat and brought ashore by Johnson and Clark, and in the meantime "Mexican Joe" had taken the line off the other and sinking his gaff into it started to tow it ashore. He thought it was dead, or so nearly so as to offer no resistance.

The big creature resented being gaffed the second time, and began to squirm. Joe is one of the most powerful men on the island, but he was no match for the "dead" shark. It twisted the gaff out of his hands as though he were a child. The hook with which it was caught was still in its mouth, and Joe grabbed the line, but that was likewise wrested from him in a twinkling, and the shark ran amuck. It headed shoreward and ran up on the beach. Here a dozen men attacked it, beating it over the head and body with oars and whatever they could lay their hands on. It retreated and, swimming along the beach for a hundred yards again came ashore. The men again fell upon the hapless creature, but once more it escaped into deep water and disappeared with the hook and line still in tow. It had fought an hour for its life, after having been towed eight miles behind a launch.

The captured one measured exactly ten feet in length and weighed 400 pounds.

"PERNICIOUS ACTIVITY."

As the result of the remarkable activity of teredos here, a man had a narrow escape from being precipitated into the bay today. As he was stepping into a boat the step suddenly gave way. Examination showed that, while the surface, which had been coated with tar, appeared as staunch as the day it was placed, there was scarcely a grain of the wood fiber remaining. This shows the wonderful rapidity of the teredos work of destruction, as the wharf was built but three months ago.

The Azusa Citrus Association mailed checks amounting to over $12,000 to its members today for the final dividend on Valencia lates for this season.

POMONA.

LIBRARY GROWING FAST.

POMONA, Nov. 5.—The membership of the Public Library is now 2295 and constantly growing, the reading and reference rooms at the new buildings being largely patronized. The circulation of books for home use during October, according to the report of the librarian, Miss M. E. Prentiss, was 2998, a gain of 316 over the same month last year. The library board is preparing to issue a monthly bulletin. Mayor Poston has just appointed Stephen Alden of the Third Ward to the position of library trustee, to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Dr. G. W. White, who recently removed to San Francisco. Dr. J. J. Page, Miss Izer and Mrs. C. A. Loud have made donations of books to the library, and S. D. Moles and Miss M. L. Topliff magazines.

The Board of Education has decided to move the school building now on the Currier tract to a site on Garey avenue, near Orange Grove avenue, and to close the North Pomona school, which has only fourteen pupils. These latter will attend the new Garey-avenue school, which will be taught by Miss Macy. Miss Mosher of the North Pomona school will be transferred to the Tenth-street school.

Jasper Cline, 8 years old, was run over by Wilton Bros.' team last night, while attempting to cross Second street. A gash was cut in his head, but the wound is not serious.

"Ask and ye shall receive," if you put a "Liner" in The Times. Telephone your wants to Black 1111, and our Pomona agency will take your ad. and send it to the main office.

WOMAN FELL RIGHT BEFORE MOVING TRAIN.

BLOODLESS HORROR FOR CROWD AT LONG BEACH DEPOT.

Lay Between Tracks and Was Actually Touched by Engine, but Squirmed Out With Timely Assistance and Remained Perfectly Cool — Baptists Postpone.

LONG BEACH, Nov. 5.—In the presence of a horrified crowd, a woman whose name was not learned narrowly escaped being ground to death by one of the Salt Lake engines this morning.

She undertook to cross the track from one of the Pacific Electric cars to the depot platform, when the 7 o'clock train from Los Angeles was pulling in. While between the rails she fell, and for a moment it seemed that her death could not be averted as the engine was but a few feet away. She threw herself toward the platform as well as she could in her prone position, and with the instant assistance of A. M. Dunn and a stranger, managed to squirm out from under the wheels. She was still so close that the engine touched her in several places in passing and many of the spectators thought she had been killed.

An instant's hesitation on her part or that of the men who helped her would have been fatal. The engineer did all in his power to stop the train, but was too close when she fell to accomplish much. The woman was cool as could be, apparently unaffected by her hair-raising experience and took the train for San Pedro just as if nothing had happened.

NO BAPTIST BUILDING.

An official meeting of the Baptist Church was held last night to consider the building question and while nothing was done and the meeting ended in a parliamentary tangle, it seems to be the general opinion of the membership that the building will be postponed for the present at least. When they were first told by the architects that the sort of a building they wanted could be erected for $10,000 there were some in the church who thought it would be well to wait awhile before undertaking so much of a burden. Now that the contractors say that the building will cost nearly $15,000, that being the lowest bid, they are practically forced to wait until conditions are better.

The business was opened by the report of the Building Committee, the bid of $15,000 being reported. Dr. F. B. Ives moved to refer the report back to the committee with the declaration that the plans were not satisfacory, and that they continue raising money for building in the future. This called out a bewildering succession of motions to amend and lay on the table, points of order, etc., until the usual round of parliamentary practice had been exhausted. Before the chair could get things straightened out someone slipped in a motion to adjourn which carried and they were obliged to go home with nothing settled.

SEASHORE SAYINGS.

So many of the Long Beach people wish to join in the Whittier celebration on Saturday that an effort will be made to have special cars go from here.

There will be a practice game between the first and second basketball team of the High School next Saturday afternoon. It will be the first public appearance of the new team and a great interest is felt.

The body of Mrs. Nellie C. Ash was taken to Pomona this morning for burial, accompanied by relatives and by Mrs. W. W. Lowe and Mrs. W. S. Stevens as representatives of the Order of the Eastern Star.

Several members of the Minnesota delegation which came to Los Angeles in private cars a few days since have settled down for the winter here. Of that number Mr. and Mrs. David Davis, Mrs. Morgan Bennett and two daughters will stay at the Julian; and Mr. and Mrs. Orrin Foster, Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Parker, Miss Marlowe and J. Neeley have taken quarters at the Butte.

Coroner Trout this morning held an inquest over the body of M. H. LaFetra, who was struck and killed by a Pacific Electric car at Willow street yesterday noon. The jury found that death was accidental and that no blame could attach to the railroad company. The body was then taken to Glendora for the funeral in the morning, and will be brought back to Los Angeles for burial.

The ceremony was performed by Dr. Harcourt W. Peck, pastor of the church. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Mamie Warner and Miss Pearl Hulce, the groom being accompanied by Clyde Wamsley and Carl Gordon. The wedding march was played by Mrs. E. McAllan. O'Neall, Esq., of St. Paul, Minn.; F. L. Brow, Charles Menefee and E. S. Ware.

INGLEWOOD.

WANT WOODEN UMBRELLAS.

INGLEWOOD, Nov. 5.—A year of trolley service has educated the people of this settlement up to high ideas. It is now declared that the time has arrived when to stand ankle-deep in the mud and hold an umbrella while waiting for a car savors too much of crude rural conditions. A petition is being circulated by W. H. Kelso among Inglewood people asking the Supervisors to grant the use of a small space of roadway at each of the trolley crossings of the vicinity for a waiting-room suited to the needs of the community. As soon as that permission is obtained it is proposed to build the waiting-rooms by voluntary subscriptions.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Thomas left this morning for Marlette, Mich., where they will make their future home.

At the regular meeting of the Good Templars yesterday evening, Mrs. Hattie Hill was elected financial secretary, vice Capt. T. J. Shea, resigned.

OCEAN PARK.

BOTTLE MESSAGE FOUND.

OCEAN PARK, Nov. 5.—While walking to Port Los Angeles last Saturday, Fred Salisbury noticed a large bottle cast ashore by the waves. There was paper inside, but the cork was so rotten that he had to break the bottle to remove it. Scrawled upon yellow wrapping paper he found the following:

"April 23, 1903. I can't tell you of our fate. We are lost with all on board. I can't say more—am too famished—are on a desert island. S. Swanson. Goodbye."

The first part of the date line was unintelligible. The decayed cork seems to indicate that the bottle had been in the water a long time.

Among those to locate here yesterday were: W. C. Easton, at No. 1½ Paloma avenue; J. R. Newberry, at No. 4 Sunset avenue; Miss H. Hynes, at No. 2 Speedway; Miss Ines Tuttle, at No. 17 Navy street.

Miss Mabel L. House's boys' "Success Club" is at work on a tennis court and basket-ball yard, and plans to establish a reading room.
